or, as the case may require, to refrain from taking such action in relation to that property as the directions may specify; and any person to whom directions are given under this Article shall comply with them.

(3) In this Article—

(b) "civil aviation facility" means any facility or service provided for the purposes of or in connection with the carriage of passengers or cargo by air or for the purposes of or in connection with the operation of aircraft therefor; and

(a) any Commonwealth citizen to whom section 1 of the Commonwealth Immigrants Act 1962 (1962 c. 21) applies who, on seeking entry into the United Kingdom—

(i) does not satisfy an immigration officer that he is a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies; and

(ii) tenders to an immigration officer a document being or purporting to be a current passport or other document establishing a person's identity or nationality issued by, in the name of, on behalf of, or under the authority of the Government of Southern Rhodesia, or the Governor or any Minister or any other officer of the Government of Southern Rhodesia, or any person or body of persons in Southern Rhodesia exercising or claiming to exercise any governmental functions in relation to that country, by whatever name described (including any person or body of persons claiming to be the Government of that country or to be a Minister or Ministers or any officer of such a Government or otherwise to exercise authority on behalf of such a Government); and

(b) any Commonwealth citizen whom the Secretary of State has reason to believe—

(i) to be ordinarily resident in Southern Rhodesia; and

(b) nothing in subsection (3) of section 2 of that Act (which relates to admission for the purposes of employment or education and admission of a person in a position to support himself) shall prevent an immigration officer from exercising his power under that section to refuse admission into the United Kingdom to a person to whom this Article applies or to admit him subject to conditions and, accordingly, the said section 2 shall have effect as if subsection (3) were omitted;

(c) notwithstanding anything in section 6 of that Act (which relates to the application of the provisions of Part II of that Act for authorising the deportation of Commonwealth citizens from the United Kingdom pursuant to the recommendation of a court and excepts certain persons therefrom) the provisions of the said section 6 shall apply to a person to whom this Article applies as if the reference therein to offences punishable with imprisonment were a reference to offences against that Act as it has effect by virtue of this paragraph and, subject to sub-paragraph (d) of this paragraph, the provisions of the said Part II shall have effect accordingly; and

(d) section 7 of that Act (which relates to the power of a court to recommend a Commonwealth citizen for deportation in certain circumstances) shall have effect as if the reference therein to an offence punishable with imprisonment were a reference to an offence against that Act as it has effect by virtue of this paragraph.

(3) Nothing in this Article shall be construed as derogating from the powers conferred by the Commonwealth Immigrants Act 1962, apart from this Article, in relation to a person to whom this Article applies.

(4) References in this Article to a Commonwealth citizen shall be construed in like manner as in Part I of the Commonwealth Immigrants Act 1962 and references in this Article to that Act shall be construed as references to that Act as modified, amended or extended by or under any enactment.

(2) Any person who contravenes paragraph (1) of this Article shall be guilty of an offence against this Order unless, in the case of a person who publishes, or is a party to the publication of, an advertisement or a public notice or announcement of such a character as is described in sub-paragraph (a) of that paragraph, he proves that he did not know and could not with reasonable diligence have ascertained that the advertisement, notice or announcement was of that character.

(3) Nothing in paragraph (1)(b) of this Article shall be construed as prohibiting the publication of factual accounts of actions, events, places or things.

(2) Where any body corporate is guilty of an offence against this Order and that offence is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate or any person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, he, as well as the body corporate, shall be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(3) In any proceedings against any person for a contravention of Article 10(3) of this Order, if it is proved that, notwithstanding any directions given to him under that Article in relation to any property, the ownership of that property or of any interest in or right over that property has been transferred, the burden of proving that he complied with those directions shall lie on him.

(4) Summary proceedings for an offence against this Order, being an offence alleged to have been committed outside the United Kingdom, may be commenced at any time not later than twelve months from the date on which the person charged first enters the United Kingdom after committing the offence.

(5) Proceedings for an offence against this Order may be taken, and the offence may for all incidental purposes be treated as having been committed, in any place in the United Kingdom where any person charged with that offence is for the time being.

(6) Proceedings for an offence against this Order shall not be instituted except by, or with the consent of, the Secretary of State or the Board of Trade or, in England or Wales, the Director of Public Prosecutions or, in Northern Ireland, the Attorney-General for Northern Ireland;

Provided that this paragraph shall not prevent the arrest, or the issue or execution of a warrant for the arrest, of any person in respect of such an offence, or the remanding in custody or on bail, of any person charged with such an offence, notwithstanding that the necessary consent to the institution of proceedings for the offence has not been obtained.

Exercise of powers of the Minister

17.—(1) The Minister may, to such extent and subject to such restrictions and conditions as he may think proper, delegate or authorise the delegation of any of his powers under this Order (other than the power to give authority under Schedule 1 to this Order to apply for a search warrant) to any person, or class or description of persons, approved by him, and references in this Order to the Minister shall be construed accordingly.

(2) Any licences granted under this Order may be either general or special, may be subject to or without conditions, may be limited so as to expire on a specified date unless renewed and may be varied or revoked by the authority that granted them.

Interpretation

18.—(1) In this Order the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say:

(3) For the purposes of this Order, the entry into Southern Rhodesia of a vehicle shall not be regarded as constituting the supply or delivery of that vehicle to or to the order of any person in Southern Rhodesia or as constituting its importation into Southern Rhodesia if the entry is merely for the purpose of the vehicle transporting persons into, out of or across Southern Rhodesia or transporting goods across Southern Rhodesia and is not part of or associated with a transaction involving a transfer of the ownership of the vehicle or of any interest therein.

(4) This Order applies to or in relation to any ship or aircraft or any body corporate that purports to be registered in any particular place or, as the case may be, that purports to be incorporated or constituted under the law of that place as it applies to or in relation to any ship or aircraft that is so registered or any body corporate that is so incorporated or constituted.

(6) References in this Order to countries or places to which the Southern Rhodesia Act 1965 extends shall, in relation to any foreign country or territory in which for the time being Her Majesty has jurisdiction, be construed as applying to that country or territory only to the extent that Her Majesty has jurisdiction in that behalf; and references in this Order to British protected persons shall, in relation to a person who has that status by virtue of his connection with such a foreign country or territory, be likewise construed as applying to him only to the extent that Her Majesty has jurisdiction in that behalf.

(7) The Interpretation Act 1889 (1889 c. 63.) shall apply, with the necessary adaptations, for the purpose of interpreting this Order and otherwise in relation thereto, as it applies for the purpose of interpreting and in relation to Acts of Parliament.

(3) In this Order—

(a) the references in Articles 3 (3) and 7 to goods that have been exported from Southern Rhodesia in contravention of Article 3 (1) of this Order shall be deemed to include references to goods which have been exported from Southern Rhodesia in contravention of Article 2 (1) of the Southern Rhodesia (Prohibited Trade and Dealings) Order, 1966 (S.I. 1966/1595 (1966 III, p. 5020)), or in contravention of Article 2 (1) of the Southern Rhodesia (United Nations Sanctions) Order 1968;

(b) the references in sub-paragraphs (c) and (d) of paragraph (2) of Article 13 to offences against the Commonwealth Immigrants Act 1962 as it has effect by virtue of that paragraph shall be deemed to include references to offences against that Act as it had effect by virtue of paragraph (2) of Article 12 of the Southern Rhodesia (United Nations Sanctions) Order 1968.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order revokes and replaces the Southern Rhodesia (United Nations Sanctions) Order 1968.

The Order restricts the importation into the United Kingdom of goods exported from Southern Rhodesia and the exportation from the United Kingdom of goods intended for Southern Rhodesia. It also imposes restrictions, both in the law of the United Kingdom and, in some respects, in the law of Southern Rhodesia, on the exportation from Southern Rhodesia of the former goods and the supply to Southern Rhodesia and the importation into Southern Rhodesia of the latter goods, as well as certain related activities and dealings, including the carriage of these goods in British ships or aircraft. The Order imposes restrictions with respect to undertakings in Southern Rhodesia for the manufacture or assembly of aircraft or motor vehicles. It authorises the imposition of restrictions on the transfer of certain property if this might facilitate an evasion of the Order. It restricts the use of certain aircraft operating to or from Southern Rhodesia and certain related civil aviation transactions. It authorises restrictions upon the entry into the United Kingdom of certain persons connected with Southern Rhodesia and it prohibits certain advertisements and similar activities aimed at encouraging emigration to Southern Rhodesia.

The Order also makes provision for the investigation of ships and aircraft that are suspected of contravening the Order and it confers powers to obtain evidence and information for the purposes of the Order.
