5. Allowances for Constant Attendance

Where a member of the naval forces is in receipt of retired pay or a pension under Clause 1 in respect of disablement the degree of which is not less than 80 per cent., and it is shown to the satisfaction of the Ministry of Defence that constant attendance on the member is necessary on account of the disablement, he may be awarded an allowance at a rate not exceeding £156 a year in the case of an officer or 60s. a week in the case of a rating.

Provided that in an exceptional case of very severe disablement the allowance may, subject to such conditions as the Ministry of Defence may determine, be increased to a rate not exceeding £312 a year in the case of an officer or 120s. a week in the case of a rating.

6. Exceptionally Severe Disablement Allowance

Provided that no allowance shall be payable under this Clause to a member for any period in respect of which he is:—

9. Allowances for Unemployable Pensioners

a. Eligibility

Where a member of the naval forces is in receipt of retired pay or a pension under Clause 1 in respect of disablement so serious as to make him unemployable, he may be awarded allowances in accordance with such of the provisions of this Clause as may be appropriate in his case:

PROVIDED THAT—

- (1) such a member may be deemed to be unemployable although in receipt of earnings which are, in the opinion of the Ministry of Defence, unlikely to exceed £104 a year;

- (2) such a member shall not be eligible for any award under this Clause if he is in receipt of a retirement pension (not being contributory old age pension) under the National Insurance Acts 1946 to 1964 or under any legislation in Northern Ireland corresponding to those Acts.

b. Supplementation of retired pay or pension

A member coming within paragraph a. of this Clause may be awarded an allowance, by way of supplement to his retired pay or pension, at the rate of £253 10s. 0d. a year in the case of an officer, or 97s. 6d. a week in any other case:

Provided that, in computing the said rates, account shall be taken, to such extent as the Ministry of Defence may think fit, of a contributory old age pension under the National Insurance Act 1946, or under any legislation in Northern Ireland corresponding to that Act for which the member may be eligible.

c. Additional allowances for dependants

Where a member is awarded an allowance in accordance with paragraph b. of this Clause, he may also be awarded additional allowances in accordance with the following provisions of this paragraph:

- (1) Where an allowance has been awarded under Clause 3 in respect of a wife and the degree of the disablement of the member is less than 100 per cent., that allowance may be increased to the rate which would be appropriate under that Clause if the degree of the disablement of the member were 100 per cent.
- (2) Where an allowance has been awarded under Clause 3 in respect of a wife and the degree of the disablement of the member is 100 per cent., or where an allowance for such person has been increased or awarded under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, the rate of the allowance may be increased, or further increased, as the case may be, by £109 12s. a year in the case of an officer, or 46s. a week in any other case, if the Ministry of Defence thinks fit having regard to the financial circumstances of the person in respect of whom the allowance has been granted.
- (3) Where the member is not in receipt of an allowance under Clause 3 in respect of a wife, an allowance may be awarded in respect of an adult dependant at the rate of £145 12s. a year in the case of an officer, or 56s. a week in any other case, if the Ministry of Defence thinks fit having regard to the financial circumstances of the person in respect of whom the allowance is claimed; provided that the member shall not be awarded an allowance in respect of more than one adult dependant.
- (4) (a) Where an allowance has been awarded under Clause 3 in respect of a child and the degree of disablement of the member is less than 100 per cent., that allowance may be increased to the rate which would be appropriate under that Clause if the degree of the disablement of the member were 100 per cent.;
(b) an allowance may be awarded in respect of any child, not being an eligible member of the family, who should, in the opinion of the Ministry of Defence, be treated as such having regard to the child's relationship to, or connection with, the pensioner and other circumstances of the case, provided that any such allowance shall be at the rate and subject to the conditions which would be appropriate under Clause 3 if the child were an eligible member of the family and the degree of the disablement of the member were 100 per cent.;
- (5) where an allowance has been awarded under Clause 3 or sub-clause (4) of this Clause in respect of the child or children of an officer, the rate thereof in respect of the first or only child may be increased to £65 a year and in respect of the second and third child to £44 4s. a year, and in respect of each other child to £31 4s. a year; and where an allowance has been so awarded in respect of the child or children of a member not being an officer, the rate thereof in respect of the first or only child may be increased to 25s. 0d. a week, and in respect of the second and third child to 17s. 0d. a week, and the fourth and subsequent children to 12s. 0d. a week.

As from 9th April 1968, the rate of allowance in respect of the child or children of an officer shall be amended for the first or only child to £72 16s. a year, in respect of the second child to £33 16s. a year, and in respect of each other child to £30 a year; and from 9th April 1968 in the case of ratings and marines paid quarterly and 10th April 1968 in all other cases, the rate shall be amended to 28s. a week in respect of the first or only child, 13s. a week in respect of the second child and 11s. a week in respect of each other child.

In the case of existing awards, transitional provisions provide for the aggregate rate of these allowances to be maintained if, exceptionally, it would be reduced by the application of the new rates.

d. Adjustment of allowances in respect of benefit payable out of public funds abroad

Where a person to or in respect of whom an allowance or increase may be or has been awarded under the foregoing provisions of this Clause is eligible for benefit payable out of public funds under the law of any place outside the United Kingdom being benefit which, in the opinion of the Ministry of Defence, is analogous to a benefit under the National Insurance Acts 1946 to 1964, the Ministry of Defence may take the benefit into account against the allowance or increase in such manner and to such extent as may be thought appropriate having regard to any adjustment which would be made if the person were eligible for the analogous benefit under the said Acts.

10. Allowances for Comforts

a. A member of the naval forces who is in receipt of retired pay or pension under Clause 1 may be awarded an allowance for the provision of comforts:

- (1) At the rate of £65 a year in the case of an officer or 25s. a week in any other case where the member is in receipt of an allowance under Clause 5 and is—
  - (a) in receipt of an allowance under Clause 9; or
  - (b) in receipt of retired pay or pension in respect of disablement the degree of which is 100 per cent. and which has been awarded in respect of multiple injuries which, in the opinion of the Ministry of Defence, render his disablement so severe as to justify the award of an allowance at the aforementioned rate;
- (2) at the rate of £32 10s. a year in the case of an officer or 12s. 6d. a week in any other case if he does not qualify for an award under subparagraph (1) of this Clause but is in receipt of an allowance under Clause 5 or under Clause 9.

b. For the purposes of this Clause, a member who would be in receipt of an allowance under Clause 5 if he were not in a hospital or other institution shall be deemed to be in receipt of an allowance under that Clause.

11. Allowances for Lowered Standard of Occupation

A member of the naval forces who is in receipt of retired pay or pension under Clause 1 the degree of which is less than 100 per cent. who has been compelled after 1st July 1945, by reason of his disability, to adopt an occupation not equivalent to that regularly followed by him for a reasonable period before that date may be granted at Ministry of Defence discretion a special allowance at a rate not exceeding 61s. 0d. a week (£158 8s. 0d. a year) so however that the aggregate rate of his retired pay or pension under Clause 1 together with the allowance under this Clause shall not exceed the rate of award which would have been appropriate in his case under Clause 1 if the degree of his disablement had been 100 per cent.

This Clause shall not apply to a member who is eligible for an allowance under Clause 9.

12. Age Allowances

Where a member of the naval forces who is in receipt of retired pay or pension under Clause 1, in respect of disablement the degree of which is 40 per cent, or over, has attained the age of 65 years he

13. Treatment Allowances

a. A member of the naval forces may be awarded in respect of any period during which he receives approved treatment, a treatment allowance consisting of a personal allowance in respect of himself and any additional allowance which may be appropriate in his case in accordance with the following provisions of this Clause:

b. The personal allowance in respect of the member shall be awarded at the rate of retired pay or pension which would be appropriate under this Order if the degree of that member's disablement were 100 per cent.

c. Where the member has attained the age of 65 years he may be awarded an increase of the allowance under paragraph b. of this Clause:—

(1) at a rate equal to that of the allowance which he would be receiving under Clause 12 but for proviso (2) to paragraph a. of this Clause or at such higher rate as the Ministry of Defence may determine having regard to the circumstances of the case, or

(2) at such rate as the Ministry of Defence may determine if of opinion that an award should be made to a person who is not eligible for an award under the preceding sub-paragraph.

(a) a member who is in receipt of an allowance under Clause 9b.; or

(b) a member who is receiving approved institutional treatment and is not entitled to an allowance under the following provisions of this Clause.

e. An additional allowance may be awarded in respect of an eligible dependant at the rate and subject to the conditions which would be appropriate under Clause 3 if that dependant were an eligible member of the family and the degree of the member's disablement were 100 per cent:—

Provided that:—

(1) where that eligible dependant is a wife (whether married to the member before or after the material date) the rate of the additional allowance in respect of that person may be increased to the rate of £145 12s. a year in the case of an officer, or the rate of 56s. 0d. a week in any other case, as the Ministry of Defence may think fit having regard to the financial circumstances of that person;

(2) the rate of the allowance awarded under the foregoing provisions of this sub-clause in respect of the child or children of an officer may, in respect of the first or only child be increased to £65 0s. a year, and in respect of the second and third child to £44 4s. a year and the fourth and subsequent child to £31 4s. a year; and where an allowance has been so awarded in respect of the child or children of a member not being an officer, the rate thereof in respect of the first or only child may be increased to 25s. 0d. a week and in respect of the second and third child to 17s. 0d. a week and in respect of the fourth and subsequent child to 12s. 0d. a week.

f. Where a member of the naval forces is not in receipt of an allowance under paragraph e. of this Clause in respect of a wife an additional allowance may be awarded in respect of an adult dependant at the rate of £145 12s. a year in the case of an officer or the rate of 56s. 0d. a week in any other case as the Ministry of Defence may think fit having regard to the financial circumstances of that adult dependant. Provided that the member of the naval forces shall not be awarded an additional allowance in respect of more than one adult dependant.

g. The benefit referred to in paragraph d. of this Clause is personal benefit under the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Acts 1946 to 1964, sickness benefit, retirement pension or contributory old age pension under the National Insurance Acts 1946 to 1964, or under any legislation in Northern Ireland corresponding to those Acts, or under the law of any place outside the United Kingdom which in the opinion of the Ministry of Defence is analogous to those Acts.

16. Medical Expenses

Any necessary expenses in respect of the medical, surgical or rehabilitation treatment of a member of the naval forces not otherwise provided for may be defrayed by the Ministry of Defence under such conditions and up to such amount as the Ministry of Defence may determine.
