MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

NAVY DEPARTMENT

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD

4th January 1972.

St. James's Palace, London S.W.1.

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased to give orders for the following appointment to the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire:

To be an Additional Member of the Military Division of the said Most Excellent Order for Gallantry:

Instructor Lieutenant DUNN, Royal Navy.

On 18th June at 1020 the annual Plymouth to Fowey race was run. Weather conditions were not good but acceptable—wind WSW Force 3, seas moderate, with drizzle.

Instructor Lieutenant Dunn was in a whaler with a crew of four sailors under training. By 1200 the weather was deteriorating—wind freshening, seas increasing and boats had difficulty going to windward. The crew were suffering from sea sickness and wetness. Weather conditions continued to worsen. By 1400 Lieutenant Dunn was off Down-derry, wind was Force 7, large seas were running and the whaler was shipping a lot of water. After failing to obtain assistance and because the morale of the crew was by this time very low, he decided to run back to Plymouth rather than continue towards Looe.

Running under mizen and jib, good progress was made until, a mile off Rame Head, a rogue sea capsized the whaler. The crew had previously been instructed to stay with the boat in this eventuality, but by now three of them were in poor physical condition, panicking and incapable of making any controlled physical effort. Conditions were extremely bad, very heavy seas were running and tumbling the whaler over and over on its beam ends. During this period Lieutenant Dunn, without any regard to his own safety and by outstanding leadership, skill, personal effort and tremendous physical exertion, kept his crew together either near or on the upturned boat. His achievement was all the more magnificent in view of the complete lack of experience of three of the crew, their very feeble physical state and the terrible conditions.

After 30-40 minutes help arrived from a helicopter and rescue launch. It was only by virtue of Lieutenant Dunn's unflagging determination and physical effort in helping them into the helicopter that the four young men were rescued from the upturned whaler. Regrettably, two of the young men died during or immediately after rescue, but had it not been for Lieutenant Dunn's single-minded, unselfish efforts all four may well have been lost.

Queen's Commendation for Brave Conduct

22543716 Warrant Officer Class II Anthony HILL, Royal Engineers.

Warrant Officer Class II Hill of 35 Engineer Regiment Royal Engineers was employed as a member of the Safety Organisation at Wispenstein bridge, Germany, during a Divisional exercise.

At about 0005 hours on 29th September 1971 a N.C.O. who was the radio operator and driver to the umpire on the bridge adjusted his 27-foot radio mast. The aerial struck an overhead power cable and the flash and muffled scream attracted Warrant Officer Hill to the scene. Seeing the N.C.O. rigid and clutching the mast, and with smoke pouring from the vehicle, he hurled himself at the N.C.O. and hit him with both hands about chest high. The impetus broke the N.C.O.'s hold on the mast and the shock threw Warrant Officer Hill against a parked vehicle.

He then dragged the N.C.O. clear of the mast and coaxial lead and attempted to give first aid by heart massage and mouth-to-mouth resuscitation. The latter was made difficult as Warrant Officer Hill was unable to unclench the N.C.O.'s jaw. Warrant Officer Hill continued to work on the patient until the arrival of medical help.

Warrant Officer Hill did all in his power to save the N.C.O.'s life and his brave action, when he knew very well in what danger he personally was in, brought credit not only to his Corps, but also to the British Army.
