Exceptions to this rule are those laid down in paragraph 15 of the Department of the Environment Circular 147/74, details of which are available in the offices of the Cherwell District Council. These exceptions mainly affect small buildings within the curtilage of a dwellinghouse, gates, fences, walls or other enclosures, temporary buildings, certain agricultural and industrial buildings and buildings required to be demolished under the provisions of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971, the Housing Act, 1957, or the Pastoral Measure, 1968.

This provision does not relate to trees covered by a felling licence, to dead trees, where the trees concerned do not exceed 75mm (3 inches approximately) in diameter, and in certain other cases details of which can be obtained from the Cherwell District Council.

(e) The Cherwell District Council will generally only consider detailed planning applications in this conservation area.
