FACTORIES ACT 1961

The Secretary of State for Employment hereby gives notice that on 9th January 1973 he made the Abstract of Special Regulations (Pottery—Health and Welfare) Order 1973.

This Order prescribes the forms of abstract of the Pottery (Health and Welfare) Special Regulations 1950, for posting in pursuance of section 139 (1) of the Factories Act 1961, in certain factories in which sanitary fireclay ware is manufactured and in certain other pottery factories in which only leadless glaze is used.

The forms of abstract prescribed by this Order supersede the forms prescribed by Orders of the Minister of Labour and National Service dated 11th October 1950 and 3rd January 1951, which are revoked.

DIRECTORATE OF OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH

The Secretary of State for Employment hereby gives notice that on 9th January 1973, he made the Employment Medical Advisory Service (Factories Act Orders etc. Amendment) Order 1973.

Purpose of the Order

The Order amends certain Regulations made under the Factories Act 1961, which are listed in the Schedule to the Order, and which require medical examination of persons employed on processes subject to the Regulations. The amendments are required as a consequence of the Employment Medical Advisory Service Act 1972, and the Order is to come into force on the same day as that Act, i.e. 1st February 1973.

The Order provides that the medical examinations of persons employed in processes subject to the Regulations specified and other related functions, shall after the establishment of the Employment Medical Advisory Service, be performed by doctors appointed in accordance with the Employment Medical Advisory Service Act.

The Order also changes the procedure by which the employment of any person in certain processes mentioned in the Regulations specified may be prohibited where the doctor examining that person is of the opinion that the continued employment of that person in that process would involve special danger to his health.
