have effect subject to the following modifications, that is to say:—

- (a) notwithstanding anything in section 1 of that Act (which relates to the application of the provisions of Part I of that Act for controlling the immigration into the United Kingdom of Commonwealth citizens and excepts certain persons therefrom) the said section 1 shall apply to a person to whom this Article applies and, subject to sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph, the provisions of the said Part I shall have effect accordingly;
- (b) nothing in subsection (3) of section 2 of that Act (which relates to admission for the purposes of employment or education and admission of a person in a position to support himself) shall prevent an immigration officer from exercising his power under that section to refuse admission into the United Kingdom to a person to whom this Article applies or to admit him subject to conditions and, accordingly, the said section 2 shall have effect as if subsection (3) were omitted;
- (c) notwithstanding anything in section 6 of that Act (which relates to the application of the provisions of Part II of that Act for authorising the deportation of Commonwealth citizens from the United Kingdom pursuant to the recommendation of a court and excepts certain persons therefrom) the provisions of the said section 6 shall apply to a person to whom this Article applies as if the reference therein to offences punishable with imprisonment were a reference to offences against that Act as it has effect by virtue of this paragraph and, subject to sub-paragraph (d) of this paragraph, the provisions of the said Part II shall have effect accordingly; and
- (d) section 7 of that Act (which relates to the power of a court to recommend a Commonwealth citizen for deportation in certain circumstances) shall have effect as if the reference therein to an offence punishable with imprisonment were a reference to an offence against that Act as it has effect by virtue of this paragraph.

(3) Nothing in this Article shall be construed as derogating from the powers conferred by the Commonwealth Immigrants Act 1962, apart from this Article, in relation to a person to whom this Article applies.

(4) References in this Article to a Commonwealth citizen shall be construed in like manner as in Part I of the Commonwealth Immigrants Act 1962 and references in this Article to that Act shall be construed as references to that Act as modified, amended or extended by or under any enactment.

Restrictions on certain activities promoting emigration to Southern Rhodesia

13.—(1) Except under the authority of a licence granted by the Minister, no person shall—

- (a) publish, or be a party to the publication of, any advertisement or any public notice or announcement soliciting or encouraging other persons to take up employment or residence in Southern Rhodesia; or
- (b) do any other act calculated to solicit or encourage members of the public generally or members of any particular class of the public to take up such employment or residence.

(2) Any person who contravenes paragraph (1) of this Article shall be guilty of an offence against this Order unless, in the case of a person who publishes, or is a party to the publication of, an advertisement or a public notice or announcement of such a character as is described in sub-paragraph (a) of that paragraph, he proves that he did not know and could not with reasonable diligence have ascertained that the advertisement, notice or announcement was of that character.

(3) Nothing in paragraph (1)(b) of this Article shall be construed as prohibiting the publication of factual accounts of actions, events, places or things.

Obtaining of evidence and information

14. The provisions of Schedule 1 to this Order shall have effect in order to facilitate the obtaining, by or on behalf of the Secretary of State or the Board of Trade or the Commissioners of Customs and Excise, of evidence and information for the purpose of securing compliance with or detecting evasion of this Order and in order to facilitate the obtaining, by or on behalf of the Secretary of State or the Board of Trade or the Commissioners of Customs and Excise, of evidence of the commission of an offence against this Order or, with respect to any of the matters regulated by this Order, of an offence relating to customs.

Penalties and Proceedings

15.—(1) Any person guilty of an offence against this Order shall be liable—

- (a) on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine or to both; or
- (b) on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding £500 or to both.

(2) Where any body corporate is guilty of an offence against this Order and that offence is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate or any person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, he, as well as the body corporate shall be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(3) In any proceedings against any person for a contravention of Article 9(3) of this Order, if it is proved that, notwithstanding any directions given to him under that Article in relation to any property, the ownership of that property or of any interest in or right over that property has been transferred, the burden of proving that he complied with those directions shall lie on him.

(4) Summary proceedings for an offence against this Order, being an offence alleged to have been committed outside the United Kingdom, may be commenced at any time not later than twelve months from the date on which the person charged first enters the United Kingdom after committing the offence.

(5) Proceedings for an offence against this Order may be taken, and the offence may for all incidental purposes be treated as having been committed, in any place in the United Kingdom where any person charged with that offence is for the time being.

(6) Proceedings for an offence against this Order shall not be instituted except by, or with the consent of, the Secretary of State or the Board of Trade or, in England or Wales, the Director of Public Prosecutions or, in Northern Ireland, the Attorney-General for Northern Ireland:

Provided that this paragraph shall not prevent the arrest, or the issue or execution of a warrant for the arrest, of any person in respect of such an offence, or the remanding in custody or on bail, of any person charged with such an offence, notwithstanding that the necessary consent to the institution of proceedings for the offence has not been obtained.

Exercise of powers of the Minister

16.—(1) The Minister may, to such extent and subject to such restrictions and conditions as he may think proper, delegate or authorise the delegation of any of his powers under this Order (other than the power to give authority under Schedule 1 to this Order to apply for a search warrant) to any person, or class or description of persons, approved by him, and references in this Order to the Minister shall be construed accordingly.

(2) Any licences granted under this Order may be either general or special, may be subject to or without conditions, may be limited so as to expire on a specified date unless renewed and may be varied or revoked by the authority that granted them.

Interpretation

17.—(1) In this Order the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say:—

- “commander”, in relation to an aircraft, means the person designated as commander of the aircraft by the operator thereof, and includes any person who is for the time being in charge or command of the aircraft;
- “land transport vehicle” includes a barge;
- “master”, in relation to a ship, includes any person (other than a pilot) for the time being in charge of the ship;
- “Minister” means the Secretary of State, the Board of Trade or the Minister of Power;
- “operator”, in relation to an aircraft or to a land transport vehicle, means the person for the time being having the management of the aircraft or the vehicle;

"owner", in relation to a ship, includes any person for the time being having the management of the ship and any person to whom it is chartered; and

"person in Southern Rhodesia" includes any body constituted or incorporated under the law of Southern Rhodesia and any body carrying on business (whether within Southern Rhodesia or not) which is controlled by persons or bodies resident in Southern Rhodesia or constituted or incorporated as aforesaid.

(2) Any provision of this Order which relates to goods exported from Southern Rhodesia (or to the exportation of goods from Southern Rhodesia) shall not have effect in respect of goods exported (or the exportation of goods) which have only passed through Southern Rhodesia in transit and have not been subject of any transaction there other than a transaction relating solely to their transportation; and any provision of this Order which relates to the exportation of goods to Southern Rhodesia, the supply or delivery of goods to or to the order of any person in Southern Rhodesia or the importation of goods into Southern Rhodesia shall not have effect in relation to goods which are intended only to pass through Southern Rhodesia in transit and not to be the subject of any transaction there other than a transaction relating solely to their transportation.

(3) For the purposes of this Order, the entry into Southern Rhodesia of a vehicle shall not be regarded as constituting the supply or delivery of that vehicle to or to the order of any person in Southern Rhodesia or as constituting its importation into Southern Rhodesia if the entry is merely for the purpose of the vehicle transporting persons into, out of or across Southern Rhodesia or transporting goods across Southern Rhodesia and is not part of or associated with a transaction involving a transfer of the ownership of the vehicle or of any interest therein.

(4) This Order applies to or in relation to any ship or aircraft or any body corporate that purports to be registered in any particular place or, as the case may be, that purports to be incorporated or constituted under the law of that place as it applies to or in relation to any ship or aircraft that is so registered or any body corporate that is so incorporated or constituted.

(5) Any provision of this Order which prohibits the doing of a thing except under the authority of a licence granted by the Minister shall not have effect in relation to any such thing done in a country or place (other than the United Kingdom) to which the Southern Rhodesia Act 1965 extends or done elsewhere outside the United Kingdom by a person who is ordinarily resident in, or by a body incorporated or constituted under the law of, that country or place, provided that it is so done under the authority of a licence or with permission granted, in accordance with any law in force in that country or place (being a law substantially corresponding to the relevant provision of this Order), by the authority competent in that behalf under that law.

(6) References in this Order to countries or places to which the Southern Rhodesia Act 1965 extends shall, in relation to any foreign country or territory in which for the time being Her Majesty has jurisdiction, be construed as applying to that country or territory only to the extent that Her Majesty has jurisdiction in that behalf; and references in this Order to British protected persons shall, in relation to a person who has that status by virtue of his connection with such a foreign country or territory, be likewise construed as applying to him only to the extent that Her Majesty has jurisdiction in that behalf.

(7) The Interpretation Act 1889 c. 63 shall apply, with the necessary adaptations, for the purpose of interpreting this Order and otherwise in relation thereto as it applies for the purpose of interpreting and in relation to Acts of Parliament.

Revocation and transitional

18.—(1) The Orders specified in Schedule 2 to this Order (hereinafter referred to as "the existing Orders") are revoked.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of section 38 of the Interpretation Act 1889 as applied by Article 17 of this Order, references to this Order, or to a particular provision thereof, in Articles 8 and 14 (together with Schedule 1) of this Order shall be construed as including references to the existing Orders or, as the case may require, to the corresponding provision of any of the existing Orders.

(3) Notwithstanding the revocation of the existing Orders, any directions given under Article 8A of the Southern Rhodesia (Prohibited Trade and Dealings) Order 1966 (S.I. 1966/1595 (1966 III, p. 5020)) (as inserted in that Order by Article 2 of the Southern Rhodesia (Prohibited Trade and Dealings) (Amendment) Order 1967 (S.I. 1967/394 (1967 I, p. 1324)) and subsisting immediately before the commencement of this Order shall have effect, as from such commencement, as if they had been given under Article 9 of this Order.

(4) The references in Articles 2(3) and 6 of this Order to goods that have been exported from Southern Rhodesia in contravention of Article 2(1) of this Order shall be deemed to include references to goods which have been exported from Southern Rhodesia in contravention of Article 2(1) of the Southern Rhodesia (Prohibited Trade and Dealings) Order 1966.

Citation, commencement and extent

19.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Southern Rhodesia (United Nations Sanctions) Order 1968 and shall come into operation on 14th June 1968.

(2) Articles 2, 4, 5, 7, 10 and 18 of this Order, and Articles 15 and 17 so far as applicable thereto, shall extend to Southern Rhodesia and for that purpose the references in Article 15 to the United Kingdom shall be construed as references to Southern Rhodesia; but, save as aforesaid, the provisions of this Order shall not extend, as part of the law thereof, to any country or place (other than the United Kingdom) to which the Southern Rhodesia Act 1965 extends.

Article 14

EVIDENCE AND INFORMATION

1.—(1) Without prejudice to any other provision of this Order, or any provision of any other law, the Secretary of State or the Board of Trade (or any person authorised by him or them for that purpose either generally or in a particular case) or the Commissioners of Customs and Excise may request any person in or resident in the United Kingdom to furnish to him or them (or to that authorised person) any information in his possession or control, or to produce to him or them (or to that authorised person) any document in his possession or control, which he or they (or that authorised person) may require for the purpose of securing compliance with or detecting evasion of this Order; and any person to whom such a request is made shall comply with it within such time and in such manner as may be specified in the request.

(2) Nothing in the foregoing sub-paragraph shall be taken to require any person who has acted as Counsel or Solicitor for any person to disclose any privileged communication made to him in that capacity.

(3) Where a person is convicted on indictment for failing to furnish information or produce a document when requested so to do under this paragraph, the court may make an order requiring him, within such period as may be specified in the order, to furnish the information or produce the document.

(4) The power conferred by this paragraph to request any person to produce documents shall include power to take copies of or extracts from any document so produced and to request that person, or, where that person is a body corporate, any other person who is a present or past officer of, or is employed by, the body corporate, to provide an explanation of any of them.

2.—(1) If any justice of the peace is satisfied by information on oath given by a person authorised by the Secretary of State or the Board of Trade or the Commissioners of Customs and Excise to act for the purposes of this paragraph either generally or in a particular case—

(a) that there is reasonable ground for suspecting that an offence against this Order or, with respect to any of the matters regulated by this Order, an offence against any enactment relating to customs has been or is being committed and that evidence of the commission of the offence is to be found on any premises specified in the information, or in any vehicle, vessel or aircraft so specified; or

- (b) that any documents which ought to have been produced under paragraph 1 of this Schedule and have not been produced are to be found on any such premises or in any such vehicle, vessel or aircraft, he may grant a search warrant authorising any constable, together with any other persons named in the warrant and any other constables, to enter the premises specified in the information or, as the case may be, any premises upon which the vehicle, vessel or aircraft so specified may be, at any time within one month from the date of the warrant and to search the premises, or, as the case may be, the vehicle, vessel or aircraft.

(2) A person authorised by any such warrant as aforesaid to search any premises or any vehicle, vessel or aircraft may search every person who is found in, or whom he has reasonable ground to believe to have recently left or to be about to enter, those premises or that vehicle, vessel or aircraft and may seize any document or article found on the premises or in the vehicle, vessel or aircraft or on such person which he has reasonable ground to believe to be evidence of the commission of any such offence as aforesaid or any documents which he has reasonable ground to believe ought to have been produced under paragraph 1 of this Schedule or to take in relation to any such article or document any other steps which may appear necessary for preserving it and preventing interference with it:

Provided that no female shall, in pursuance of any warrant issued under this paragraph, be searched except by a female.

(3) Where, by virtue of this paragraph, a person is empowered to enter any premises, vehicle, vessel or aircraft he may use such force as is reasonably necessary for that purpose.

(4) Any documents or articles of which possession is taken under this paragraph may be retained for a period of three months or, if within that period there are commenced any proceedings for such an offence as aforesaid to which they are relevant, until the conclusion of those proceedings.

(5) In the application of this paragraph to Scotland any reference to a justice of the peace includes a reference to the sheriff.

3. A person authorised by the Secretary of State or the Board of Trade to exercise any power for the purposes of this Schedule shall, if requested to do so, produce evidence of his authority before exercising that power.

4. No information furnished or document produced (including any copy or extract made of any document produced) by any person in pursuance of a request made under this Schedule and no document seized under paragraph 2(2) of this Schedule shall be disclosed except—

- (a) with the consent of the person by whom the information was furnished or the document was produced or the person from whom the document was seized:

Provided that a person who has obtained information or is in possession of a document only in his capacity as servant or agent of another person may not give consent for the purposes of this sub-paragraph but such consent may instead be given by any person who is entitled to that information or to the possession of that document in his own right; or

- (b) to any person who would have been empowered under this Schedule to request that it be furnished or produced or to any person holding or acting in any office under or in the service of the Crown in respect of the Government of the United Kingdom or under or in the service of the Government of any other country or place to which the Southern Rhodesia Act 1965 extends; or

- (c) on the authority of the Secretary of State, to any organ of the United Nations or to any person in the service of the United Nations or to the Government of any other country for the purpose of assisting the United Nations or that Government in securing compliance with or detecting evasion of measures in relation to Southern Rhodesia decided upon by the Security Council of the United Nations; or

- (d) with a view to the institution of, or otherwise for the purposes of, any proceedings for an offence against this Order or, with respect to any of the matters regulated by this Order, for an offence against any enactment relating to customs or for an offence against any provision of law with respect to similar matters that is for the time being in force in any country or place to which the Southern Rhodesia Act 1965 extends.

5. Any person who—

- (a) without reasonable excuse, refuses or fails within the time and in the manner specified (or, if no time has been specified within a reasonable time) to comply with any request made under this Schedule by any person who is empowered to make it; or
- (b) wilfully furnishes false information or a false explanation or otherwise wilfully obstructs any person in the exercise of his powers under this Schedule; or
- (c) with intent to evade the provisions of this Schedule, destroys, mutilates, defaces, secretes or removes any document, shall be guilty of an offence against this Order.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order revokes and replaces, in some cases with modifications, certain earlier Orders restricting trade and dealings in or in connection with Southern Rhodesia. It also introduces certain further restrictions and confers certain further powers in connection with Southern Rhodesia.

The Order restricts the importation into the United Kingdom of goods exported from Southern Rhodesia and the exportation from the United Kingdom of goods intended for Southern Rhodesia. It also imposes restrictions, both in the law of the United Kingdom and, in some respects, in the law of Southern Rhodesia, on the exportation from Southern Rhodesia of the former goods and the supply to Southern Rhodesia and the importation into Southern Rhodesia of the latter goods, as well as certain related activities and dealings, including the carriage of these goods in British ships or aircraft. The Order imposes restrictions with respect to undertakings in Southern Rhodesia for the manufacture or assembly of aircraft or motor vehicles. It authorises the imposition of restrictions on the transfer of certain property if this might facilitate an evasion of the Order. It restricts the use of certain aircraft operating to or from Southern Rhodesia and certain related civil aviation transactions. It authorises restrictions upon the entry into the United Kingdom of certain persons connected with Southern Rhodesia and it prohibits certain advertisements and similar activities aimed at encouraging emigration to Southern Rhodesia.

The Order also makes provision for the investigation of ships and aircraft that are suspected of contravening the Order and it confers powers to obtain evidence and information for the purposes of the Order.
