

The pension of an Officer's widow who remarries shall be suspended from the date following that of her remarriage, but in the event of her again becoming a widow her pension may be restored in whole or in part at the discretion of the Defence Council for such time as she remains a widow, provided that she is otherwise qualified and that her pecuniary circumstances are such as in the opinion of the Defence Council justify the award. Should she become eligible by remarriage for a pension at a different rate, she may be awarded that which is more to her advantage.

16. Children

(a) A "child" for the purposes of the award of a pension under this Schedule means:

- (1) a legitimate child of the Officer, R.N. rating or R.M. other rank; or
- (2) a step-child of the Officer, R.N. rating or R.M. other rank who was mainly dependent on him at the time of his death; or
- (3) a child adopted by the Officer, R.N. rating or R.M. other rank; or
- (4) an illegitimate child of the Officer, R.N. rating or R.M. other rank, born before or within nine months after the date on which he sustained the wound or injury, or the date on which he was removed from duty on account of the disease in respect of which his disablement pension was granted, and who was regularly maintained by the Officer, rating or other rank up to the date of his death, or who was the subject of an affiliation order which was in force at the date of his death.

(b) A child's pension will normally cease when the child attains the age of 18 years in the case of the child of an Officer or a Regimental Sergeant Major, Royal Marines, or the age of 16 years in the case of all other ratings and ranks, but may be granted or continued after those ages:

- (1) if the child continues to receive full-time education, or is an apprentice not receiving more than nominal wages; or
- (2) if, before attaining the age referred to above the child was, and continues to be afflicted by mental or bodily infirmity and is therefore incapable of earning his, or her own living, provided the Defence Council considers that the pecuniary circumstances of the child and family are such as to justify the award.

(c) Children's pensions will be paid to the widow or mother of the child, or other person responsible for the child's maintenance, or to the child direct as may be decided by the Defence Council.

(d) Pensions of children of Officers and of Regimental Sergeant Majors, Royal Marines, may be issued quarterly in advance.

(e) Children's allowances will not be payable for any period during which the children are maintained in the Royal Navy, the Army or the Royal Air Force.
