

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The most humble and dutiful Address of the Lord Provost, Bailiffs, and Town-Council of your Majesty's Burgh of Hadingtown, in the Shire of East-Lothian, for themselves, and in Name of the whole Community of the said Burgh; presented to Her Majesty by the Marquis of Tweeddale.

WE your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, being always under the deepest Impressions, and most lively Sense of our duty to your Majesty, cannot but at this time, upon the Occasion of an intended Invasion of your Enemies, against your Majesty's Person and Government, threatening the Destruction of our Country, and of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, and all that is dear to Men, judge it our duty to make offer to your Majesty of our best Services to the most of our Capacities, both publick and private, with our Lives and Fortunes; and to adhere to and defend your Majesty's Person and Government, and to maintain the happy Succession in the Protestant Line, against all Popish Successors and Pretenders, especially the pretended Prince of Wales, and all his Abettors; as also to oppose the present Invasion, in defence of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, and of your Majesty's Kingdom of Great Britain, to the utmost of our Powers: We are and shall be ready to obey all your Royal Majesty's Commands, and that God may long preserve, and ever bless your Majesty's Person, and advance your Reign over us, with all Prosperity and Happiness, is and shall be the constant Prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most humble, most faithful, and most obedient Subjects and Servants. Subscribed, by Warrant, in Presence, and in Name of the Magistrates, Town-Council and Community above-mentioned, by Alexander Edgar, Provost.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriff, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin; presented to Her Majesty by his Excellency the Earl of Pembroke, Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland.

WE humbly beg leave to assure Your Majesty, that the intended Invasion of Your Majesty's Dominions by a spurious Prince, assisted with the Fleet and Troops of the French King, have kindled in us the firmest Zeal to assert Your Majesty's undoubted Right and Title to the Crown of these Realms, against all the Enemies of Your Person and Government.

We of this City have not long since groan'd under the Oppressions of a French Invasion; and we assure Your Majesty, that the Remembrance of our former Oppressions, together with the Sense of Duty to the best of Queens, shall oblige us freely to expend our Fortunes, and to expose our Lives, if occasion be, to the last Hazard, against the Designs and Attempts of the Popish Pretender and his Abettors.

And we further desire to assure Your Majesty, that the Hearts of all Your Protestant Subjects of this City are intirely devoted to your Majesty's Service, tho' the Hands of some be restrain'd from serving in Commission on this occasion. Given under our Common Seal at the Tholsell of the City of Dublin, the 24th Day of March, Anno Domini 1707.

The three following Addresses from the Kingdom of Ireland have likewise been presented to Her Majesty.

The humble Address of the Commissioners in a special Commission of Oyer and Terminate, High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Protestant Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Dublin, assembled at the general Meeting at their County Town of Kiltinanham, for executing the said Commission, and also of the Commissioners of Array for the said County, on the 22d of March, 1707-8.

The humble Address of the High-Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, and Militia Officers of the County of Kildare.

The humble Address of the Governor, High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, and other the Protestant Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Fermanagh; as also of the Provost, Burgesses and Freemen of the Corporation of Enniskilling.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Deputy-Lieutenants of your ancient City of Coventry; presented to Her Majesty by Sir Orlando Bridgeman Bar. and Edward Hopkins, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland.

YOUR Majesty's Right and Title to the Throne are undoubted, and the Virtues with which you adorn it are so conspicuous, that it would betray as great a Want of Duty and Loyalty not to submit to the one, as of Sense and Gratitude not to admire the other.

We have such Sentiments of both, that we were the worst of Men, as well as Subjects, if we should not resolve to defend a Person and Authority so Sacred, and both at once supported and adorned by uncommon Goodness.

We look with equal Indignation and Contempt on the weak and wicked Design of your Majesty's Enemies, and cheerfully devote our Lives and Fortunes to preserve your Majesty, and support your Government, and the Protestant Succession, against all the Attempts of the French King, and the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other your Enemies.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Burgesses, Inhabitants and Community of the Royal Burgh of Bruntsland; presented by Sir Jo. Areskone, Bar. Member of Parliament, introduced by his Grace James Duke of Montrose.

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, being sensible of the many Blessings we do enjoy under the benign Influences of your Majesty's glorious Reign, do most willingly lay hold on this Opportunity, to testify to your Majesty the just Sense we have of them, and the more especially in this Juncture, when by the Combination of your Majesty's Enemies supporting the Pretender to your Crown, a threatening Invasion impending, which by your Majesty's Watchfulness and timely Care, and chiefly by sending your Royal Navy under the Flag of your Kingdom, under the Command of Sir George Byng, we have is much prevented, and shall be soon entirely brought to nothing; and even these Enemies made sensible, how fruitless their Attempts must be rendered under the Reign of so Excellent a Princess.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our Readiness, with our Lives, and all that's dear to us, to defend your Majesty's Person, and assist your Government; and we hope your Majesty's Royal Boroughs shall by the happy Union, which we wish may be rendered more complete, so flourish by the increase of Trade, that our Zeal for the Support of your Majesty's Government, may be a suitable Means to exert it self under a Reign so auspicious: That God may long preserve your Majesty as a Blessing to these Nations, is our most earnest and hearty Wish.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Royal Burgh of Coupar; presented to Her Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Montrose.

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, with the greatest Cheerfulness, take this Opportunity, to return our most humble and hearty Thanks to your Majesty for your tender Care of our Safety, by sending your Royal Navy under the Command of Sir George Byng, so seasonably to our Assistance, when this part of your Kingdom was in so great Danger from an Invasion by a Pretender to your Crown, supported with a French Power threatening Popery and Slavery. Against whom and all other your Majesty's Enemies, we do assure you of our Readiness to defend your Royal Person, and assist your Government, with our Lives and all that's dear to us. And we hope the happy Union of your Kingdom of Great Britain, which we wish may be still more entire and complete, shall, by the flourishing of Trade and other Advantages, enable all your Majesty's good Subjects, and your Royal Boroughs in particular, to give Testimony of their Zeal for the Support of your Government, in some measure suitable to the great and many Blessings we enjoy under so glorious a Reign.

The Humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Deputy-Lieutenants of your ancient City of Coventry; presented to Her Majesty by Sir Orlando Bridgeman Bar. and Edward Hopkins, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland.

May it please your Majesty

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, being sensible of the many Blessings we do enjoy under the benign Influences of your Majesty's glorious Reign, do most willingly lay hold on this Opportunity, to testify to your Majesty the just Sense we have of them, and the more especially in this Juncture, when by the Combination of your Majesty's Enemies supporting the Pretender to your Crown, a threatening Invasion impending, which by your Majesty's Watchfulness and timely Care, and chiefly by sending your Royal Navy under the Flag of your Kingdom, under the Command of Sir George Byng, we have is much prevented, and shall be soon entirely brought to nothing; and even these Enemies made sensible, how fruitless their Attempts must be rendered under the Reign of so Excellent a Princess.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious

WE cannot but be sensible of the many Blessings we do enjoy under the benign Influences of your Majesty's glorious Reign, do most willingly lay hold on this Opportunity, to testify to your Majesty the just Sense we have of them, and the more especially in this Juncture, when by the Combination of your Majesty's Enemies supporting the Pretender to your Crown, a threatening Invasion impending, which by your Majesty's Watchfulness and timely Care, and chiefly by sending your Royal Navy under the Flag of your Kingdom, under the Command of Sir George Byng, we have is much prevented, and shall be soon entirely brought to nothing; and even these Enemies made sensible, how fruitless their Attempts must be rendered under the Reign of so Excellent a Princess.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Deputy-Lieutenants of your ancient City of Coventry; presented to Her Majesty by Sir Orlando Bridgeman Bar. and Edward Hopkins, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland.

Most Gracious

YOUR Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, with the greatest Cheerfulness, take this Opportunity, to return our most humble and hearty Thanks to your Majesty for your tender Care of our Safety, by sending your Royal Navy under the Command of Sir George Byng, so seasonably to our Assistance, when this part of your Kingdom was in so great Danger from an Invasion by a Pretender to your Crown, supported with a French Power threatening Popery and Slavery. Against whom and all other your Majesty's Enemies, we do assure you of our Readiness to defend your Royal Person, and assist your Government, with our Lives and all that's dear to us. And we hope the happy Union of your Kingdom of Great Britain, which we wish may be still more entire and complete, shall, by the flourishing of Trade and other Advantages, enable all your Majesty's good Subjects, and your Royal Boroughs in particular, to give Testimony of their Zeal for the Support of your Government, in some measure suitable to the great and many Blessings we enjoy under so glorious a Reign.