HONOURS AND AWARDS

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD

St. James's Palace, London S.W.1.
12th October 1976.

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased, on the advice of Her Majesty's Australian Ministers, to approve the award of the Queen's Gallantry Medal to the undermentioned:

(To be dated 2nd October 1976)

James Patrick BIRMINGHAM, Constable, Queensland Police Force.

David William POTTER, Constable, Queensland Police Force.

On the night of 2nd January 1976, police were called to an address in Brisbane where a drunken man armed with a rifle had gone berserk and attempted to kill a woman.

The gunman fled from the house and continued his rampage, firing numerous shots at the police.

Constable Birmingham and Constable Potter were told by police radio of the man's route and took up positions awaiting his arrival. As the armed man approached, the Constables unhesitatingly challenged him and the gunman then fired a number of shots in the officers' direction. As a last resort to protect their lives, Constable Birmingham, with the aid of the unarmed Constable Potter who shone a spotlight at the offender, fired three rounds at the gunman who was wounded by one of the shots and collapsed to the ground. He was then quickly overpowered and taken into custody.

Constable Birmingham and Constable Potter displayed gallantry of a high order and devotion to duty when without regard for their personal safety and from very little cover they unhesitatingly confronted this armed and dangerous man.
