

of which should be preserved or enhanced, will be the subject of stringent control of development and the County Council intend to take such action as may be available to them to secure the preservation and general improvement of the area.

The Conservation Area is more particularly defined on the map which may be inspected free of cost during normal working hours at the office of the County Director of Planning, County Hall, West Bridgford, Nottingham, or at the office of the Clerk to the Southwell Rural District Council, Council Offices, Westgate, Southwell.

SCHEDULE

In the Parish of Upton in the Rural District of Southwell

Southwell

The Conservation Area boundary commences at the western end of the village, following the western boundary of Upton House and "Lawson", it then follows the northern boundaries of all the properties on the northern side of Main Road until it meets the western boundary of "Greenacres". The boundary from here runs along the western perimeter of Upton Hall, including within its area the properties "Lyndenwood" to "Broadlands", the line then continues to include all the properties north of the A.612 up to and including North House on the eastern edge of the village.

The boundary from here runs south-east and south-west to include "Ashleigh", Glebe Farm, Manor Farm and Heritage Farm, it then runs north-west up Cow Lane until it meets the southern boundary of the village properties south of the A.612 including The Close, the Church of St. Peter and St. Paul, Upton Methodist Church and all properties up to "Greenways". The line then passes along the southern boundary of Main Road, finally enclosing the boundary of Upton Grange.
