At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of March 1974.

Present,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by the Burial Act 1855 (1855 c. 128), it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the 9th day of October 1956 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Order") directing the discontinuance of burials in the Churchyard of the Ilton Church, Ilminster, in the County of Somerset:

And whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the principal Order should be varied:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. The principal Order shall have effect subject to the following exception or qualification, viz:

That, notwithstanding anything in the said Order, in a single earthen grave four feet six inches deep, in a part of the said Churchyard in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed at his decease of the body of Mr. Ronald Charles Davey, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

2. The Interpretation Act 1889 (1889 c. 63), shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. This Order may be cited as the Burial Grounds (Ilton) (Variation) Order 1974.
