- (c) The expressions "removed from duty" or "removal from duty" shall be interpreted with reference to the date of the first removal from duty on account of the disease upon which the claim in respect of disablement is based, provided that if, as the result of service subsequent to the date of receipt of the wound or injury or of removal from duty, not being service after the 2nd September 1939, the member suffered material aggravation of his disability, the date of removal from duty shall be that of the later removal on account of the disability: or, if there was no such removal, the date of termination of full pay service of the member.
- (d) Family addition to disablement pension in respect of a child shall normally terminate when the child attains the age of 18 years in the case of an officer or at the age of 16 years in any other case, but, subject to the production of satisfactory evidence the allowance may be made or continued in respect of a child who has attained the child's age limit when that child—

5. Allowances for Constant Attendance

Where a member of the naval forces is in receipt of retired pay or a pension under Clause 1 in respect of disablement the degree of which is not less than 80 per cent, and it is shown to the satisfaction of the Ministry of Defence that constant attendance on the member is necessary on account of the disablement, he may be awarded an allowance at a rate not exceeding £171 12s. (£171·60) a year in the case of an officer or £3 6s. (£3·30) a week in the case of a rating.

6. Exceptionally Severe Disablement Allowance

Where the disablement of a member of the naval forces is, and in the opinion of the Ministry of Defence is likely permanently to remain, such that he is, or if he were not in a hospital or other institution would be, in receipt of an allowance for constant attendance at a rate increased under the proviso to Clause 5, he may be awarded an allowance at the rate of £156 (£156·00) a year in the case of an officer or £3 (£3·00) a week in the case of a rating.

7. Severe Disablement Occupational Allowance

- (b) in receipt of any such benefit as is mentioned in Clause 13g or a treatment allowance increased under (d) of that Clause.

8. Allowances for Wear and Tear of Clothing

(a) Where a member of the naval forces who is in receipt of retired pay or a pension under Clause 1 in respect of an amputation regularly wears an artificial limb, he may be awarded an allowance in respect of wear and tear of clothing at whichever of the following rates is applicable:

- (1) where he wears a single artificial limb (other than a tilting table limb), £9 (£9·00) a year; or
- (2) where he wears a tilting table limb or more than one artificial limb, £14 (£14·00) a year.

(b) In any other case in which the Ministry of Defence is satisfied that as a result of the pensioned disablement there is exceptional wear and tear of the member's clothing, an allowance not exceeding £14 (£14·00) a year may be awarded.

9. Allowances for Unemployable Pensioners

(a) Eligibility

Where a member of the naval forces is in receipt of retired pay or a pension under Clause 1 in respect of disablement so serious as to make him unemployable, he may be awarded allowances in accordance with such of the provisions of this Clause as may be appropriate in his case:

Provided that—

- (1) such a member may be deemed to be unemployable although in receipt of earnings which are, in the opinion of the Ministry of Defence, unlikely to exceed £104 (£104·00) a year;

- (2) such a member shall not be eligible for any award under this Clause if he is in receipt of a retirement pension (not being contributory old age pension) under the National Insurance Acts 1946 to 1964 or under any legislation in Northern Ireland corresponding to those Acts.

(b) Supplementation of retired pay or pension

A member coming within paragraph (a) of this Clause may be awarded an allowance, by way of supplement to his retired pay or pension, at the rate of £283 8s. (£283·40) a year in the case of an officer, or £5 9s. (£5·45) a week in any other case:

Provided that, in computing the said rates, account shall be taken, to such extent as the Ministry of Defence may think fit, of a contributory old age pension under the National Insurance Act 1946, or under any legislation in Northern Ireland corresponding to that Act for which the member may be eligible.

(c) Additional allowances for dependants

Where a member is awarded an allowance in accordance with paragraph (b) of this Clause, he may also be awarded additional allowances in accordance with the following provisions of this paragraph:

- (1) Where an allowance has been awarded under Clause 3 in respect of a wife and the degree of the disablement of the member is less than 100 per cent, that allowance may be increased to the rate which would be appropriate under that Clause if the degree of the disablement of the member were 100 per cent.
- (2) Where an allowance has been awarded under Clause 3 in respect of a wife and the degree of the disablement of the member is 100 per cent, or where an allowance for such person has been increased or awarded under sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph, the rate of the allowance may be increased, or further increased, as the case may be, by £125 4s. (£125·20) a year in the case of an officer, or £2 12s. (£2·60) a week in any other case, if the Ministry of Defence thinks fit having regard to the financial circumstances of the person in respect of whom the allowance has been granted.
- (3) Where the member is not in receipt of an allowance under Clause 3 in respect of a wife, an allowance may be awarded in respect of an adult dependant at the rate of £161 4s. (£161·20) a year in the case of an officer, or £3 2s. (£3·10) a week in any other case, if the Ministry of Defence thinks fit having regard to the financial circumstances of the person in respect of whom the allowance is claimed; provided that the member shall not be awarded an allowance in respect of more than one adult dependant.
- (4) (a) Where an allowance has been awarded under Clause 3 in respect of a child and the degree of disablement of the member is less than 100 per cent, that allowance may be increased to the rate which would be appropriate under that Clause if the degree of the disablement of the member were 100 per cent;
(b) an allowance may be awarded in respect of any child, not being an eligible member of the family, who should, in the opinion of the Ministry of Defence, be treated as such having regard to the child's relationship to, or connection with, the pensioner and other circumstances of the case, provided that any such allowance shall be at the rate and subject to the conditions which would be appropriate under Clause 3 if the child were an eligible member of the family and the degree of the disablement of the member were 100 per cent;
- (5) Where an allowance has been awarded under Clause 3 or sub-clause (4) of this Clause in respect of a child or children, the rate thereof is to be as follows:
as from 8th October 1968

Eligible Child	Officers (Yearly Rate)	Rating (Weekly Rate)

(d) Adjustment of allowances in respect of benefit payable out of public funds abroad

Where a person to or in respect of whom an allowance or increase may be or has been awarded under the foregoing provisions of this Clause is eligible for benefit payable out of public funds under the law of any place outside the United Kingdom being benefit which, in the opinion of the Ministry of Defence, is analogous to a benefit under the National Insurance Acts 1946 to 1964, the Ministry of Defence may take the benefit into account against the allowance or increase in such manner and to such extent as may be thought appropriate having regard to any adjustment which would be made if the person were eligible for the analogous benefit under the said Acts.

10. Allowances for Comforts

(a) A member of the naval forces who is in receipt of retired pay or pension under Clause 1 may be awarded an allowance for the provision of comforts:

- (1) At the rate of £65 (£65·00) a year in the case of an officer or £1 5s. (£1·25) a week in any other case where the member is in receipt of an allowance under Clause 5 and is—

 - (b) in receipt of retired pay or pension in respect of disablement the degree of which is 100 per cent and which has been awarded in respect of multiple injuries which, in the opinion of the Ministry of Defence, render his disablement so severe as to justify the award of an allowance at the aforementioned rate;
 - (2) at the rate of £32 10s. (£32·50) a year in the case of an officer or 12s. 6d. (63p) a week in any other case if he does not qualify for an award under sub-paragraph (1) of this Clause but is in receipt of an allowance under Clause 5 or under Clause 9.

11. Allowances for Lowered Standard of Occupation

A member of the naval forces who is in receipt of retired pay or pension under Clause 1 the degree of which is less than 100 per cent who has been compelled after 1st July 1945, by reason of his disability, to adopt an occupation not equivalent to that regularly followed by him for a reasonable period before that date may be granted at Ministry of Defence discretion a special allowance at a rate not exceeding £3 7s. (£3·35) a week or £174 4s. (£174·20) a year so however that the aggregate rate of his retired pay or pension under Clause 1 together with the allowance under this Clause shall not exceed the rate of award which would have been appropriate in his case under Clause 1 if the degree of his disablement had been 100 per cent.

An allowance under this Clause shall not be payable to a member for any period in respect of which an allowance under Clause 9 is payable to him.

12. Age Allowances

(a) A member of the naval forces may be awarded in respect of any period during which he receives approved treatment, a treatment allowance consisting of a personal allowance in respect of himself and any additional allowance which may be appropriate in his case in accordance with the following provisions of this Clause:

- (a) Where it is certified that a member of the naval forces should, on completion of a course of treatment in a hospital or similar institution, abstain from work in consequence of the condition which necessitated that treatment, he may be treated as if he were eligible for a treatment allowance under Clause 13.
- (b) This Clause shall not apply to a member of the naval forces who is in receipt of an allowance under Clause 9 (b).
15. Allowances for Part-time Treatment
- Where a member of the naval forces receives treatment which would be treatment as defined in Clause 13 but for the fact that it involves only occasional interruptions of the member's normal employment, a treatment allowance may be awarded to the member at such rate, not exceeding £4 0s. (£4·00) a day, as the Ministry of Defence may think appropriate having regard to any loss of remunerative time by the member as a result of those interruptions, and provided that the rate of a treatment allowance awarded to a member under this Clause in respect of any period of a week or less shall not exceed the amount by which the weekly value of the member's existing award under Schedule 1 (excluding any award under Clauses 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9(b), 10 or 12) falls short of the weekly value of the award which would have been appropriate in the case of that member under Clause 13 (excluding any award under paragraph (c) of that Clause) if he had been eligible for an award under that Clause.
16. Medical Expenses
- Any necessary expenses in respect of the medical, surgical or rehabilitation treatment of a member of the naval forces not otherwise provided for may be defrayed by the Ministry of Defence under such conditions and up to such amount as the Ministry of Defence may determine.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by Orders in Council dated 7th November 1924 and 25th June 1925, as amended by subsequent Orders, regulations were approved for the payment of pensions and allowances by the Ministry of Defence to widows, children and parents of members of the naval forces who die as the result of peace-time service before 3rd September 1939 at similar rates and subject to similar conditions as awards payable by the Department of Health and Social Security in respect of deaths attributable to service during the 1914 World War or after 2nd September 1939:

And whereas the Department of Health and Social Security have made further provision concerning pensions and allowances payable to dependants of members of the naval forces:

And whereas it is expedient that corresponding improvements should be made in the awards payable by the Ministry of Defence:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred upon Her by section 11 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act 1865, and of all other powers enabling Her in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

2. The revised rates and conditions of award of pensions and allowances to widows and children in respect of the death of officers and men of the Royal Navy and Royal Marines where death is attributable to their service as specified in the Schedule annexed hereto shall take effect from 1st November for widows and children of officers and 5th November for other widows and children. 2. Definition of Rank

(a) Officers

(1) For the purpose of assessing pensions of officer's widows the rank of the officer shall be, except as hereinafter provided, the highest substantive rank held by the officer on the Active List or while re-employed in a service capacity during war or emergency.

(2) Brevet or honorary rank shall not count, except where otherwise specifically stated, but the rank of Commodore 1st or 2nd Class shall be regarded as substantive rank. Brevet rank held on the Active List prior to 25th June 1925 shall also be regarded as a substantive rank.

(3) If an officer accepts a temporary rank lower than his substantive rank and dies in circumstances rendering his widow eligible for an attributable pension, his widow shall not receive a pension greater than the rate appropriate to her husband's temporary rank, unless eligible for a higher Service pension appropriate to his substantive rank.

(4) A Chaplain shall be treated as holding such rank as is, in the opinion of the Defence Council, appropriate in his case having regard to his length of service. In the case of a Chaplain on the retired list seniority for this purpose shall be taken as seniority at date of original retirement increased by the amount of actual service (if any) after retirement during war or emergency.

(b) R.N. Ratings and R.M. Other Ranks

For the purpose of assessing pensions of the widows of ratings and other ranks, the rank shall be that held by the deceased rating or other rank prior to the termination of his full pay service.

3. Rent Allowance

A widow who is in receipt of a pension for herself and has a child in her care may be granted a rent allowance at a rate not exceeding £2 10s. (£2·50p) a week as the Defence Council may consider appropriate, having regard to the amount by which her weekly rent and rates exceed 6s. (£0·30p).

For the purpose of this clause

(a) "child" means a child who is eligible for an allowance under clause 16 and any other child who, in the opinion of the Defence Council, having regard to the child's relationship to or connection with the deceased member and the other circumstances of the case, should be treated as covered by this provision;

(b) "weekly rent and rates" means such sum as the Defence Council may, after taking into account all relevant factors and making all necessary apportionments, consider to be the weekly amount in respect of rent, or the equivalent thereof, and rates, which the widow is paying or providing either directly or indirectly for accommodation for the benefit of herself and the child;

(c) "accommodation" means living accommodation without any service or benefit not ordinarily provided by the landlord to the tenant of an unfurnished dwelling house, but may include accommodation reasonably required for the storage of furniture.

Where an allowance under this clause would cease by reason of the death of a child, the allowance may be continued for the period of 13 weeks from the date of the child's death.

4. Allowance to Elderly Widows

A widow who receives a pension under clause 1 and has reached the age of 70 years may be awarded an allowance at the rate of £39 (£39·00) a year in the case of an officer's widow or 15s. (£0·75p) a week in the case of the widow of a rating or marine.

- (1) the ordinary rate of widow's pension under the Regulations in force on 25th September 1949, or
- (2) (a) Where there are two parents, £100 (£100·00) a year for Commissioned Officers (including Senior Commissioned Officers (Branch List) or £85 (£85·00) a year for Commissioned Officers (Branch List) other than Senior Commissioned Officers, or
- (b) in single parent cases, the maximum rates are £75 (£75·00) and £60 (£60·00) a year.

Provided that, in exceptional cases, the rate of the pension may be increased in excess of the rates given in sub-paragraph (b)(2) above by a sum not exceeding £20 (£20·00) a year.

In the case of ratings and marines the rate shall not exceed £1 7s. 6d. (£1·38p) a week where there are two parents and £1 (£1·00) a week in single parent cases.

Provided that, in exceptional cases, this rate may be increased by a sum not exceeding 12s. 6d. (£0·62p) a week where there are two parents and 7s. 6d. (£0·38p) a week in single parent cases.

- (c) A grant shall not be transferable but, if an award has been made to the two parents, payment of the pension may be continued to the survivor at such rate as the Defence Council may determine.
- (d) A grant shall cease on the remarriage of the grantee.

SECTION II

CONDITIONS GOVERNING THE AWARD

10. Pension cannot be claimed as a right.

- (a) A pension cannot be claimed as a right and will not be granted or continued when the applicant is shown to be living with a man as his wife, nor will it be granted if the service of the officer, rating or marine has not been such as in the opinion of the Defence Council to justify the award.
- (b) If the death of an officer, rating or marine, or the wound, injury or disease which resulted in his death was due wholly or in part to his own negligence or misconduct or to any cause within his own control, any grant which might otherwise be made to his widow or other dependents may be withheld or reduced in amount at the discretion of the Defence Council.

- (c) If the applicant is granted any other pension or allowance from public funds on account of the service of the deceased, any pension which might otherwise be granted under this Schedule may be withheld or reduced as the Defence Council may determine.

11. Third Party Compensation.

If an officer, rating or marine is killed or dies in such circumstances that any grant is payable in respect of him under this Order in Council and his widow, child or other dependent relative receives compensation from or on behalf of a third party for the act, omission or circumstances which caused the death, any such compensation may be taken into consideration in assessing any grant which might be made under this Order in Council; and if the compensation is received after assessment, it may be taken into consideration and the assessment may be amended or cancelled.

12. Effect of Separation on Widows' Pension.

Subject to any exception which the Defence Council may approve in a particular case, a pension will not be awarded to a widow who was separated from her husband at the time of his death. Should such an exception be approved the award will be at such a rate, and subject to such conditions, as the Defence Council may determine.

13. Date of commencement of pension.

The date of commencement of pension will be determined according to the circumstances of the case and will normally if application is not unduly delayed be the date following the date of cessation of the husband's disablement pension.

14. Belated claims.

If a widow dies before establishing her claim to pension, arrears of pension will not, save in exceptional circumstances, be allowed to her estate.

15. Remarriage.

If the widow of a rating or marine who has been granted a pension under these regulations remarries, her pension will cease on the date of her remarriage, but at the discretion of the Defence Council, she may then be granted a gratuity equal to one year's pension in full discharge of all claims.

The pension of an officer's widow who remarries shall be suspended from the date following that of her remarriage, but in the event of her again becoming a widow her pension may be restored in whole or in part at the discretion of the Defence Council for such time as she remains a widow, provided that she is otherwise qualified and that her pecuniary circumstances are such as, in the opinion of the Defence Council, justify the award. Should she become eligible by remarriage for a pension at a different rate, she may be awarded that which is more to her advantage.

16. Children.

(a) A "child" for the purposes of the award of a pension under this Schedule means:

- (1) A legitimate child of the Officer, R.N. rating or R.M. other rank; or
- (2) a step-child of the Officer, R.N. rating or R.M. other rank who was mainly dependent on him at the time of his death; or
- (3) a child adopted by the Officer, R.N. rating or R.M. other rank; or
- (4) an illegitimate child of the Officer, R.N. rating or R.M. other rank, born before or within nine months after the date on which he sustained the wound or injury, or the date on which he was removed from duty on account of the disease in respect of which his disablement pension was granted, and who was regularly maintained by the officer, rating or other rank up to the date of his death, or who was the subject of an affiliation order which was in force at the date of his death.

(b) A child's pension will normally cease when the child attains the age of 18 years in the case of the child of an Officer or a Regimental Sergeant Major, Royal Marines, or the age of 16 years in the case of all other ratings and ranks, but may be granted or continued after those ages:

- (1) if the child continues to receive full-time education, or is an apprentice not receiving more than nominal wages; or
- (2) if, before attaining the age referred to above the child was, and continues to be afflicted by mental or bodily infirmity and is therefore incapable of earning his, or her own living, provided the Defence Council considers that the pecuniary circumstances of the child and family are such as to justify the award.

(c) Children's pensions will be paid to the widow or mother of the child, or other person responsible for the child's maintenance, or to the child direct, as may be decided by the Defence Council.

(d) Pensions of children of Officers and of Regimental Sergeant Majors, Royal Marines, may be issued quarterly in advance.

(e) Children's allowances will not be payable for any period during which the children are maintained in the Royal Navy, the Army or the Royal Air Force.
