HONOURS AND AWARDS

Home Office,
Whitehall, London S.W.1.
18th November 1971.

The QUEEN has been pleased to award The Queen's Police Medal for Gallantry to the late Constable Ian Coward of the Thames Valley Police in recognition of his gallantry in the following circumstances:

A car driven by two criminals, who had stolen it for the purpose of committing further crimes, was stopped by Constable Coward because of the erratic way in which it was being driven. Suspecting that the car had been stolen, Constable Coward returned to his own vehicle to use its radio set to check the registration number of the suspect car. He was prevented from doing so by one of the men, who threatened him with a gun and told him to hand over the radio set. Constable Coward refused and tried to seize the gun, but was shot in the head. Despite this injury he refused to yield to his attacker and, while fighting and struggling, he was shot a further eight times. The men then drove off, leaving Constable Coward unconscious on the pavement. He died of his wounds four weeks later. His courage and devotion to duty were in the highest traditions of the police service.

NEWCASTLE UPON TYNE CITY AND COUNTY COUNCIL

City and County of Newcastle upon Tyne Parking Places and Restriction of Waiting Order 1967 (Variation—Disabled Persons) Order 1971.

Notice is hereby given that on the 15th November 1971 the Council of the City and County of Newcastle upon Tyne made the above-named Order under sections 35, 36, 37, 39 and 84D of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1967 as amended by Part IX of the Transport Act 1968.

The Order will come into operation on the 1st December 1971 and will amend the City and County of Newcastle upon Tyne Parking Places and Restriction of Waiting Order 1967 (the Meter Zone Order) so as to take account of the new system of car badges in connection with disabled persons under the Chronically Sick and Disabled Persons Act 1970.

When the Order comes into operation any disabled person's vehicle which displays in the relevant position a disabled person's badge issued by any local authority may park in a meter bay in the Newcastle upon Tyne Meter Zone and will:

- (a) be exempt from the meter charge;
- (b) be able to wait for an unlimited period; and
- (c) be able to return to the same bay at any time without waiting for the usual period of one hour to elapse.

The new system does not allow a badge holder to park in any place where waiting is prohibited (i.e. in lengths of road marked with continuous yellow lines) and he must in any event always move his vehicle when required to do so by a traffic warden or police constable in uniform.

Existing "yellow badges" issued by local authorities under schemes made under the National Assistance Act 1948 are valid as badges under the new scheme for a temporary period of two years and will be replaced by the new badges when they become due for renewal.

The new badges are available not only to disabled drivers but also to disabled passengers and organisations concerned with the care of disabled persons. In these cases however badges may only be displayed on vehicles when they are actually in use for the conveyance of disabled persons.

Any person resident in the City and County of Newcastle upon Tyne who wishes to be considered for the issue of a badge under the new scheme and is not already a holder of a badge under the existing scheme should apply to the Social Services Department at the Civic Centre, Newcastle upon Tyne.

A copy of the Order is available for inspection at the City Legal Adviser's Office.

If you wish to question the validity of the Order mentioned above or of any provision contained in it on the grounds that it is not within the powers conferred by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1967 as amended by Part IX of the Transport Act 1968, or on the grounds that any requirement of that Act or of any instrument made under it, has not been complied with in relation to the Order, you may within 6 weeks from the 15th November 1971 apply to the High Court for this purpose.

Cyril R. Ward, City Legal Adviser.
