London S.W.1.
8th August 1972.

The QUEEN has been pleased to approve the award of the Colonial Police Medal for Gallantry to Police Inspector Robert James PATTERSON BURTON of the Royal Hong Kong Police Force.

On 30th April 1972, a private motor car, travelling from Kowloon to Tsuen Wan along Castle Peak Road, New Territories and containing one male adult, one boy and three girls skidded off the road, overturned, and burst into flames. Inspector Burton, who was off duty and nearby, rushed to render assistance. He ascertained that five persons in the car were trapped and unable to escape by their own efforts and were in great danger of being burnt to death. Due to body damage it proved impossible to open any of the doors to release the victims, but Inspector Burton was able to extricate two of the children through a broken window. He then attempted to extricate the driver who was trapped in the driving seat but intense heat prevented an approach from the off side of the vehicle. He requested the assistance of spectators to physically move the car in order to permit a rescue attempt from the near side. This attempt proved to be successful and the driver was removed to safety.

During the time Inspector Burton was engaged in rescue operations he was directly exposed to heat and flames and a real danger of explosion existed had the fire reached the vehicle fuel tank, shortly after the last person had been extricated the vehicle was completely engulfed in flames, and an explosion followed. Notwithstanding the danger and injuries received Inspector Burton persisted in his efforts to extricate the trapped passengers who would otherwise have succumbed to the heat and flames. All the occupants of the car survived the ordeal.
