HOME OFFICE

Whitehall, London S.W.1.

22nd December 1971.

The QUEEN has been pleased to issue a Warrant under Her Majesty's Royal Sign Manual in form following:

ELIZABETH R.

ELIZABETH THE SECOND by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and of Our other Realms and Territories

QUEEN, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith, to all to whom these Presents shall come;

Greeting!

Whereas by Royal Proclamation made on 1st January 1801, His Majesty King George III charged and commanded all His subjects not to wear in any of their ships or vessels any flag, pendants or colours usually borne by His Majesty's ships or resembling those of His Majesty, or any ensign other than the ensign required to be worn by the masters of all ships and vessels belonging to His Majesty's subjects, without particular warrant for their so doing;

And whereas by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, it is enacted that the Red Ensign without any defacement or modification whatsoever is the proper national colours for all vessels belonging to any of Our Subjects, except in the case of any ship or boat for the time being allowed to wear any other national colours in pursuance of a Royal Warrant or a warrant from the Admiralty;

Now know ye that We of Our Princely Grace and Special Favour having taken into Our consideration certain representations made unto Us do by these Presents give and grant our Royal Licence and Authority to Our faithful Subjects of Our Island of Man that the Red Ensign of the merchant fleet as used by them may be defaced by the addition on the fly thereof of Our Device or Badge for the said Island, viz.:

Three legs in armour argent garnished and spurred or flexed at the knee and conjoined at the thigh.

Given at Our Court at Balmoral the twenty-seventh day of August 1971 in the Twentieth Year of Our Reign.

By Her Majesty's Command.

Reginald Maudling
