Notice is hereby given that the Greater London Council on 25th November 1974, made the above-mentioned Order under section 6 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1967, as amended by Part IX of the Transport Act 1968.

The effect of the Order will be to prohibit a vehicle being driven into an area marked by a traffic sign consisting of cross-hatched yellow lines bounded by a yellow line placed on the carriageway of Borough High Street or adjacent to its junction with London Bridge Street or Southwark Street and thereafter driven in such a direction that it becomes necessary, owing to the presence of one or more other vehicles in or near to that area, for any part of the vehicle to remain at rest within the area; provided that no driver of a vehicle which is caused to remain at rest within the area shall be guilty of an offence if at the time he drove into that area he had reasonable cause to believe that he would immediately thereafter be able to drive the vehicle wholly out of the area.

The prohibition referred to above will not apply:

(a) so as to prohibit the driving of a vehicle into such an area by a person who thereafter drives it to a position where he can conveniently wait to make a right turn, and which right turn is not prohibited by any enactment, and who is then prevented from driving out of the area by reason only of the presence of one or more other vehicles in or near the area waiting to complete such a right turn; or
