THE DOCKS AND HARBOURS ACT 1966 (MODIFICATION) REGULATIONS 1974

The Secretary of State for Employment hereby gives notice that on 1st November 1974 he made the Docks and Harbours Act 1966 (Modification) Regulations 1974, coming into operation 1st January 1975, under powers contained in the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974.

Part II of the Docks and Harbours Act 1966 provides for the making of welfare amenity schemes for the ports specified in Schedule 1 to that Act and gives to factory inspectors powers for enforcing the requirements of the schemes.

Objections and appeals may be made to the Secretary of State before schemes are approved or amended and the procedure to be followed in connection with inquiries held into such objections and appeals is set out in the Ports Welfare Amenities (Inquiries Procedure) Regulations 1968 which give to the Chief Inspector of Factories the right to be heard and represented at those inquiries.

On the establishment, on 1st January 1975, of the Health and Safety Executive inspectors of factories will become inspectors appointed by the Executive. These Regulations make the necessary consequential modifications to provisions of the Docks and Harbours Act 1966 and of the Ports Welfare Amenities (Inquiries Procedure) Regulations 1968.

THE RADIOACTIVE SUBSTANCES ACT 1948 (MODIFICATION) REGULATIONS 1974

The Secretary of State for Employment hereby gives notice that on 1st November 1974 he made the Radioactive Substances Act 1948 (Modification) Regulations 1974 coming into operation 1st January 1975 under powers contained in the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974.

Section 5 of the Radioactive Substances Act 1948 enables regulations to be made by the appropriate Minister as respects premises or places in which radioactive substances are manufactured, produced, treated, stored or used or irradiating apparatus is used, for the purpose among others of preventing injury being caused by ionising radiations to the health of persons employed at those premises or places or other persons. Power to make regulations for that purpose is now included in the powers contained in section 15 of the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974. These Regulations therefore modify section 5 of the 1948 Act so that, in its application to Great Britain, it no longer contains the power to make regulations for that purpose, and in consequence three Orders-in-Council which make the Secretary of State for Employment the appropriate Minister for the purpose of making regulations under that section in specified cases are revoked.
