ARMY DEPARTMENT

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased to give orders for the names shown below as having received an expression of Commendation for Brave Conduct:

22779445 Sergeant George Mervyn JOHNSTON, Irish Guards.

On the night of 31st December 1966, Sergeant Johnston was acting as Platoon Commander when the British camp at Dhala in the Aden Protectorate came under heavy enemy machine gun fire.

When organising the fire of one of his section he found the night aiming lamp was not working.
 Without hesitation he emerged from his sanger into the enemy fire and tried to rectify the fault. Being unable to do so he returned to the sanger for a torch and again went out to the lamp. He shone the torch on to the lamp until the machine gun had been laid and was firing effectively. In all he remained fully exposed to enemy fire, with his torch making an attractive target, for about seven minutes.

During this action Sergeant Johnston gave no thought for his own safety and he conducted himself with an unhurried calm which was an inspiration to all who saw him.

Lieutenant Michael Paul Reveley BARNES (474381), Welsh Guards.

In the failing light of 28th December 1966, Lieutenant Barnes was on his first operational task as a Forward Air Controller, piloting his helicopter over the Dhala area of the Aden Protectorate. With speed and accuracy whilst under heavy enemy fire he directed Hunter aircraft of the Royal Air Force on to hostile positions. His actions enabled a highly successful air strike in support of the Federal Regular Army to be carried out just before darkness fell, and his conduct throughout was an outstanding example of helicopter flying and air controlling under hazardous conditions. On his own initiative Lieutenant Barnes successfully carried the action beyond that required by his orders, and displayed coolness, courage and persistence under fire well beyond the normal call of duty.

24053762 Fusilier Joseph REGAN, The Royal Northumberland Fusiliers.

In Aden on the evening of 11th November 1966, Fusilier Regan was on the rear of a patrol vehicle, acting as lookout. Suddenly a grenade exploded close by killing a local national and wounding several others including an occupant in the vehicle. Immediately, Fusilier Regan set off in pursuit of the terrorist, and after a chase of some three hundred yards through a hostile area, caught the assailant single handed. Fusilier Regan, who is a young soldier showed great presence of mind, initiative and complete disregard for his own safety, and in the momentary confusion following the explosion, it was entirely due to his personal courage and aggressive action that the terrorist was captured.

25th April 1967.
