

Map prepared by the Derbyshire County Council under the National Parks and Access to the Countryside Act 1949, of varying width running from a point where that part of the public bridleway from Watery Lane, Bretby, joins the access road between Brethby Hospital and Repton Road, Bretby, in a south-westerly direction for a distance of approximately twenty-five yards and thence generally in a north-easterly direction for a distance of approximately two hundred and ninety-three yards.

A new public highway will be established along a line running from a point where that part of the public bridleway from Watery Lane, Bretby, joins the access road between Brethby Hospital and Repton Road, Bretby, in a north-easterly direction for a distance of approximately two hundred and ten yards, and then in a south-easterly direction for a distance of approximately seventy-eight yards to a point on the existing public bridleway. The diversion will become effective on the 21st May 1970.

A copy of the Order as confirmed and the map contained in it has been deposited at and may be inspected free of charge at the Council's Offices, "The Poplars", Rolleston Road, Burton upon Trent, during the usual office hours.

The Order becomes operative as from the 7th April 1970, but if any person aggrieved by the Order desires to question the validity thereof, or of any provision contained therein on the ground that it is not within the powers of the Highways Act 1959, as amended, or on the ground that any requirement of the Act, as amended, or any regulation made thereunder has not been complied with in relation to the approval of the Order he may, under paragraph 2 of Schedule 2 to the Act as applied in paragraph 5 of Schedule 7 to the Act, within 6 weeks from the date of publication of this notice, make application for the purpose to the High Court.

Dated this 31st day of March 1970.

R. V. Hawcroft, Clerk and Chief Executive Officer.
