PRICES AND INCOMES ACT 1966

Reference to the National Board for Prices and Incomes

Remuneration of Solicitors

During 1966 proposals were put forward by the Law Society for increases in the levels of charges made by Solicitors for certain classes of business. Under existing legislation Solicitors' charges are subject to regulation by committees set up by statute. The charges concerned have not been revised for a number of years and the First Secretary of State and the Lord Chancellor consider it desirable that there should be an independent investigation of all relevant factors affecting the professional earnings of Solicitors before the Law Society's detailed proposals for increases in charges are considered by the statutory committees.

Accordingly, in pursuance of their powers under section 2(1) of the Prices and Incomes Act 1966, the First Secretary of State and the Lord Chancellor hereby refer to the National Board for Prices and Incomes for examination the question of all relevant factors affecting the professional earnings of Solicitors, having regard in particular to work done in the county courts and on business to which the scales of costs prescribed by the Solicitors' Remuneration Orders apply.

9th February 1967.
