PRIVATE LEGISLATION PROCEDURE
(SCOTLAND) ACT, 1936

Notice is hereby given in terms of section 1 (4) of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1936, that the Secretary of State, the Chairman of Committees of the House of Lords and the Chairman of Ways and Means in the House of Commons having considered representations by National Westminster Bank Limited that it is expedient that the under-mentioned Parliamentary powers to be operative in Scotland and elsewhere which the Bank desire to obtain should be conferred by one enactment have decided that the said powers would more properly be obtained by the promotion of a Private Bill than by the promotion of a Private Bill and of a Provisional Order under the said Act.

1. By a scheme of arrangement sanctioned under section 206 of the Companies Act, 1948, and which came into force on 8th July 1968, National Provincial Bank Limited and Westminster Bank Limited became wholly owned subsidiaries of National Westminster Bank Limited (hereinafter referred to as "National Westminster"). District Bank Limited is itself a wholly owned subsidiary of National Provincial Bank Limited. This scheme was proposed with a view to the merger of the undertakings of District Bank Limited, National Provincial Bank Limited and Westminster Bank Limited (hereinafter referred to as the "existing banks").

2. The purpose of the Parliamentary powers now sought is to bring about the proposed merger by means of the transfer to National Westminster of the undertakings of the existing banks.

3. It is proposed that on an appointed day there shall be vested in National Westminster the undertakings of the existing banks (including all their property and liabilities) and that all contracts entered into with an existing bank shall continue as if they had been entered into with National Westminster. It will be specifically provided that, in relation to the banking businesses of the existing banks, customers' accounts will be transferred to National Westminster and that securities for payment of debts or liabilities to existing banks shall be transferred to and be available to National Westminster.

4. The powers sought will also include provisions dealing with certain matters arising as a result of the merger, including pensions of employees, and will provide that references in such documents as trust deeds or wills to an existing bank shall be construed as references to National Westminster.

5. Provision will be made for the dissolution of the existing banks.
