HONOURS AND AWARDS

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD

St. James's Palace, London S.W.1.

10th August 1976.

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased, on the advice Her Majesty's Australian Ministers, to approve the award of the Queen's Gallantry Medal to the undermentioned:

(To be dated 7th August 1976)

Sergeant Second Class Selwyn Ronald BICK, Queensland Police Force.

At 7.20 a.m. on 12th October 1974, police were called to a property at Felton East, near Cambooya, Queensland, where a man carrying a '22 rifle was attempting to abduct a young girl.

Sergeant 2/c Bick, one of the three members of the Queensland Police Force who answered the call, unhesitatingly approached the man, took the rifle from him and, after a struggle, freed the girl, overpowered the man and arrested him.

Sergeant Bick displayed a very high sense of duty without regard for his own safety.

Douglas Frederick CAMPBELL.

On the afternoon of 21st March 1975, Douglas Frederick Campbell was informed that a man was running down Currie Street, Nambour, Queensland, firing a revolver. Campbell ran down the street, confronted the armed man and successfully disarmed him of the revolver and a hand-saw with which the offender had attacked him. The man had, immediately prior to these events, shot and killed a person in Currie Street and fired other shots at random. The intervention by Douglas Frederick Campbell without regard for his own safety displayed outstanding bravery.
