TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1971

Durham County Council Wolviston—Designation of Conservation Area

Notice is hereby given that on 1st November 1972, the Durham County Council in pursuance of their powers under section 277 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971, designated as a Conservation Area that part of Wolviston described in the Schedule hereto.

Wolviston is of Saxon origin and was owned by the Priors of Durham until the Dissolution. It is a village of contrasts, the broad High Street with its tall buildings comparing with the smaller scale of Durham Road and Church Row, the open spaces of the Green and the Scotland Pond. The Durham (Teesside) Structure Plan proposes that the separate identity of Wolviston should be maintained by the maintenance of open spaces between it and the outward expansion of Teesside County Borough to the east, south and west. This should be a visual as well as a physical separation, and the Conservation Area boundary, in order to reinforce this policy, is drawn fairly widely and in relation to physical features which at present hide the village from surrounding development.

A plan showing the area designated has been placed on deposit at the offices of the Stockton Rural District Council, Cromer Lodge, Yarm Lane, Stockton-on-Tees, and at County Hall, Durham (Room 1/19), and may be inspected there during normal office hours.

SCHEDULE

The highway boundaries of Roads A.689 and A.19 to the north and east; the boundaries of new development and school playing fields to the south, continuing 350 metres (1,150 feet) east of Mill Lane; and thence parallel with electric pylons to Road A.689.

Dated 2nd November 1972.

DURHAM COUNTY COUNCIL

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1971

Piercebridge and Sadberge—Designation of Conservation Areas

Notice is hereby given that on 1st November 1972, the Durham County Council in pursuance of their powers under section 277 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, designated as Conservation Areas those parts of Piercebridge and Sadberge described in the Schedule hereto.

Piercebridge is remarkable in that it has never extended beyond the limits of the Roman fort whose site it occupies. The extensive earthworks of the fort are still clearly visible and have been partly excavated. The present village consists of a framework of one and two-storey buildings round a large rectangular tree-lined green. The buildings are mixed in style and date, stone and colour-washed properties with slate or pantile roofs, of the 18th and 19th centuries. Unique in the county because of its history and limited growth, the village is also extremely attractive in appearance. The area around the village has been scheduled as an Ancient Monument, and the boundary of the Conservation Area largely coincides with this except that it includes parts of the river banks, the land north of Road A.67, including the Wheatsheaf Inn, which is visually an essential part of the village.

Sadberge lies at a point where the Roman Road from Middleton One Row crosses a commanding east-west ridge and the steeply falling north green commands wide views over the open countryside. Predominantly the village is now 18th century and later, brick and colour-wash with pantiled roofs, and the main groups of listed buildings are the Town Farm and most of Chapel Row. The Conservation Area includes the green, the historic areas round the Church, the earthworks north of the village, and other open land necessary to safeguard the appearance of a ridge village in the landscape.

Plans showing the areas designated have been placed on deposit at the offices of the Darlington Rural District Council, "Craig Lea," Uplands Road, Darlington, and at County Hall, Durham (Room 1/19), and may be inspected there during normal office hours.

SCHEDULE

Piercebridge

The whole village and the area scheduled as an Ancient Monument, bounded on the south by the river, and on the north by the field boundary north of Road A.67.

Sadberge

The whole village between the east side of the reservoir to the west and the old Stockton Road to the south-east, the earthworks north of the village and open land adjoining it to the south.

Dated 2nd November 1972.

Witton-le-Wear—Designation of Conservation Area

Notice is hereby given that on 1st November 1972, the Durham County Council in pursuance of their powers under section 277 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, designated as a Conservation Area that part of Witton-le-Wear described in the Schedule hereto.

Witton-le-Wear is prominent for several miles across the Wear Valley, deriving its unique character from its site on a ledge above the river. The tree-lined green follows the natural slope so that it is possible to look out over the south side to Witton Castle beyond. The east end of the village is more urban in character, a series of narrow streets which are in danger of losing their character through demolition and alteration. There is some medieval work in the Church and in Witton Tower but mostly the houses are 18th and 19th century, stone built with slate or pantile roofs. The Conservation Area seeks to preserve the setting of the village in the landscape and includes land down to the river which is integral to the appearance and life of the village.

A plan showing the area designated has been placed on deposit at the offices of the Crook and Willington Urban District Council, "Glenholme," Crook, and at County Hall, Durham (Room 1/19), and may be inspected there during normal office hours.

SCHEDULE

The whole village between Road A.68 (but including Nos. 2-5 West End) to the west and the level crossing to the east, including land north of the church and Witton House and open areas to the south as far as the River Wear.

Dated 2nd November 1972.

Ryton—Designation of Conservation Area

Notice is hereby given that on 1st November 1972, the Durham County Council in pursuance of their powers under section 277 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, designated as a Conservation Area that part of Ryton described in the Schedule hereto.

Ryton is set on high wooded land sloping northwards to the River Tyne. It was recorded in Norman times and the manor and common land rights were held by the Bishops of Durham. The outstanding buildings are the 13th century Church and 18th century Rectory which stand secluded from the triangular village green occupying the head of a wooded valley. The combination of trees, levels and buildings composes a village of great character. The Conservation Area includes the Church, Rectory, village green and woods to the north of them, and the main approach roads.

A plan showing the area designated has been placed on deposit at the offices of the Ryton Urban District Council, The Tower, Ryton, and at County Hall, Durham (Room 1/19), and may be inspected there during normal office hours.

SCHEDULE

The village and woodland bounded by River Lane and the railway; the area between Whitewell Lane (including South Grange and frontages west of the lane) and Holburn Lane, including Park Farm to the east; Barmoor Lane north from St. Mary's Terrace and south to Main Road as far as Westwood.

Notice is hereby given that on 1st November 1972, the Durham County Council in pursuance of their powers under section 277 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971, designated as a Conservation Area that part of Whorlton described in the Schedule hereto.

Whorlton is an ancient and attractive village centred on a largely open, triangular green, lying within a designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty high above a stretch of the River Tees. The village is largely enclosed by woodland, which provides both a backcloth and a contrast between the narrow approaches and the open green. Some twenty-five buildings of the late 18th and early 19th centuries are listed, of which the early suspension bridge of 1829 is particularly important.

A plan showing the area designated has been placed on deposit at the offices of the Barnard Castle Rural District Council, 43 Galgate, Barnard Castle, and at County Hall, Durham (Room 1/19), and may be inspected there during normal office hours.

SCHEDULE

The area comprising the village and the river banks and woodlands to the north and east of Whorlton Beck and surrounding Whorlton Grange.

In the Middlesex Commission Area of Greater London Petty Sessional Division of Uxbridge

To: Mr. Attollah Faridian Aragh and Mrs. Sedigheh Faridian Aragh.

Of: 26 Leila Street, Roosevelt Avenue, Teheran, Iran. Complaint has this day been made to me, the undersigned Clerk to the Justices of Uxbridge by Philip Arthur Bates, one of Her Majesty's Officers of Customs and Excise and states that:

1. On the 18th day of April 1972 at London (Heathrow) Airport

(a) you both arrived at the said airport intending to embark for Hamburg;

(b) at the Customs outward control Terminal 1, an officer of Customs and Excise spoke to you and asked you how much sterling currency you were carrying. You, Mr. Aragh, then produced £9 from your wallet and you, Mrs. Aragh, produced £12 from your handbag. You were asked if you had any more sterling currency but replied that you had not;

(c) Your, Mrs. Aragh's, handbag was then searched and the following currency notes were found:

£310 sterling.
10,750 French francs.
7,100 German deutschmarks.

You, Mr. Aragh, then informed the officer that this money had been brought from Iran and drew his attention to a note in your passport;

(d) you, Mr. Aragh, were then asked if you had any more money and you produced from your inside jacket pocket an envelope containing £600 sterling and 11,000 French francs and also a wallet containing 72,000 Italian lira, 300 German deutschmarks and 10,000 deutschmarks in travellers' cheques. You stated that all of this had been given to you by your brother, Dr. Parviz Faridian, in this country;

(e) both your persons were then searched but no further monies were found;

(f) the total sterling value of the monies and travellers' cheques in your possession was £4,915, of which £3,368 was in various sterling and foreign currency bank notes and £1,247 in deutschmarks travellers' cheques;

(g) you, Mr. Aragh, stated that you had received £3,000 of this money from your brother Dr. Parviz Faridian as your share of an inheritance and that you had brought £1,000 sterling travellers' cheques and 10,000 deutschmark travellers' cheques with you from Iran;

(h) you, Mr. Aragh, also stated that you were a director of the Central Bank of Iran but you were not aware of any currency restrictions as you did not work on that matter;

(i) a note was subsequently received from the bank Meili, Iran, dated 24th April 1972 stating that you, Mr. Aragh, had received £1,000 sterling travellers' cheques and 10,000 deutschmarks travellers' cheques for the purpose of your visit to the United Kingdom;

(j) £51 sterling, 72,000 Italian lira and 4,650 deutschmarks were returned to you both as your currency allowance under the Exchange Control (Import and Export) Order 1966 and the 10,000 deutschmark travellers' cheques were returned as having been in your possession on your arrival in this country.

2. The said goods, to wit £980 sterling, 2,750 deutschmarks and 21,750 French francs are liable to forfeiture on the grounds that:

(a) you on 18th April 1972 failed to comply with section 22 of the Exchange Control Act 1947 by which the exportation from the United Kingdom of United Kingdom currency notes is prohibited except with the permission of the Treasury and no such permission had been given to you;

(b) you on the date aforesaid made statements in answer to questions put to you by an officer of Customs and Excise (which questions you were required to answer by virtue of the provisions of section 6 of the Finance Act 1968) and that these statements, which were made for the purpose of a matter relating to customs, were untrue in a material particular as is alleged in the facts stated in paragraph 1 (a) and it is alleged that the above act constituted an offence which was committed knowingly or in the alternative recklessly as is shown by the facts stated in paragraphs 1 (c) and 1 (d) above;

(c) you failed to comply with section 56 of the Customs and Excise Act 1952 in that you were the intended exporters of the goods, to wit £980 sterling, 2,750 deutschmarks and 21,750 French francs which you brought to London (Heathrow) Airport aforesaid for the purpose of being exported contrary to the prohibition on exportation imposed by section 22 (1) of the Exchange Control Act 1947;

(d) you did not comply with the provisions of section 6 of the Finance Act 1968 in that you being persons leaving the United Kingdom did not declare £980 sterling, 2,750 deutschmarks and 21,750 French francs which you were taking out of the United Kingdom contrary to the prohibition imposed by section 22 (1) of the Exchange Control Act 1947.

3. On the said date, 18th April 1972, the said goods, to wit £980 sterling, 2,750 deutschmarks and 21,750 French francs were seized as liable to forfeiture under sections 56 and 301 of the Customs and Excise Act 1952 and also under section 6 of the Finance Act 1968.

4. On 27th April 1972, you, through your Solicitors, Max Bitel, Greene & Co. of Gamage Building,

Holborn, London, E.C.1, gave notice of claim that the said goods were not liable to forfeiture.

5. On 13th October 1972, Max Bitel, Greene & Co. gave notice that they were unable to obtain instructions from you and were unable to accept service of proceedings on your behalf.
6. The said Commissioners of Customs and Excise have ordered proceedings for condemnation of the said goods pursuant to section 275 of and the 7th Schedule to the Customs and Excise Act 1952.

You are therefore summoned to appear on Thursday, 30th November 1972, at 10 in the forenoon before the Magistrates' Court sitting at the Court House, Harefield Road, Uxbridge, Middlesex, to show cause why the said goods should not be condemned as forfeited.

Dated the 6th November 1972.

Laurance H. Crossley, Clerk to the Justices,
Uxbridge. (731)
