

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday April 8. to Monday April 12. 1708.

St. James's, April 9. The following Addresses have been presented to Her Majesty.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Ministers of the Presbytery of Edinburgh; presented to Her Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Mar, Secretary of State for Scotland.

May it please your Majesty,

IT is not casie for us, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, to express the Detestation that we have of the Attempt that is made to invade this Part of your Majesty's Dominions, by the Power of an ambitious Monarch, and a declared Enemy of our Religion, and the Liberties of Europe: And we are so struck with Amazement, that any of your Subjects should be so inferrible of their own Happiness, under your Majesty's wise, just, and benign Administration, as to design the disturbing the Quiet of your Government, in the Security whereof their own Peace, as well as the Happiness of their Fellow-Subjects, is, under God, bound up; that we should be unexcusably wanting to the Duty that we owe to God, who hath, by Wonders of Providence, rescued us from the Danger we were in of Popery and Slavery, and hath placed us with a Sovereign upon the Throne, that looks upon it as her greatest Glory to employ her Power, not only in procuring Happiness to her own Subjects, but for the Protestant Churches Abroad, and a Comfortable Peace to her Allies, if we were not unwearied in our Endeavours, to possess those who are under our Ministerial Care, with a true Zeal for our holy Religion, firm Loyalty to your Majesty, our only right and lawful Sovereign, and a Horror of all Designs to advance a Popish Pretender to the Throne, which your Majesty fills by an unquestionable Title. We have Madam, such a deep Sense of the Miseries and Mischiefes that would attend the Success of the intended Invasion by a cruel Enemy, and the seasonable Relief that we, in this Part of Britain, have within these few Days had, in the great Goodness of the merciful God, by your Majesty's vigilant Care for our Safety, when we were upon the brink of the greatest Confusions, that we look upon ourselves to be under the most peculiar Obligations of Duty and Gratitude to be earnest in our Prayers to God, that he may give your Majesty a long and a happy Reign, disappoint all Designs against your Majesty's Person and Government, maintain what he has wonderfully wrought for us, secure the Protestant Succession, and make your Majesty a glorious Instrument of settling your Majesty's own Dominions upon the sure Foundations of Truth and Righteousness, and such Advantages to Europe in general, and the Protestant Churches in particular, as shall make your Memory famous to Generations to come. This is signed at Edenburgh the 25th Day of March, 1708 Years, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most humble Subjects.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Presbytery of Glasgow; presented to Her Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Mar, Secretary of State for Scotland.

May it please your Majesty,

THE great and manifold Blessings which, by the Favour of God, we still enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, oblige us to magnify the most High, and also excite us thankfully to acknowledge your Majesty as the happy Instrument thereof. And now being threatened with an Invasion by a Popish Pretender, whom the haughty French King would, with the Assistance of French and Irish Papists, impose upon these Realms, unto the Ruin of our Religion, Rights and Liberties, yea, and the manifest Hazard of the whole Protestant Interest, we cannot but express our utter Abhorrence of so unjust and wicked an Attempt. And we humbly beg Leave, on this Occasion, to assure your Majesty, our only rightful and undoubted Sovereign, of our steadfast Loyalty, and sincere Resolutions, in our Capacities, to maintain your Royal Authority, in opposition to the pretended Prince of Wales, and all your other Enemies: As also we firmly purpose to use our best Endeavours, to promote all dutiful Affection and Loyalty to your Majesty, amongst the People of our Charges.

That God may create a Defence over your Majesty, direct your Councils, prosper your Arms by Sea and Land, defeat the Designs and Enterprises of all who conspire and rebel against you, continue you long to be a Nursing-Mother to this established National Church, a Restorer of Liberty to the Protestant Churches Abroad, and that after a long and happy Reign upon Earth, he may exalt you to reign with himself in Glory for ever, is and shall be the hearty Prayer of us, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's, &c.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Alderman, Recorder, Representatives in Parliament, Deputy-Recorder, Common-Council, Gentlemen and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Grantham; presented to Her Majesty by the Right Honourable the Marquis of Granby, and Sir William Ellis, their Representatives in Parliament.

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and obedient Subjects, the Alderman, Recorder, Representatives in Parliament, Deputy-Recorder, Burgesses, Gentlemen and Inhabitants within the ancient Borough of Grantham, do with all Sincerity take Leave to express our great Abhorrence to this intended Invasion, set on foot by the common Disturber of the Peace of Europe, upon that Part of Your Majesty's Kingdom of Great Britain, which Your Royal ancestors had so often endeavour'd, and Your Majesty so lately, to the great Satisfaction of us and the rest of Your loyal Subjects, brought to be united to Your Kingdom of England.

We do hereby most faithfully assure Your Majesty, that we will, to the utmost of our Powers, assist and support Your Majesty in the Defence of Your Royal Person and Government, against the pretended Prince of Wales and all his Adherents and Abettors. And as we and all Your Majesty's Subjects, under Your auspicious Reign, fully enjoy our Liberties and Properties, with the free Exercise of our Religion, which in former Reigns have been so often in Danger, we hope the Consideration of that will be sufficient to convince all Your Majesty's Protestant Subjects, that they can in no wise be safe without heartily embracing the Union as it is now established; and thereby they may hope at all times (with the Assistance of Divine Providence) to be able to frustrate the Designs of Your Majesty's Enemies, both at Home and Abroad: Which is the hearty Prayers of Your Majesty's most dutiful and obedient Subjects.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and unanimous Address of the Provost, Bailiffs, Town-Council and Inhabitants of your Majesty's Burgh-Royal of Drumries in North-Britain, in Common-Council assembled, on the 26th Day of March, 1708 Years; presented to Her Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Queensberry.

May it please your Majesty,

UPON, this Critical Juncture of a threatened Invasion from France; the Common Oppressor of the Liberties of Europe, and of the Protestant Religion in particular, is