

STATE OF VICTORIA

James Joseph AHERN of Parkdale. For services to racing.

Reginald Samuel AMIES of Aspendale. For services to limbless soldiers.

Ernest Frederick BARKER of Hallam. For equestrian activities.

Vida Winifred, Mrs. BLOCK of Preston. For services to the community.

Myrtle Rubena, Mrs. BOWRAN of Wodonga. For services to the community.

Leslie BOYD of Geelong. For services to ex-servicemen.

Miss (Sister) Mary COLE of Glen Trio. For services to nursing.

John Thomas COONEY of Werribee. For services to the community.

Percival Vivian CURRIE of Yinnar. For services to the community.

Wilson Percy EVANS of Williamstown. For historical research.

Frederick Steel McNeil FERGUSON of Bendigo. For services to Legacy.

Vera Bilton, Mrs. FYFE of Caulfield. For services to the community.

John Edward GREEN of Ringwood. For services to rural industry.

Matthew HARRIS of West Footscray. For municipal and community services.

James Harper HARVEY of Walwa. For municipal and community services.

William Neate HOSKIN of East Bentleigh. For public service.

William Henry JENKIN of Portland. For services to the community.

Thomas Robert JONES of Hampton. For services to scouting and the community.

May Evelyn, Mrs. LAY of Newlyn. For services to the Returned Services League and the community.

Fraser Charles LEYSHAN of Heyfield. For services to the community.

Nora Marjorie, Mrs. McLEOD of Fitzroy. For services to the arts.

Aubrey Richard MAY of Canterbury. For services to ex-servicemen.

William Francis MIDDLETON of Merbein West. For services to education.

Miss Margaret Isabella MORRISON of Essendon. For services to the community.

Ethel May, Mrs. OATES of Balwyn. For services to the Embroiderers' Guild of Victoria.

The Reverend Walter Herbert PAECH of Camberwell. For services to the Lutheran Church and the community.

Edith Rose, Mrs. PEATLING of Cohuna. For services to the community particularly Guiding.

John RUSH of Mount Eliza. For services to education.

Miss Jean Lena SANGER of Wangaratta. For services to the community.

Hector STEWART of Woods Point. For services to the community.

Fairlie, Mrs. TAYLOR of Cheltenham. For services to education.

Myra, Mrs. WARWICK of Healesville. For services to the community.

William John WEBB of Campbell's Creek. For services to firefighting.

John Herbert WEILANDT of Talbot. For services to the community.

Miss Marie WHITFIELD of Creswick. For services to the community.

Lilian Kate, Mrs. WILDEN of Beaumaris. For services to the community.

STATE OF QUEENSLAND

Frank DARVENIZA of South Johnstone. For services to the community.

George Imeson HORNSBY of Ferny Grove. For services to sport.

Vincent Frederick LAW, Senior, of Cherbourg. For services to the Aboriginal community.

Jean Lawson, Mrs. OAKDEN of Kenmore. For services for the betterment of deaf children.

Myra Pearl, Mrs. TRANBERG of Wavell Heights. For services to child welfare.

Miss Myrtle Mildener WEIDEMANN of Laidley. For services to the community through nursing.

STATE OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA

Miss Esther May FARR Matron, Kojonup District Hospital.

William Henry GRANT of Como. State President of the Partially Blinded Soldiers Association.

Reginald George GRIGG of Rockingham. For services to the community.

Mary Constance, Mrs. HODGKIN of Mosman Park. For services to Girl Guide movement and overseas students.

Harold Edward LAMBERT of Wembley Downs. For services to infant health and children.

Miss Eileen Cecilia MURNANE (Sister Mary Ignatius) of Broome. For services to teaching and the community.

Charles Thomas PEGLER of Subiaco. For services to cricket.

John Ernest WATSON, M.M. of Greenmount. For services to the community.

Irene May, Mrs. WEEDEN of Nedlands. For services to the community.

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

WHITEHALL, LONDON S.W.1

12th June 1976

THE QUEEN has been graciously pleased, on the occasion of the Celebration of Her Majesty's Birthday, to give orders for the following appointments to the Royal Red Cross:

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE (NAVY DEPARTMENT)

A.R.R.C.

To be an Ordinary Associate of the Royal Red Cross, Second Class :

Miss Pamela Margaret GRAYSTONE, Superintending Sister, Queen Alexandra's Royal Naval Nursing Service.

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE (ARMY DEPARTMENT)

R.R.C.

To be an Ordinary Member of the Royal Red Cross, First Class :

Lieutenant-Colonel Myrtle CHAMBERLAIN (424156), Queen Alexandra's Royal Army Nursing Corps.