

(8) of the said Act, hereby makes the following Order:

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1. (1) This Order, which may be cited as the Temporary Restrictions on Pay Increases (20th July 1966 levels) (No. 3) Order 1966, shall come into operation on 1966.

(2) The Interpretation Act 1889 (1899 c.63) shall apply for the interpretation of this Order as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Restriction on certain pay increases by reference to 20th July 1966 levels

2. Section 29 of the Prices and Incomes Act 1966 (which imposes restrictions on increases in remuneration to which that section is applied by reference to levels before 20th July 1966) shall apply to remuneration under contracts of employment for work of the description specified in the Schedule to this Order.

Relevant period for comparing rates of remuneration

3. In comparing the rate of any remuneration with earlier remuneration paid before 20th July 1966, so far as required for the purpose of giving effect to this Order, account shall only be taken of such earlier remuneration as fell within the period of three months ending immediately before that date.

Comparison between rates of remuneration where there are normal working hours

4. (1) The following provisions of this Article shall apply in cases where there are normal working hours for the work, and any of the remuneration to be considered consists of or includes remuneration for work outside those normal working hours.

(2) In a case where the normal working hours for the work are such as to fall within the meaning of "normal working hours" given by sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 1 of Schedule 2 to the Contracts of Employment Act 1963 (1963 c.49) (that is to say, where the contract of employment provides for a fixed number of hours without overtime) remuneration for work in the normal working hours, and for work outside those hours, shall be considered separately, except that if the number of normal working hours at the later time is less, the rate of remuneration for work outside those hours at the later time for a period equal to the difference shall be compared with the rate of remuneration for work in the normal working hours at the earlier time.

(3) In a case where the normal working hours for the work are such as to fall within the meaning of "normal working hours" given by sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 1 of Schedule 2 to the said Act of 1963 (that is to say, where the contract of employment provides for a fixed number or minimum number of hours which exceeds the number of hours without overtime) remuneration for work in the number of hours without overtime, and for work in the number of hours with overtime, shall be considered separately, except that if the number of hours without overtime at the later time is less, the rate of remuneration for work in the number of hours with overtime at the later time for a period equal to the difference shall be compared with the rate of remuneration for work in the number of hours without overtime at the earlier time.

Given under the Hand of the First Secretary of State and Secretary of State for Economic Affairs on 1966.

First Secretary of State and Secretary of State for Economic Affairs.

SCHEDULE (see Article 2)

Description of Remuneration for Work

Remuneration for work performed under any contract of employment the terms of which include, expressly or by implication, all or any of the terms of the 1966/69 Industrial Agreement made between the National Federated Electrical Association and the Electrical Trades Union as the constituent members of the National Joint Industrial Council for the Electrical Contracting Industry."

REPORT OF THE NATIONAL BOARD FOR PRICES AND INCOMES

Productivity and Pay During the Period of Severe Restraint

On 24th August 1966, in pursuance of their powers under section 2 (1) of the Prices and Incomes Act, 1966, the First Secretary of State and the Minister of Labour referred the question of Productivity

Agreements to the National Board for Prices and Incomes for examination.

The Board is not yet in a position to make its final report, but, in response to a request from the Government, it has made a special report entitled "Productivity and Pay during the period of Severe Restraint". In accordance with section 5 (1) of the Prices and Incomes Act, 1966, the First Secretary of State and the Minister of Labour hereby give notice that the report was first published as Command Paper Number 3167 on 15th December 1966.

15th December 1966.

TREASURY

Treasury Chambers, London S.W.1.

16th December 1966.

1. The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that Tenders will be received at the Chief Cashier's Office, at the Bank of England on Friday the 23rd December 1966, at 1 p.m. for Treasury Bills to be issued under the Treasury Bills Act, 1877, the National Debt Act, 1889, and the National Loans Act, 1939, to the amount of £170,000,000.

2. The Bills will be in amounts of £5,000, £10,000, £25,000, £50,000 or £100,000. They will be dated at the option of the tenderer on any business day from Wednesday the 28th December to Saturday the 31st December 1966, inclusive, and will be due 91 days after date.

3. The Bills will be issued and paid at the Bank of England.

4. Each Tender must be for an amount not less than £50,000 and must specify the date on which the Bills required are to be dated, and the net amount per cent. (being an even multiple of one penny) which will be given for the amount applied for. Separate Tenders must be lodged for Bills of different dates.

5. Tenders must be made through a London Banker, Discount House or Broker.

6. Notification will be sent by post on the same day as Tenders are received, to the persons whose Tenders are accepted in whole or in part and payment in full of the amounts due in respect of such accepted Tenders must be made to the Bank of England by means of cash or by draft or cheque drawn on the Bank of England not later than 1.30 p.m. (Saturday 11 a.m.) on the day on which the relative Bills are to be dated.

7. Members of the House of Commons are not precluded from tendering for these Bills.

8. Tenders must be made on the printed forms which may be obtained from the Chief Cashier's Office, Bank of England.

9. The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury reserve the right of rejecting any Tenders.

The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that they have made an Order under sections 1, 2 and 13 of the Import Duties Act 1958, viz.:

The Import Duties (General) (No. 11) Order 1966.

This Order consolidates as at 31st December 1966 the Import Duties (General) (No. 10) Order 1964 and the various Orders amending it.

It also:

(1) eliminates the remaining import duty on a wide range of goods of E.F.T.A. origin to give final effect to the tariff provisions of the E.F.T.A. Convention;

(2) provides for the removal of the import duty on dried leeks, dried tomatoes and mustard seed of E.F.T.A. origin;

(3) refers to section 2 of the European Free Trade Association Act 1960 whereby the duty-free admission of goods of E.F.T.A. origin may, under regulations made by the Board of Trade, be subject to a condition that drawback shall not have been allowed in connection with the exportation of the goods from another E.F.T.A. country;

(4) incorporates changes in the names of certain chemicals in order to follow the revised system of chemical nomenclature recommended in British Standard 2474: 1965;
