

had reinforced the
n, and ordered the
march on the first

received, sign'd B. S.
ed to Mr. Burchett,
of the Admiralty,
their Lordships as
ho sent the said Les-
Office, or elsewhere,
enable their Lord-
s for the future, be Encouragement.

onth of December,
of Geography, Ancient
e in bleau, Varenus, on, &c. With all the
with ab ut 200 curious
nson's Tables and Curr, eography and History of e Map of Old and New
in the Savoy; and Sold H. Clements, A. Bell,
tationers-Hall. Where s, each.

wes, of Portsea in the Eloped from her said
s not to Trust the said not pay any Debts she

ate of Sir Phillip Mo-
die County of Bedford, h Court of Chancery to one of the Masters of where Particulars may

Mr. Tho. Fulkingham,
lane, Lombard-street,
the 28th of December
Years of Age; low of natural Wig; Whosoere he is, or has been ceive two Guineas Re-

ptember last, two Tal-struck in the Name of oo l. each: Whoever on, Goldsmiths, at the Reward, they being

h Instant in a Hackney
e Temple, a Pocket-
, &c. of no Use to ame to Mr. Nathaniel in Thames-street, shall

h been awarded against ster, Merchant, and he himself to the Commissioners will meet
's Head in Northgate-24th and 31st of this y next, at nine in the which Sittings the said
at the second of the said prove their Debts, per ees.

Bankrupt awarded a-
the County of Devon, bruary next, at 3 in the d where the Creditors and pay their Contri-
M. S. that have
and bound to
of Cornhill, Linen-
lane, Merchant, Al-
be sued.

London, Merchant, hath vice) and been twice
will attend the Comin the Affirmation, at the
with his Examination;
prepared to prove their
to or different from the Commission of Bank-of Walsingham in fied to the Rt. Honour-tain, that he hath in all Directions of the late

These are to give No-
the said Act direct-
before the 9th of Fe-

The London Gazette.

Printed 400

Published by Authority.

From Thursday January 19. to Saturday January 21. 1709.

St. James's, January 19.

THE humble Address of the Shire of Mid-Lothian, was presented to Her Majesty by George Lockhart, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Hamilton.

Which Address Her Majesty received very graciously.

Vimna, January 14. N. S. This Court hath taken a Resolution to augment the number of their Troops, and make the most vigorous Efforts against France the ensuing Campaign, in concert with the Measures of her Britannick Majesty and the States-General. Early Reinforcements are to be sent to join the Imperial Army on the Upper Rhine; and it is said that Prince Eugene will visit the several Courts of the Princes of the Empire, in order to excite them to the same Vigour in their Proceedings, and to engage them to take such speedy and effectual Measures as may frustrate the Enemy's Designs of penetrating into the Empire; and also to prosecute the War upon the Rhine with a greater Force. His Imperial Majesty hath writ a Letter to his Electoral Highness of Hanover, desiring him to continue in the Command of the Army of the Empire, with assurances of his utmost assistance, and endeavours to procure such timely Succours from the respective Princes of the Empire, as shall enable him to act offensively against the Common Enemy. In the mean time the Recruits and new Levies are carried on throughout his Imperial Majesty's Hereditary Dominions with very good Success; and it is hoped, that all the Regiments will be completed by the middle of March. The Affairs of Hungary afford us a hopeful Prospect of the speedy Conclusion of that War; all that part of the Kingdom which is situated on this side the Danube is reduced to his Imperial Majesty; and the Garrison of Neuhauzel is so strictly blocked up, and suffers so very much for want of necessary Provisions, that it is believed it will be obliged to surrender before the next Campaign. General Heister hath been so successful in this War, that it is not doubted but he will be continued in the Command of the Army in Hungary. However there are frequent Complaints of that General's Severities to the Protestants of that Kingdom. Yesterday the Baggage, and part of the Equipage of the Prince of Lorraine set out for Presburg; to which Place he designs to follow the same speedily in Person, accompanied by Adam Prince of Lichtenstein and Count Thau, who are to assist at the approaching Diet, as his Imperial Majesty's Commissioners. Monseigneur Albani, the Pope's Nephew, is set out for Dresden, somewhat dissatisfied that this Court would not yield up Commachio to the Holy See, and has expressed some Resentment of the particular Regard which his Imperial Majesty bears to the Interests of the Duke of Modena. The Pope hath nominated Monseigneur Piazza to be his Nuncio to this Court; and his Imperial Majesty, and all the Foreign Ministers, have received him accordingly. There are certain Advices that the King of Sweden was lately at Bender; but the determinations of the Ottoman Port concerning that Prince are very uncertain. The Muscovite Ambassador at Constantinople hath written to his Czarish Majesty's Minister here, that he had concluded a Truce between the Czar and the Grand Signior for twenty five Years longer; that he had promised, in his Master's Name, that the new Fortresses which are erected at the Mouth of the Tanaïs should be demolished, because they gave Umbrage to the Turks; and that all other Differences were composed between the Turkish and Russian Empires. The Swedes give very different Relations of those Proceedings, and report, that the Grand Signior had offered his Swedish Majesty to secure his Retreat into Sweden, or mediate his Peace with the Czar. They also add, that the Grand Signior had deposed and imprisoned the Prince of Moldavia, for giving Intelligence to the Muscovites of the March of a Party of Swedes, by which Means they were surprized and cut to pieces; and that the Turkish and Russian Troops are advancing towards the Frontiers.

Brussels, January 27. N. S. On the 25th Instant Lieutenant-General Cadogan set out for the Hague, from whence he is expected to return the latter end of this Month. On the 17th Count Bergeick arrived at Compiegne, and having had a long Conference with the Duke of Bavaria he set out the next Day for Cambray, proceeded from that Place to Maubeuge, and from thence to Namur, where he arrived on the twenty second Instant. We hear that the French Court hath enabled him to pay some Part of the Arrears due to the Spanish and Walloon Troops in Flanders, but hath established such inconsiderable Funds for their further Subsistence, that it is resolved to break twelve Battalions and as many Squadrons, and incorporate the Soldiers into other Regiments, and send the Officers into Spain. We are advised from the Frontiers, that the Enemy have marked out a new Line near Maubeuge, which is to begin between the Wood of Tillieu and Omont, and be extended as far as Avesnes. On the 20th of this Month Gaetano's Regiment of Horse left Maubeuge, in order to march into Spain; but they are in such want of Money for their Journey, that it is believed the Soldiers will be reduced to extreme Necessities, and the Officers have taken up Money on their Bills of Forage at a Discount of thirty Pound in the Hundred.

Hague, January 28. N. S. The States of Holland were separated last Saturday, and are to be reassembled within fifteen Days. They have taken a Resolution to borrow two Millions of Florins to supply the present Necessities. On the 26th Instant Lieutenant-General Cadogan came to this Place, and will return to Brussels within three Days; he hath been present at several Conferences with the Council of State since his Arrival. To Morrow my Lord Albemarle designs to set out for Tournay. Letters from the Frontiers say, that the Duke of Bavaria continued at Compiegne, and that it was uncertain when he would set out for Namur. Count Bergeick is arrived at Namur, and hath brought Orders for several Regiments of Walloons to march towards Spain the beginning of next Month. The Inundation occasioned by shutting the Sluices of Tournay hath not as yet obliged the Enemy to quit Conde, as they have already done St. Amand and Mortagne. Letters from Paris confirm the Difficulties that Court labours under in raising Money; several Projects have been found impracticable, and most of the Parliaments of France have given in their Remonstrances, expressing their Inability to provide the Sums that are demanded of them. Advices from Constantinople, of the 1st of this Month, say, that the Ottoman Port had countermanded all the Orders that were given for laying in Warlike Stores, and making any other Military Preparations.

Whitehaven, January 16. About twenty Sail of laden Colliers be ready to Sail with the first opportunity to Dublin.

Falmouth,