ARMY DEPARTMENT

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD

St. James's Palace, London S.W.1.

24th December 1968.

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased to approve the award of the British Empire Medal for Gallantry (Military Division) to the undermentioned:

23233933 Staff Sergeant John Henry PHILLIPS, Army Physical Training Corps.

At Tripoli, North Africa, on 25th May 1968, Staff Sergeant Phillips was called to the rescue of a Canadian who had got into difficulties whilst swimming in rough seas.

With a New Zealand Citizen, Staff Sergeant Phillips dashed into the sea on his attempted rescue, and after some 100 yards encountered a Libyan also in difficulties. He took him back to the beach and again re-entered the water. After swimming well over 200 yards he reached the Canadian who, by this time, was being supported by the New Zealander, on surf boards.

A Naval Officer piloting a small motor vessel, looking for the swimmers found them and lifted the Canadian aboard. He then returned to the shore, towing both Phillips and the New Zealander, who were now very exhausted. Artificial respiration was applied to the Canadian without effect.

During his hour and forty minutes in very rough seas with a heavy undertow Staff Sergeant Phillips by his courageous action and without thought for his own safety, was instrumental in saving one life and attempting to save another.
