

PRIVY COUNCIL OFFICE

At the Court at Buckingham Palace the 25th day of January 1974

Present,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by the Burial Act 1855 (1855 c. 128) it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the 19th day of October 1970, (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Order") directing the discontinuance of burials, in Yalding Old Churchyard, in the County of Kent:

And whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the principal Order should be varied:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. The principal Order shall have effect subject to the following exception or qualification, viz.:

That notwithstanding anything in the said Order the burial may be allowed in the said Churchyard, in the existing family grave, of the body of the late Miss Amy Bennett, provided that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

2. The Interpretation Act 1889 (1889 c. 63) shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.
