St. James's, April 20. The following Addresses have been presented to Her Majesty.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and unanimous Address of the Ministers and Elders, met in the provincial Synod of Glasgow and Air; presented to Her Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Loudoun.

May it please Your Majesty, WHEN we consider the signal and manifold Advantages we do, by the Mercy of God, enjoy under Your Majesty's wife and benign Administration of the Government over us, we cannot, without the utmost Abhorrence, reflect upon the late presumptuous Attempt of the French King, to disturb the Quiet thereof, and to impose upon us a Popish Intolerable, to the manifest Danger of the whole Protestant Interest and Liberties of Europe, as well as the inevitable Ruin of our Country, Overthrow of our Religion as now happily Established, and the Loss of all that God hath graciously wrought for us by the late happy Revolution.

Under the deep Sense of all this, being now met in this Provincial Assembly, we do in all Humility beg Leave to join this renewed Assurance of our firm Allegiance and loyal and faithful Adherence to Your Majesty, as our only rightful and undoubted Sovereign, in opposition to the pretended King of Wales; and to declare our firm Purpose, to use our utmost Endeavours to possess these under our ministerial Oath, with a steadfast Loyalty and dutiful Affection to Your Majesty, and a zealous Concern for the Succession in the Protestant Line, which we judge so essential to our Security, that we can never be safe without it; and we do promise you for ourselves, from Your Majesty's Justice and Goodness, that no Misrepresentations of us, for our Adherence to the true Principles of this National Church, shall ever be able to make Your Majesty, in the least, question our inviolable Loyalty to Your Majesty's Person and Government.

We are so sensible of the Miseries and Mischief which would have attended the Success of this design'd Invasion by so cruel an Enemy, and of our seasonable Relief in the great Goodness of God, by Your Majesty's vigilant Care in sending Your Fleet to protect us, when in most imminent Danger of the greatest Confusions; that we look on our selves to be under the most peculiar Obligations, of our Thankfulness to the Almighty, and Gratitude to Your Majesty on this Account; and to be earnest in Prayer to God, that he may grant Your Majesty a long and happy Reign, defeat all Designs against Your Royal Person and Government, make You a glorious Instrument of settling Your own Dominions upon the sure Foundations of Peace and Righteousness, and the Tranquillity of Europe, to the greatest Advantage of Religion, and Relief of all the Protestant Churches; and that we, and all Your Majesty's Subjects, may lead a quiet and peaceable Life, in all Godliness and Honesty, under your Majesty's Authority, is and ever shall be the hearty Prayer of us, &c.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Grand-Jury, Justices of the Peace and Gentlemen, assembled at the General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace held at Maidstone, in the County of Kent, the 13th Day of April, 1708; presented by John Brewer, Esq; their Chair-man, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord-Treasurer.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects with all Humility take leave to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Defeat of the French King's intended Invasion, under colour of the Pretender's Title to your Majesty's Dominions. In some of the Reigns of your Royal Predecessors, such an Attempt (supported with so small a Force from abroad) when the Subjects were invaded in their Religious and Civil Rights at home, might justly have raised the greater Fears.

But this being a Reign when we and all your Subjects are, or may be, the most easy and happiest People in the full and free Enjoyment and Exercise of the best Religion and Laws in the World;

This Project gives us an equal Surprize and Abhorrence, that there should be any within your Majesty's Realm who chuse to be Papists and French, Slaves rather than English Protestants, and Subjects to the Best of Queens; which cannot but dispose us to the utmost Detestation of such whose Principles engage them either in a Foreign Interest, or in the disowning of your Majesty's most lawful and rightful Title to these your undoubted Dominions of Great Britain, which we hope and pray you may long enjoy, to the Confusion of all your Enemies, and to the Comfort and Happiness of us and all your good Subjects.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens of the City of Londonderry; presented to Her Majesty by the Honourable Society of the Governor and Assistants of London of the New Plantation in Ulster, within the Realm of Ireland; introduc'd by his Excellency the Earl of Pembroke, Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland.

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, cannot but with Astonishment consider, That when the Success of Your Majesty's Arms has render'd Your Majesty so formidable Abroad; and that when the whole Course of Your Majesty's wife, imperial and pious Reign, has so justly entitled You to the full Possession of the Hearts of all Your Subjects, that Your Enemies should yet so daringly attempt to invade the Strength and Power of Your Majesty's united Kingdoms.

But it is with the highest Resentment and Indignation, that we detest the Principles and Practices of those of Your Majesty's Subjects, whom neither Your Majesty's Goodness can reconcile to Your Government, nor Your Power frighten from their Disloyalty; and who traiterously join with the avow'd Enemy to the Liberties of Europe, to subvert our Religion, to overthrow our Constitution, and to place upon the Throne of Your Sacred Majesty the false Pretender to Your Majesty's Dominions.

Under the Patronage of Your Majesty's greatest Capital, the City of London (a Branch of which City we are, and in which Relation, next to that of being Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, we place our greatest Honour and Happiness) we presume to approach Your Majesty's sacred Person; and we do assure Your Majesty, That at the Hazard and Expence of all that is valuable to us in this World, we will, to the utmost of our Power, defend Your Majesty's Person and Government, against all Your Enemies, both at Home and Abroad; and that neither the Number of our Enemies, nor the Remembrance of the Calamities we underwent in the memorable Siege of this Place, in the Reign of your late Majesties, King William and Queen Mary, of glorious and pious Memory, can in any Measure discourage us, from exposing our selves to the greatest Dangers, in defence of Your Majesty's just Rights and Title to the Crown of these Realms, and of the Succession of the Protestant Line as by Law Established. In Testimony whereof, we the said Mayor, Commonalty and Citizens of the City of Londonderry, have caused our Common Seal to be hereunto affixed the second Day of April, Anno Dom. 1708.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Common-Council, Burgesses, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of Your Ancient Borough of Boston, in the County of Lincoln; presented to Her Majesty by Sir Edward Irby, Bar. and Richard Wynne, Esq; introduced by his Grace the Duke of Ormond.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE News of an intended Invasion by the bold Pretender to Your Majesty's Dominions, supported with French Arms, at first struck us with wonder; but when we heard the contemptible number of his Forces, and thence concluded he had an Invitation and Encouragement from the Malecontents of Your Majesty's Subjects, we had the highest Indignation against such incorrigible Rebels, who out of Fondness and Bigotry to their own false Schemes in Religion and Government, which have a natural tendency to ruin Princes and enslave their People, would lend their helping Hands to overturn our excellent Establishment, which secures to us and our Posterity (under God) all the Blessings Government can bring to Mankind.

We read with great Joy and Applause the loyal Addresses of the High Court of Parliament to Your Majesty on this Occasion, and firmly-resolv'd to spend our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of Your Majesty's Person and Government, against the said Pretender, and all other Your Majesty's Enemies whomsoever.

But before we had an opportunity humbly to assure Your Majesty of such our Resolutions, the good Providence of God (on whom Your Majesty always entirely relies) by the use of such means as the Wisdom and Vigilancy of Your Majesty and Councils; and the great Application of Your Royal Consort, Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, had even beyond our Hopes provided, has baffled and confounded this (we hope) last Device of your Enemies against Your Government, to their Shame and Infamy, and the increasing (if possible) of Your Majesty's Fame and Glory.

We beg leave therefore, Madam, with Hearts full of Joy, to Congratulate Your Majesty upon this shameful Foil of Your Enemies, and humbly to assure Your Majesty, that we have such a just Sense of our wonderful Deliverance by the late Happy Revolution, and the great Blessings we and our Posterity (under God) shall enjoy from the present Happy Establishment, that we will do all possibly we can to support and defend it; and look upon those whose Notions oppose the Principles of the Revolution as our greatest Enemies, who would bring us again into Bondage, by sempring Providence, at the Expence of new Wonders, to preserve our Religion and Liberty under a Popish Prince, thoroughly instructed in the methods of Tyranny, and exasperated to the last Degree.

May all Your Majesty's Enemies be thus cloth'd with Shame; but upon Your Royal Head, and of Your Successors according to the present Establishment, may the Crown flourish for ever; may Almighty God continue to bless You with all sorts of Blessings, and give You Your Heart's Desire; so heartily pray Your Majesty's most loyal and obedient Subjects.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Capital Burgesses, and Commonalty of the ancient Borough and Corporation of Thetford, in the Counties of Norfolk and Suffolk; presented to her Majesty by Robert Baylis, Esq; introduced by his Grace the Duke of Grafton.

May it please your Majesty,

THAT Clemency and Wisdom, of which Your Majesty is an illustrious and singular Example, supported by the Abilities of so great a Ministry, were once Demonstrations to us, that no Body either could desire, or would dare to give You any Domestick Disturbance: But since no Considerations are strong enough to hinder the Sallies of Malice and Insolence; since they that, in truth, have turn'd the World upside down, have attempted to come hither also; and since there seems to be Men wicked and senseless enough to assist the Enemies of their Country, of their Religion, of their Sovereign, and even (for such they must prove in the Consequence) of themselves; too; we beg Leave to resign, with the rest of Your loyal Subjects, our just Abhorrence of all Titles and Pretences that interfere with the present Establishment, and of every thing that favours Rebellion, Popery, or France; and at the same time to congratulate the Superiority and Success of Your Councils against all these, in the Disappointment of the late intended Invasion.

May God Almighty protect Your sacred Person, prosper Your Arms both by Sea and Land, and perfect the Glories of Your Reign, by enabling You to reduce that inviolable Prince, who pretends to be most Christian, to a necessity of observing those Treaties and Obligations, which to his Faith will not have dared to violate; or at least of confining his Tyranny and Pride to those Dominions, where Slavery is Glorious. And to this end we further pray, that all Your Subjects may exert themselves with that Sincerity and Ardour which their several Stations require, the Nation expects, and the Justice and Goodness of Your Majesty's Cause deserves.

Given under the Common Seal of the Corporation the 18th Day of April, Anno Dom. 1768.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, the Right Honourable the Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Corporation of Northampton; presented to Her Majesty by George Montague and Francis Arndel, Esqrs; Representatives for the Corporation of Northampton, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Northampton.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the great Expedition and Success of your Fleet, by which the pernicious Designs of your Enemies have been entirely disappointed and confounded, and we are deliver'd from an Invasion threatening the Subversion of your Majesty's happy Government.

But (praised be God) it has now only given us (among the rest of your faithful Subjects) another Opportunity in Words to assure your Majesty of that Fidelity and Loyalty, of which we were ready, upon this Occasion, to have given a better Proof, by actually exposing our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of your sacred Person and Government; in the Safety and Preservation whereof, we are sensible the continuance of our Religion, Laws and Liberties depends.

It is with the utmost Detestation and Wonder we reflect upon this unaccountable Attempt, that a Popish Pretender, train'd up in the Principles of Arbitrary Government, should wish so inconsiderable a Force attempt to dethrone a Protestant Queen, that reigns no where so absolutely as in the Hearts of her People.

But may all the future Designs of your Enemies be as foolish in their Conception, and prove as abortive in their Execution; whilst a constant Blessing and Success attends your Majesty's wiser Councils: And may your Majesty, notwithstanding the secret Intrigues and open Efforts of your Enemies, enjoy the Imperial Crown of these Kingdoms, until in a good old Age you shall exchange it for a better. In Testimony whereof we have affix'd our Common Seal.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Recorder, Burgesses, Freemen and Inhabitants of Your Majesty's Ancient Borough of Clidderow in the County of Lancaster; presented to her Majesty by Edward Harvey and Daniel Harvey, Esqrs; their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Earl of Sunderland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE cannot but at this Juncture further assure Your most sacred Majesty of our Loyalty, and that against all Impostors and Pretenders set up by the French King, the great Enemy to Peace and Religion, or by any whatever, we are ready (as it is our Duty) to venture our Lives and Fortunes for Your Majesty, and Government in Church and State, and shall in our several Stations have a more watchful Eye of those suspected to be Your Enemies at Home; and we pray to the Almighty, who justly set You on the Throne, to preserve and keep You both here and to Eternity; and that You may long Reign over us, and have the Comfort of that great and good Prince his Royal Highness our Lord High Admiral; and beg leave to say, that we really and truly are Your Majesty's obedient and dutiful Subjects. In Testimony hereof we give this under the Common Seal of our Borough this first Day of April, in the Seventh Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.
The humble Address of the High-Sheriff, Justices of the Peace and the Grand-Jury, at the General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, held for the County of North-Durham and Sadberge, the 14th Day of April, Anno; Dom. 1708; presented to Her Majesty by Mr. Secretary Boyle, at the Request of the Gentlemen of the said County.

Dread Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and obedient Subjects do humbly beg leave to make our sincere and hearty Acknowledgment of the great Blessings and Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's most gentle and prudent Administration; by which our Religion, Laws and Liberties are secur'd, our Properties preserv'd, and the Nation from the Violent Insults of Foreign Enemies defended; more particularly we think it a Duty incumbent upon us of these Northern Parts, so near the Dangers threaten'd by this intended Invasion, at this and all other times, to return your Majesty our unfeign'd Thanks, for the great Care that was taken in sending such speedy Succours, for the defence of your Dominions, against the late bold and desperate Enterprize of the Pretender to your Crown (your undoubted Right) supported by a French Power, to the great Disappointment and Confusion of our French and Popish Enemies.

And we humbly desire to assure your Majesty, that as under God we are wholly owing to your Majesty for all those Blessings we enjoy, so the Enjoyment of them shall produce no other Fruits in us, but such as shall always increase our Duty and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government, our Zeal for the Protestant Succession and establish'd Religion, and our Prayers to Almighty God for your long and prosperous Reign over us.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, and the Gentlemen of the Grand-Jury, for the County of Westmorland, at the General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, held at Kendall for the said County, April 16, 1708. presented to Her Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord High-Treasurer of Great Britain.

Dread Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects make bold to take this first Opportunity of a Publick Meeting, to assure your Majesty of our firm Resolution, to the utmost of our Power, to defend your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government against all your Enemies whatsoever, and of our Abhorrence and Detestation of the Attempt of the Pretender, with a French Power to invade your Dominions, and thereby to subvert our Religion and Laws, and reduce your faithful Subjects to Loss of Life, or Liberty, or to Slavery.

And tho' the Northern Situation of this County exposed us more to Danger, yet we had a due Concern for the Mischief design'd in other Parts, and probably all your Dominions; and we cannot but think so Politick a Prince as the French King, would not have engaged in so rash and expensive a Project, without great Encouragement from many Ingrateful Inhabitants of this Land not yet discover'd, or by some suspected.

We cannot but admire, with what Expedition your Majesty equipped a Fleet sufficient to defend Great Britain, and fright the French away, and conclude Providence in this year firm Allie. And we hope, that such of your ill-affected Subjects as have not their Hearts harden'd like Pharaoh's, will see how much you appear to be the Darling of Heaven, and for the time to come be better Subjects to the best of Queens.

That the great God of Heaven may continue to defend you from and assist you to triumph over all your Enemies; and for the Good of your Subjects, long defer removing you to a Crown of Glory in Heaven, shall be the daily Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The humble and loyal Addressees of the County of Louth, County of Clare, County of Mayo, and Borough of Carrick Drumreeke, in the Kingdom of Ireland, were transmitted to the Lord Lieutenant of the said Kingdom, and by him presented to her Majesty.

All which Addressees Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously.

Venice, April 13. N. S. We hear the Court of Rome has taken a severe Resolution against the Society of Jesuits in Portugal for neglecting to pay at the end of each fifth Year a considerable Sum of Money, claim'd by the Sacred College as an acknowledgement for Lodging in them the right of bestowing certain Benefices, before that time in the Kings of Portugal. It was in the Grant provided, that the Jesuits should send to Rome for the Instruments of Institution into those Livings, and pay for 'em to that Court; but, it is said, his Portuguese Majesty will not admit 'em to pay this Demand, asserting, that it is an Encroachment upon his Royal Patronage. This Dispute has occasion'd several Suits at Law; but the Pope, to put an end to any Contests against his Authority in this matter for the future, has sent a Prelate, attended by two Notaries, to the General of the Jesuits, with Orders to demand of those of the Society in Portugal full payment to a certain time. He was also instructed to admit no new Member into their Society, 'till the Pope shall be obey'd in this particular. If this Menace does not prevail, it is intended an seize on all which the Portuguese of the Order possess in the Ecclesiastical State. Several Knights of Malta lately landed at Ostia, and went to Rome to buy Gunpowder; which they were not admitted to do in Sicily. They have apply'd also to the Court of Rome, that the Pope's Gallies may be sent to their Assistance against the strong Squadron prepar'd against them at Constantinople.

Vienna, April 14. N. S. The Journey of the Princess of Wolfenbuttel to Spain, which was fix'd for the 16th Instant, is put off for a Week longer. The States of Hungary assembled at Fressburg have re-assum'd their Deliberations, which were suspended during the Festival of Easter. They have appointed Committees to enquire into the Grievances of the Nation, and consider of proper methods for redressing them, to the general Satisfaction of the People. Prince Ragotzi uses great endeavours to sow Jealousies amongst them, and has sent Circular Letters to all the Confederate Countries, wherein he exhorts 'em to persevere in their former Sentiments, and not be prevail'd upon by any specious Promises and Insinuations to hazard their Liberty. The Malecontents have been very industriously employ'd near Neuhausel in loading all sorts of Materials for laying a Bridge over the Danube. 300 Horfes have lately pass'd thro' this Town, design'd for remounting so many of the Imperial Troops, and greater numbers are every Day expected from Bohemia and Moravia. Prince Ragotzi and Count Caroli had form'd a Design of surprizing Great-Waradin by the means of some secret Intelligence in the Place; but that Conspiracy has been seasonably discover'd, and frustrated by the diligence of the Governor.

Berlin, April 21. N. S. The Duke Regent of Mecklenburg Swerin has visited his Majesty at Oranienburg, and left that Place this Morning. The Prince Royal has been very urgent with his Majesty to grant him his Leave to make part of the ensuing Campaign in Brabant, or on the Rhine; but the King absolutely refus'd to comply with that Request. The Prince and Princess Royal will set out for Hanover within few Days. The Troops are on their March towards Hamburg; one Regiment of Horfes will be left in the Country of Mecklenburg, and the Nobles of that Dutchy having neglected to pay a certain Homage to their Duke, it is thought that Regiment will not be recall'd 'till those Honours are perform'd to his Highness, and to his Majesty of Prussia, as his Successor in 'em, by the late Treaty ratify'd and exchange'd between those Princes. The Minister of King Augustus having produc'd Credentials at the Imperial Chamber at Wetzler, in which that Prince still expresses himself in the Stile and with the Arms of King of Poland, the Swedish Minister entred a Protestation against that Proceeding, as contrary to the Treaty of Alt-Ranstadt. The Swedish Minister made also a representation of this Affair to the King his Master, upon which Monsieur Leyonstadt, Minister of the King of Sweden in this Court, has by Order of his Master deliver'd a Memorial to the King of Prussia, wherein 'tis desir'd that his Majesty, as one of the Guarantees of that Treaty, would apply to King Augustus to lay down those Arms and Titles for the future. This Court has accordingly writ very amply to King Augustus on that Subject. Letters from Warsaw of the 10th Instant say, that at the desire of the Grand General, and other Confederate Sen-ters, the Primate of the Kingdom had, at last, resolved to return from Silesia, and call together a new Diet. He has for this purpose sent out Circular Letters to the Confederate Estates, to demand their Opinion. The Grand General has also publish'd his Universalia, to exhort the Confederate Estates to continue firm in their Adherence to each other, and deny Obedience to the Letters of the Palatine of Kijow.

Copenhagen, April 21. N. S. The King has this Week taken a Review of the Foot-Guards, the Grenadiers, the Battalion Commanded by the Prince of Hesse, and the Prince Royal's Regiment. They all appear'd in very good Order, and perform'd their Exercise to the King's Satisfaction. The Prince Royal, who discovers a strong Passion to Arms, appear'd at the head of his own Regiment, and tho' to very Young, saluted his Majesty with his Pike, in a manner as graceful, and gesture as proper, as any Officer that appear'd at the Review.

Hague, April 27. N. S. By Letters from Paris we hear, that the Duke of Orleans was at Madrid on the ninth Instant, and that his stay there was occasion'd by the Protesting his Bills of Exchange, which Disappointment has retarded his forming the necessary Magazines for the subsistence of the Army. The same Letters add, that the Duke of Vendosme was setting out for Mons; and that the Duke of Berwick was to Command on the Motelle, the Enemy being apprehensive that a design had been concerted here for Prince Eugene to be at the Head of an Army in those Parts. A Courier is arriv'd from Vienna, on his way to Portugal, with Advice, that the Articles of Marriage between the King of Portugal and one of the Arch-Duchesses were concluded; and that her Imperial Highness would begin her Journey thither in August next, in order to embark for that Kingdom. His Grace the Duke of Marlborough is expected at this Place on Thursday next. Field Marshal Overkirke has had a Relapse, and is now dangerously ill.

Kennington, April 20. His Excellency the Baron of Spanheim, Ambassador Extraordinary from his Majesty the King of Prussia, conducted by Sir Charles Cotterel, Master of the Ceremonies, had this Day an Audience of her Majesty, and afterwards of his Royal Highness the Prince, to congratulate the Queen, in the Name of the King his Master, upon the Disappointment of the Pretender's Design upon North-Britain, in which he was supported by a French Squadron and French Troops.

Whitehall, April 19. This Day Edward Griffin, Esq; late Lord Griffin, John Lord Clermont, Charles Middleton, Esq; and Francis Wanchope, Esq; who were lately taken on Board the Salisbury, were committed close Prisoners to the Tower for High Treason, by Warrant of the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, one of her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Whereas it hath been represented to his Royal Highness, Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, &c. by Mr. Cole, Her Majesty's Consul at Algiers, that several Ships and Vessels of Her Majesty's Subjects, which Trade up the Levant, and in the way of the Cruizing Ships of that Government, do run very great Danger of being taken and carried in by them, for want of Passes, which they ought to be furnish'd with, pursuant to the Treaty between Her Majesty and the aforesaid Government of Algiers, which the Masters of the aforesaid Ships think they have no Occasion to be furnish'd with, and that their Commissions of Marr, or as Privateers, may be sufficient to protect them; his Royal Highness doe: therefore hereby give Notice, That he hath directed the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, not to issue any such Commission to the Master of any Ship or Vessel, trading up the Levant, or in the way of the Algerine Cruizers, until such time as they do produce to him a Pass under his Hand, to secure them from the said Cruizers.
