DEPARTMENT OF EMPLOYMENT

INCOME FROM EMPLOYMENT AND SELF EMPLOYMENT AT THE HIGHER LEVELS

The Royal Commission on the Distribution of Income and Wealth (Chairman, Lord Diamond) has been asked to analyse the present position and past trends in the levels and distribution of all forms of income from employment and self employment at the higher levels (exceeding say £10,000 a year before tax), and to examine the economic and social reasons for such incomes in relation to others.

The Commission is, accordingly, seeking evidence on these matters. The economic and social reasons for the levels and distribution of higher level incomes might include, for example, the degrees of personal responsibility and risk; the qualifications, experience, ability and individual effort required; the international as well as the domestic market for certain occupations; and other relevant factors.

The Commission has been asked to include in its analyses all forms of monetary and non monetary benefits, director's fees, remuneration for part time employment at comparable rates and returns on personal investment insofar as these can be regarded as a form of remuneration arising from employment or self employment.

Evidence should be submitted, if only in outline, by 1st April 1975. The Commission is bound by the terms of the Royal Warrant to maintain strict confidentiality about personal information to which it has access. Those wishing to submit evidence should obtain further information about the scope of the reference from the Secretary, Royal Commission on the Distribution of Income and Wealth, Neville House, Page Street, London, SW1P 4LS.
