The QUEEN has been graciously pleased to approve of the name shown below as having received an expression of Commendation for Brave Conduct:

23654445 Lance-Corporal (Acting Corporal) Michael Andrew CUNNINGHAM, 13th/18th Royal Hussars (Queen Mary's Own).

On 16th June 1969, at Swinton Barracks, Munster, Germany, at approximately 1420 hours, two young female NAAFI employees, who were non-swimmers, were learning to swim in a converted water tank.

One of the girls fell into the water which was about 10 feet deep. She submerged several times and finally came to rest on the bottom of the tank. Meanwhile, the other girl screamed for help. Corporal Cunningham heard the scream from his barrack room over 100 yards away. He ran across to the water tank and, although fully clothed, and not a competent swimmer, he immediately dived into the water and pulled the girl from the bottom of the tank up to the side. She was no longer breathing. Despatching someone to fetch a doctor, he carried out mouth to mouth resuscitation for over a minute, when the girl recovered. He then covered her with towels and placed her in the "Coma Position" until the doctor arrived.

By his calm and unhesitating action Corporal Cunningham undoubtedly saved the life of the girl without regard for his own safety.
