fer up the pretended Prince of Wales, to disturb the Tranqui-Ety and Prosperity of Your Majesty's Glorisms and Auspicious Reign, and the Happines and Security, in Sacred and Givil Rights, which Your Subjects enjoy thereby. We Your Majesty's ross loyal and dutiful Subjects do give Your Majesty's rest loyal and functe Assection and unshiken Loyalty to Your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government; and that we will with our Lives and Fortunes maintain and defend the same, and Your Majesty's unloubted Title to the imperial trown of these Keingdom, and the Pro-testant Religious as by Law Established, against all Designs and Plots of secret, as well as against the open Attempts of the laid incender, and all other profess I Enemies; and that on all occusions we are reany to give Your Majesty the most convincing Proofs that we are the Successors of these, who in Defence of their Sovereigns and Religion, were always zealon, to venture their All.

We pray Ged to pour down upon Your Majesty his richest Blessess, to Crown Your Arms by Sea and Land with Victory and Success, to grant You wise and steady Counsellors, and a and Sicrets, to gram tou wife and feedly Considered, that along, glerious and triumphant Reign, that You may be the Support of the Protestant Religion and Your Allies, and a Protestion and Comfort, with all Your Majesty's other good Subjects, unto, may it please Your Majesty, Your Majesal

f. s. &c.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Provost, Bailiss, Dean of Guild, Treasurer, Council, Deacons of Cross. Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Burgh of Perth; presented to Her Maiesty by Mr. Halden and Mr. Grame, introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Earl of Mar, Secretary of State for Scotland.

May it please your Majesty.

HE profound Peace and Happiness we enjoy under Your Majesty, both in our Religious and Civil interest, and the late maipy Union of these Kingdoms, concluded by your Majesty's Wistom and care, being so sensible Beeffings and Advan age, to us, that we cannot but jig the van expels a fus "bhorrence of all wicked Designs and rustices against your kingley, and Auspician Reignana Government; and in Duty think our selves bound to declare against the version assuming the Name of King Juines Villa and all others his Affairm and all the second and t fociates and Adherons, who either by open Force colleavour to invade and Disquiet your Majesty'. Dominion and Go-vernment, or by Secret Designs to attempt any thing against your Majesty's Sacred Verson; and against all veres; ordence with France, which so manifestly tends to the enda igering of the rosestant Religion, whereof our Predecessors in this Place were mest early Embracers. And we hambly increat your Majesty will be pleas'd to cause vigorously put in Execution all Laws made against Papists, l'erjous suspect and disaffected to your Majesty's Government. And we do heavily that the transfer of our property with the total without of our property when the total without of our property. heartily and fincerely promise, that, to the utmost of our Power, we will, with Lives and Fortunes, defend and maintain your Majesty's Sacred Person and Covernment over us in Church and State, as by Law Establish it, against all your Enemies, who either by open Force, invusion, Insurrection, Rebillion, or secret Practices, shall endeavour to trouble or disquies the same, and the great Pence we present by tosses, and eving. ly possess and enjoy.

And that God may long preserve your Majesty to Reign. over us, is and shall be always the most earness Defice and Prayer of your Majesty's, &c.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The kumile Address of your Majesty's Justices of the Peace, Deputy-Lieutenants, and Militia-Officers for the County of Middlesex; presented to Her Majest, by Sir John Wolftenholme, Bar. and Scorie Barker, Esq. Knights of the Shire for the full County, introduc'd by his Grace the Dake of Bedford.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Maiefty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects do express the utmost Abhorrence of the Presumption of the French King, who takes upon him to invade your Kingdoms, with an Intention to impose upon us a Fretender, and by that means to enflave us, and definor our Religion, Liberties and Properties; which damnable Defign (by the Defling of God, and the wite and early Precautions taken by your Majety and your Council, and the Conduct and Courage of your Majesty's Flee) is we the Conduct and courage of your majorry's rice) is we hope, now wholly frustrated.

We can truly affirm, That no King or Queen of the your Majorry's Kingdoms, ever had so entirely the Level of their Subjects, as your Majorry the Level of their Subjects, as your Majorry the Level of their Subjects. and Affection of their Subjects, as your Majefly now by of yours; which is a great Bulwark to your Majely, and must be a great disheartning to your Enemies.

Ever fince your Majesty's Proclamation came out, we have been very diligent in putting in Execution the Law have been very diligent in putting in Execution the Law against Papists, reputed Papists, and others diffished a your Majesty and Government, and shall continue to a the same, whereby we hope we shall prevent all the from giving any Support or Assistance to your Majesty. That we do assure your Majesty, That we this and all other Occasions we will with the unit Hazard, and greatest Care and Diligence exert our & in the Defence and Maintenance of your Majesty's Perfe and Government, and the Protestant Succession to Crown of these Kingdoms, as by Law now establish That your Majesty's Arms may always conquer, at that you may establish, in some short time, an universand latting Peace in Christendom, and your Majesty and latting Peace in Christendom, and your Majesty and prosperous Reign over us, for ever be our Prayers.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Mijesty.

The Humble Address of the Bailiff. Furates and Comments of the Corporation of Lydd, in the County of Kent; professed to ther Majesty by John Brewer, Ess. there are corder, introduced by the Right Honourable the Last Chamberlain.

E your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjective and all your Subjects are bless'd with, in the field fecure Enjoyment and Exercise of the best Religion and Laws in the World, and under the most Gracion &.

It is with the greater Surprise, as Abhorrence, but, that an Invasion is attempted, in hopes any of your specify's Subjects will join a Pop sh Pretender, assisted with a French Power, (ever obnoxious) tho' not torniciate to your Majusty's good Surjects.

to your Majesty's good Subjects.

The Num'ers and Force of our Enemies to us appear fo unequal for the Accomplishment of the great (the wicker) De fign. that we have just Cause, not only hope but expect, by God's Bleffing with your Might accustomed Care and Vigilancy, for the Security of you ubjects (already diffinguished on this Occasion) 地端 Project and Pretender (as Forn out of due time) will foon be refeated, and meet with its just Diappointer.

And we beg leave on this Occasion to affure you Majesty, that our most faithful and zealous Endeavous ful ever be employed to oppose these and all other your b nemies, in fuch manner as becomes Subjects who has a due Sense of your Majesty's gracious and happy & vernment.

Given under our Common Scal this 27th Day of Marie Anno Dom. 1708.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesiy. The humble Address of the Presbytery of Penpont, m ar Penpont the 26th Day of March, 1708; prefental Her Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Queenburg.

May it please Your Majesty.

Being deeply sensible of the many great and signal Bly fings we enjoy under the Shudow of Your Majeffy! with wife and accipicious Reign, which cannot but highly then wife and accipicious Reign, which cannot but highly then Your Majeft,'s Royal Verson and Government to in, and you Men; especially, seeing it have pleased Your Majeft give repeated assurances of Your royal Facour and my gracious Protection to this Courrely, in her Dustrine, Which Distributes and Communication in his Discipline and Government; as also considering the interest to the Religion musich we profess, with our Liberties and Proposite. and all that God bath wonderfully wrought for us by in lace happy Levolution, and preserved and pressionship Your Maj fix's happy Government, are in great and most nent Danger, by the Hugard Your Majest's Person and Government are exposed unto by the prefent Irosfin fin France, with a Defign to fet up a Vopifi Fretenier about Throne; do therefore most humbly beg Leave to affect the Majesty of our firm Altegiance and steady Resolution there to Your Majesty, as our only rightful and unimit

Stategn, in Oppose inti, and, to the meler cur Charge, all duriful Loyalty Tou God may la h's Royal Person me Success to You me exerbitant l'on ins and that of Sp.
Anemps of the En mament, are and of may it please I ful, most obelient, at Elders of the 1

The humble Addre rants of your M in the County O fly by the Hon. I fematives in I a Duke of Newsal mant of the Cou

Dread Sovereign WE your Maj humbly cr. Marefi's Dominion is the Pretended Grand Disturber o Mure your Maj-fl hen our unseign d Ine and Fortune. Infin and Govern en Pretender, an

To the QI The humble Acco Concellor, and ne Mafters ar Tof Giagon Yay is please your WE are fo fen all your ∆i of this University Majesty's Govern Abberrence : ink lwade this Kingd keje Realms, to un be dear to ses, We do therefore usion, to give th and byal Adheren unicubted Sovers Wales, and all I. are ready to haz 1 Quien, fo wo excour to enga-Affection and L Right and Tiel. against all Opp. se foar Religion, as

That the Alm Always your 110 always compage of a Smeld, may actempts of your n be a Guardi. ties of Europe, wer be the hear

To the The humble Ail, mon-Council, in the Coun Lieuten.int-G

Most Gracious WE beg Lo mong the refe