

remuneration to which that section is applied by reference to levels before 20th July 1966) shall apply to remuneration under contracts of employment for work of the description specified in the Schedule to this Order.

Relevant period for comparing rates of remuneration

3. In comparing the rate of any remuneration with earlier remuneration paid before 20th July 1966, so far as required for the purpose of giving effect to this Order, account shall only be taken of such earlier remuneration as fell within the period of three months ending immediately before that date.

Comparison between rates of remuneration where there are normal working hours

4.—(1) The following provisions of this Article shall apply in cases where there are normal working hours for the work, and any of the remuneration to be considered consists of or includes remuneration for work outside those normal working hours.

(2) In a case where the normal working hours for the work are such as to fall within the meaning of 'normal working hours' given by sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 1 of Schedule 2 to the Contracts of Employment Act 1963 (1963 c. 49) (that is to say, where the contract of employment provides for a fixed number of hours without overtime) remuneration for work in the normal working hours, and for work outside those hours, shall be considered separately, except that if the number of normal working hours at the later time is less, the rate of remuneration for work outside those hours at the later time for a period equal to the difference shall be compared with the rate of remuneration for work in the normal working hours at the earlier time.

(3) In a case where the normal working hours for the work are such as to fall within the meaning of 'normal working hours' given by sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 1 of Schedule 2 to the said Act of 1963 (that is to say, where the contract of employment provides for a fixed number or minimum number of hours which exceeds the number of hours without overtime) remuneration for work in the number of hours without overtime, and for work in the number of hours with overtime, shall be considered separately, except that if the number of hours without overtime at the later time is less, the rate of remuneration for work in the number of hours with overtime at the later time for a period equal to the difference shall be compared with the rate of remuneration for work in the number of hours without overtime at the earlier time.

Given under the Hand of the First Secretary of State and Secretary of State for Economic Affairs on 1967.
