HONOURS AND AWARDS

HOME OFFICE

Whitehall, London S.W.1.
11th August 1970.

The QUEEN was pleased on Wednesday, 5th August 1970, at Buckingham Palace, to confer the honour of Knighthood upon:

Mr. Justice (John Anson) BRIGHTMAN.

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD

St. James's Palace, London S.W.1.
11th August 1970.

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased, on the advice of Her Majesty's Australian Ministers, to approve the award of the Albert Medal to the under-mentioned:

(To be dated 6th August 1970.)

Mr. Kenneth Owen MCINTYRE (deceased), of Fairy Meadow, New South Wales.

On the morning of 25th August 1969, the coastal freighter M.V. "Noongah" (1,673 deadweight tons) was lost off Nambucca Heads, New South Wales, with the loss of 21 lives.

The late Kenneth Owen McIntyre was a Greaser aboard the M.V. "Noongah" at the time of the tragedy. Shortly before the foundering of the ship he was seen with other crew members on the poop deck wearing his life jacket but was then seen to remove it and informed the other crew members present that he was returning to the engine room to see if he could render any assistance. It was not clearly established before the Court of Marine Inquiry into the loss of the ship whether Mr. McIntyre later entered the water wearing his life jacket.

However, after the foundering, three members of the ship's crew who were clinging to a plank saw Mr. McIntyre without a life jacket supporting the Chief Cook. Having dragged the Chief Cook to the comparative safety of the plank, Mr. McIntyre heard someone else calling for help and left the plank to attempt to render assistance. He did not return to the plank and was not seen again although his life jacket was among the debris recovered from the sea.

The late Mr. McIntyre displayed great personal courage and a complete disregard for his own safety in saving the life of a fellow member of the crew and later attempting to render assistance to a further crew member in difficulty.
