

Medal in Gold shall be deemed to be a person who has been awarded not that Medal but the George Cross; and

Thirdly, the actual medal used for the decoration of such a person may be delivered up to Our Secretary of State for the Home Department for exchange accordingly.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's the fifteenth day of December 1971 in the Twentieth Year of Our Reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,
R. Maudling.

ELIZABETH R.

ELIZABETH THE SECOND, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and of Our other Realms and Territories QUEEN, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith, to all to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting!

Whereas by Warrants dated 13th July 1907 and 1st December 1909 His late Majesty King Edward VII did institute and create a new Medal to be entitled the Edward Medal:

And whereas by a Warrant dated 28th August 1917 the rules governing the award of the said Decoration were amended and the Royal Warrants relating to the Decoration were consolidated and it was ordained that the Medal should be styled "The Edward Medal" but that when awarded for acts of such great and exceptional gallantry as to merit a special degree of recognition it should be styled "The Edward Medal in Silver":

And whereas by Warrants dated 1st October 1930 and 1st March 1937 the said Warrant dated 28th August, 1917 was amended:

And whereas by Warrant dated 24th January 1969 We did ordain that every living recipient of the Edward Medal or the Edward Medal in Silver who falls to be in this matter a responsibility of the United Kingdom Government shall from the 14th November 1968 be entitled to a gratuity of one hundred pounds a year, for life:

And whereas We deem it expedient that there should be no further award of the Edward Medal or the Edward Medal in Silver, and that living persons who have been awarded the Edward Medal or the Edward Medal in Silver should for the future be treated and regarded as if they had been awarded the George Cross:

Now therefore We by these Presents are graciously pleased to ordain that with effect from the twenty-first day of October 1971

First, the Warrants herein before recited are hereby revoked; and

Secondly, every person living on that day who has been awarded the Edward Medal or the Edward Medal in Silver shall be deemed to be a person who has been awarded not that Medal but the George Cross; and

Thirdly, the actual medal used for the decoration of such a person may be delivered up to Our Secretary of State for the Home Department for exchange accordingly.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's the fifteenth day of December 1971 In the Twentieth Year of Our Reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,
R. Maudling.
