SCHEDULE

SECTION I

Invaliding Awards

1. The provisions of this Section shall apply to members of the Royal Naval Reserve, the Royal Marines Reserve, the Women's Royal Naval Reserve and Queen Alexandra's Royal Naval Nursing Service Reserve. They also apply to members of University RN Units who join as Honorary Midshipmen RNR. They do not apply to Combined Cadet Forces Officers or to Sea Cadet Corps Officer and Rating Instructors, other than those who are members of a Reserve Force specified above and who are injured whilst undergoing peacetime training with the Armed Forces in accordance with paragraph 2 below.

2. (a) A member of any of the Reserve Forces specified in paragraph 1, who is invalided from that reserve with a degree of disability assessed at 20 per cent. or more, may be awarded a disability pension at the rates shown in paragraph 3 below provided that such disability is accepted by the Department of Health and Social Security as being attributable to or aggravated by peacetime reserve service.

(b) "Peacetime service" denotes any period of duty or training with the Armed Forces (including any duly authorised period of unpaid training) other than service which is given at a time of general mobilisation or imminent national danger or emergency to which sub-paragraph 2(d) below applies.

(c) For the purpose of sub-paragraph 2(b) above a certificate signed by the Commanding Officer or other competent authority shall be deemed conclusive as to whether a period of unpaid training may be regarded as having been duly authorised.

(d) For the purposes of sub-paragraph 2(b) above a period of imminent national danger or emergency (not being a period of general mobilisation) shall be a period certified as such by the Secretary of State for Defence in consultation with the Minister for the Civil Service.

3. Annual Rates of pension for those invalidated on or after 1st April 1974 are as follows:—

Per cent. degree of disability	With effect from
	1st April 1974	1st December 1974	1st December 1975	1st December 1976
20- 40 ... ..	£218·60	£254·67	£321·14	£365·46
50- 70 ... ..	£327·90	£382·00	£481·70	£548·17
80-100 ... ..	£437·20	£509·34	£642·28	£730·91

4. The rates of benefit to be paid and awards in issue will be revised to include the standard rate of Pensions Increase at the time and from the same date as those approved for the Armed Forces but without regard to the age of the beneficiary.

5. Should the degree of disability increase at any time the rate of attributable pension will be reviewed. If the degree of disability decreases, however, the rate of pension will only be reviewed during the 12 months immediately following invaliding unless the degree of disability falls below 20 per cent. when the pension will at any time cease to be payable.

6. If a wound or injury is due to a member's misconduct or negligence the Secretary of State for Defence may withhold or abate any pension otherwise payable under the terms of this section by such amount as seems to him appropriate having regard to all the circumstances.

7. A pension awarded under this Section will not be subject to abatement in respect of any Department of Health and Social Security award which may be in payment or payable. It will, however, be abated by the value of any Service Retired Pay or Pension to which there is a present entitlement and also by the value of any Preserved Pension if and when such a pension becomes payable.

8. (a) If a member of the Reserve Forces who is granted an award under the terms of this Section recovers any compensation in respect of the injury or disease which led to his being invalidated (other than compensation to which paragraph 7 above applies) then the Secretary of State for Defence may abate any such award by such amount as he considers appropriate having regard to all the circumstances.

(b) Where a member of the Reserve Forces has already received compensation in respect of the injury or disease which resulted in his being invalidated under the Criminal Injuries to Persons (Compensation) Act (Northern Ireland) 1968, then any award admissible under the terms of this Section shall be abated by half the annuitized value of such compensation.

9. In exceptional circumstances, the Secretary of State for Defence may divert a pension awarded under this Section, in whole or in part, for purposes which he may deem beneficial for the pensioner.

SECTION II

Dependants' Benefits

10. The provisions of this Section shall apply to the widows and children of members of the Royal Naval Reserve and Royal Marines Reserve:

(a) Who are killed on or after 1st April 1974 whilst undergoing peacetime training, due to causes accepted as attributable to service by the Department of Health and Social Security; or

(b) Who die whilst in receipt of a pension granted in accordance with Section 1 of this Schedule, due to causes accepted by the Department of Health and Social Security as attributable to the injury or disease which resulted in their originally being invalidated from the Reserve.

They do not apply to the widows and children of Combined Cadet Force Officers or Sea Cadet Corps Officers or Rating Instructors, other than those specified in paragraph 1 of Section I.

11. If, after his discharge, a reservist dies as a result of an injury or disease accepted by the Department of Health and Social Security as attributable to his peacetime service with a reserve force specified in paragraph 10 above but is not in receipt of an attributable pension in respect of that injury or disease, then the award and amount of any pension granted to his dependants shall be at the discretion of the Secretary of State for Defence.

12. For the purposes of this Section "peacetime service" shall have the meaning ascribed to it in sub-paragraphs (b) to (d) of paragraph 2 of this Schedule.

General Conditions

13. If the death of a reservist was due wholly or in part to his own negligence or misconduct or to any cause within his own control the award and amount of any pension payable to his dependants shall be at the discretion of the Secretary of State for Defence.

14. Where an award has already been made to the dependants of a reservist under the terms of the Criminal Injuries to Persons (Compensation) Act (Northern Ireland) 1968 then any award admissible under the terms of this Section in respect of the same injury or disease shall be abated by £150.

15. An award under this Section shall be abated by the full amount of any Forces Family pension to which the recipient is entitled. It may also be abated, at the discretion of the Secretary of State for Defence, to take account of any other compensation awards because of the attributable death.

16. Paragraph 4 of this Schedule shall also apply to dependants' benefits.

Conditions Relating to Marriage

17. To be eligible for a pension a widow must have been married to the deceased reservist before his discharge from the Reserve. If the death of the reservist occurred within a year of his marriage the Secretary of State for Defence may reduce or withhold the amount of any award otherwise admissible.

Effect of Separation on Widow's Pension and Gratuity

18. (a) An award of pension to a widow who is separated from her husband at the date of his death shall be at the discretion of the Secretary of State for Defence who may withhold all or such a proportion of the pension as seems appropriate to him in all the circumstances.

(b) If it is shown to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State for Defence that a widow is living with a man as his wife she will not be eligible for a pension.

Remarriage

19. The pension of a widow who remarries will cease, but if she again becomes a widow her pension may be restored in whole or part at the discretion of the Secretary of State for Defence.

Conditions for the Award of Children's Pensions

20. A "child" for the purposes of the award of a pension under this Section means:

(a) a legitimate child of the reservist provided that the child's mother fulfilled the conditions relating to marriage contained in paragraph 17 of this Schedule; or

(b) a step-child of the reservist who was mainly dependent upon him at the time of his death, provided that the child's mother fulfilled the conditions relating to marriage contained in paragraph 17 of this Schedule; or

(c) a child adopted by the reservist or by his wife, before his discharge, who was mainly dependent upon him at the time of his death, and provided that the child's mother by adoption fulfilled the conditions relating to marriage contained in paragraph 17 of this Schedule; or

(d) a child mainly dependent upon the reservist before his discharge who was adopted by him or by his wife after his discharge, provided that the Secretary of State for Defence is satisfied that the reservist had formed the intention of adopting the child before his discharge and that the child was mainly dependent upon him at the time of his death, and provided that the child's mother by adoption fulfilled the conditions relating to marriage contained in paragraph 17 of this Schedule; or

(e) an illegitimate child of the reservist or of his wife, born before his discharge who was mainly dependent upon him at the time of his death, and provided that, where the child is the illegitimate child of the wife, the wife fulfilled the conditions relating to marriage contained in paragraph 17 of this Schedule.

21. A child's pension will normally cease when the child attains the age of 16 years. However, it may be granted or continued after this age:

(a) if the child continues to receive full-time education, or is an apprentice not receiving more than nominal wages; or

(b) if, before attaining the age referred to above the child was, and continues to be, afflicted by mental or bodily infirmity and is therefore incapable of earnings his or her own living, provided the Secretary of State for Defence considers that the pecuniary circumstances of the child and family are such as to justify the award.

22. Children's pensions will be paid to the widow or mother of the child, or other person responsible for the child's maintenance, or to the child direct as may be decided by the Secretary of State for Defence.

23. Children's pensions may be paid in respect of no more than 4 eligible children. If more than 4 children should be eligible then the Secretary of State for Defence may apportion the maximum award admissible between them.

24. Subject to the conditions of this Section an eligible widow and/or any eligible children, may be granted pensions at the following annual rates:—

With effect from	Widow	Maximum of 4

1st December 1976 ... ..	£548·17	£182·73	£365·46

SECTION III

SURREY COUNTY COUNCIL

The County Council of Surrey (Various Roads) (Weight Restriction) Order, 1977

Notice is hereby given that Surrey County Council propose to make an Order under sections 1 (1), (2) and (3) of the Road Traffic Regulations Act 1967, as amended by Part IX of the Transport Act 1968, Schedule 19 to the Local Government Act 1972, and Schedule 6 to the Road Traffic Act 1974 which will have the effect of prohibiting goods vehicles of an unladen weight exceeding three tons from proceeding along the roads shown below except for vehicles being used:

- (1) Solely for the purpose of access to premises adjacent to roads affected by the Order;
- (2) For the purposes of agriculture on land adjacent to such roads;
- (3) By the emergency services.

The roads affected are:

- (1) Guildford Lane and White Lane from the junction with the A.248 Albury-Shalford Common road to the junction with Halfpenny Lane;
- (2) Littleton Lane and Sandy Lane from the B.3000 Broadwater-Puttenham Road to the A.3100 Portsmouth Road;

These roads were originally the subject of Orders made under legislation that has now been superceded, prohibiting the driving of heavy locomotives, light locomotives, motor tractors or heavy motor cars therein. Those Orders were made because of the restrictive width of these roads that made the presence of heavy vehicles therein undesirable.

A copy of the proposed Order and a relevant map may be inspected at the offices of the Clerk and Solicitor between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4.30 p.m. Monday-Friday. Objections to the proposals together with the grounds on which they are made, must be sent in writing to the Clerk and Solicitor, Guildford Borough Council, Millmead House, Millmead, Guildford by 15th January 1977.
