The humble Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Pref-bytery of Ayro; trejented to Her Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Loudoun, principal Secretary of State for Scotland.

May it please your Majesty,

It the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Ayre, being deeply sensible of the Danger the Protestant Religion is in, and therewith your Majesty's Person and Government, its undoubted Bulwark under God, by an Invation of French and Popish Enemies, who have imployed their Power for the Ruin of that holy Religion we projets, the enflaving of Europe, and the fetting upon the Throne of these Nations a Popsish Pretender, to the the inrone of these Nations a copilli Pretender, to the utter Sulversion of all our Interests Sacred and Civil, which God hath wonderfully restored to as by the late happy Revolution, and hitherto by your Majesty's auspicious Government strengthred; and considering what in Duty and Gratitude we owe to your Majesty, as our only rightful Sovereign, do, withfull Sincerity and Zeal, by this our humble Address, testific our cordial and firm Allegiance to your Majesty, against the pretended Prince of legiance to your Majesty, against the pretended Prince of Wales, and all your Majesty's Enemies; and our Concern for our hely Religion according to its present happy E-stall shement, in Doctrine, Worship, Discipline, and Go-Mallishment, in Dectrine, Wering, Discipline, and Government; being throughly convinced of the absolute Necessity of a Protestant Succession for the Profession of the Protessant Religion, which God hash entrusted your Majesty with; as we find our selves under most forcible Tyes, so we are of a very ready Disposition to hold forth to our People the Danger they are in by the threatned Invation, and to excite them and our felves to a ned Invation, and to excite them and our felves to a weighty Sente of the prefent Cafe, and a pouring out Supplications to God, that he may be pleafed to turn a-way feared and deferved Wrath from their finful Lands, frustrate the hopes of our bloody Enomies, long preferve and richly bless your Majesty's Person and Government, direct your Councils, and succeed your Arins by Sea and Land, against the Common Enemy; and parricularly, that he would remarkably defeat the prefent Defign: All which we are greatly encouraged unto by the grateful Sense.

Sense we have of the Tenderness your Majesty hath showe towards our Church upon many Occasions, we beg Leave to subscribe our selves, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful and most humble Subjects.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Hereford; presented to Her Majesty by the Honourable James Bridges, Esq. one of their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland,

Most Gracious Sovereign. HE repeated Felicities of your Reign require from your Subjects their most devout Acknowledgments to Almighty God, for having made your Majesty his Vicegerent in these Kingdoms, where you are the glorious In-strument to dispense those Blessings his Providence daily confers upon us; which as we should render our selves most conters upon us; which as we mount render our leaves most unworthy of receiving, if we did not refolve with that fervent Zeal your Majesty highly merits from all your Subjects, never to deviate from the Steps of our loyal Predecessors, so remarkably firm in their Allegiance to your Majesty's Royal Line, but in Imitation of their Example, at all Times to exert our utmost Efforts in Defence of your undoubted Right and Title to these Realms, against all your Enemies wharfoever; fo doth our Duty more especially at this Juncture call upon us. to offer up with Hearts full of Joy, our most fincere Congratulations upon your Deliverance from the late desperate Attempt of that Pretender, by whom the Freach King hop'd to have brought these Nations into the Fetters of his own Power. But as the Care of your Ministers to preserve Credit, their quick and early fitting out a Fleet to guard your Coasts, their timely calling over your Troops from Flanders to oppose the intended Invasion, have under your auspicious Conduct fecur'd your People from Danger, and defeated the Defigns of that ambitions Prince, so will their Forelight, Vigilance and Resolution, on this Occasion, never be forgotten by Posterity, as long as any Memory shail remain of your Trophies in the Fields of Blenheim and Ramilies, or of any of the other Glories of your Reign.

And as the Eafe and Tranquility we enjoy under your Majesty's most indulgent Administration (while our Neighbours groan under the heaviest Oppressions of War and Rapine) are the happy Essects of the Divine Favours shower'd down upon your Councils, and an evident Demonstration of the Wisdom wherewith they are guided, to in return do we prefume, in most humble manner, to affure your Majesty, That we will never be wanting on our Parts, in all the Marks of Duty and Gratitude, that are due to so great and gracious a Queen; particularly that we will most chearfully contribute our Proportions in whatever shall be judg'd necessary will be outdone by none of our Fellow-Subjects in all imaginable Proofs of a steady and unstaken Fidelity to your Person and Government.

That the same Providence which hath hitherto guided all your Actions, may continue to protect your Majesty in the whole Course of your Reign, that after your pious Example all Differences from Factions and Parties may cease, and all Divisions thro' your prudent and motherly Care be heal'd up among us, and that you may exceed all your Predecessors, as well in Length or Days, as in the stupendious Successes your Endeavours have hitherto been bless'd with in subduing your Enemies Abroad, and uniting your Kingdoms at Home, are our most constant and earnest Prayers. In Testimony whereof, we have hereunto affix'd our Common Seal this Third Day of April, in the Seventh Year of your Majesty's Reign-

Vienna, April 4. N. S. The Dutchess of Wirtemberg having lately exhibited a Complaint against the Duke her Husband before the Emperor, the Emperor has thereupon given a Commission to the Elector of Hanover, the on given a Commission to the Elector of Hanover, the Duke of Wolfenbuttel, and the Landgrave of Hesse-Cassiel, to examine into the Merits of her Cause, and interpose with the Imperial Authority, in order to persuade or oblige the Duke to comply with what the Laws of Christianity and the Empire require of him. His Imperial Majesty has in this Commission declar'd himself to be the proper Judge in all Marrimonial Causes, wherein the Princes of the Empire are concerned. The Marriage of the King of Spain with the Princess of Wolfenbuttel is to be cylebrated on the 18th Instant, and on the 18th the Queen be celebrated on the 16th Instant, and on the 18th the Queen begins her Journey for Spain. They made some small Alterations which were infifted on at the Diet, and confented to by the French Agents, who have taken upen them to procure the French King's Ratification within 14 Days after the third Instant. Brussels, April 16. N. S. We have not yet any certain

Advice that the pretended Prince of Wales is arriv'd at St. He was entertain'd on his Way in the College of English Jesuits at St. Omer. There are Reports. That the French Court is in much perplexity for certain Papers taken in the Salisbury. Which may lead into a diffirst Knowledge of their Designs and Actomplices. They write from Paris, that the first Account of the Return of the Dunkirk Squadron was brought to Court by the Chevalier Beauharnois. There are many Rumours industriously spread in our Advices from thence, to extensate the Disgrace of the Disappointment in a Design which has been spoken of in all the Courts of Europe, in a Stile which did rather explain their Intentions after a Revolution in Great Britain, than acknowledge any uncertainty of their Success in that Undertaking. 'Tis said, That Count Forbin persisted all along in his Design of Landing the Forces, Ammunition and Provisions in the Road of Edinburgh, but that the Signal which was agreed on for that purpose was not answer'd by the Friends they expected there; which, with the close pursuit of the British Fleet, inclin'd him to make use of a favourable Wind Count Gacé is declar'd Mareschal of for his Return. Count Gace is declar'd mareichal of France, and is to bear the Title of Mareichal de Matignon. Letters from Madrid of the 26th of the last Monthinform us, That the Duke of Orleans will not go into Arragon 'till all Measures for the Campaign are fully concerted. The Duke of Anjou has already nam'd all the Spanish General Officers. The Duke of Offuna was the base for our for his Congregate of Andelusia within for his Return. to have fet out for his Government of Andalufia within ten Days. The Italian Regiment of Molfetta is to join the Troops which are appointed for the Guard of the Coass of that Province.
