FORESTRY COMMISSION

The Forestry Commissioners hereby give notice that they have made an Order under the Plant Health Act 1967 entitled The Dutch Elm Disease (Local Authorities) Order 1977.

This Order revokes and re-enacts with minor modifications the Dutch Elm Disease (Local Authorities) Order 1974 as amended by later Orders which successively specified additional local authorities to which that Order applied. This Order sets out in the First Schedule all the local authorities to which it applies. Certain local authorities to which the 1974 Order applied are omitted; these are the Councils of the Counties of Cornwall, Mid Glamorgan and South Glamorgan. The Council of the County of West Sussex has been added.

The Order empowers the local authorities specified in the Schedule to take certain steps to prevent the spread of Dutch elm disease. Each local authority may enforce the Order within their own area.

An officer appointed by such local authority may enter on land and inspect elm trees, standing or felled, and take away parts for tests and, after giving the occupier prior notice, may enter on the land and take action, extending if need be to the destruction of the trees by fire, either on the land or elsewhere, to prevent the spread of the disease. The Dutch Elm Disease (Restriction on Movement of Elms) Order 1977 prohibits the movement of elm with bark attached from areas listed in the Schedule to that Order and the movement of such elm along or across highways, or by rail or water in any areas not so listed. An exception to the latter permits such movement of an elm by an appointed officer for the purpose of destruction by fire pursuant to Articles 4 (4) and 5 (4) of this Order provided that the movement is restricted to a radius of 5 miles from the location of the elm and that in the course of such movement the elm is not moved from an area listed in the Schedule to that Order into an area not so listed. If there are infected elm trees on any land the occupier or other responsible person may be served with a notice by the local authority which may require the destruction of the whole or part of such trees and the taking of other specified steps to prevent the spread of the disease. If such a notice is not complied with the necessary work may be carried out by an appointed officer after giving the occupier prior notice, and the local authority may recover the cost from the person in default. In addition, failure to comply with such a notice is an offence.

For the purpose of carrying out his functions under the Order an appointed officer may, on entering land, be accompanied by other persons acting under his instructions, and by equipment, and those persons, upon production of their authority if so required, may remain on the land and may also re-enter to carry out the work as directed by the appointed officer.

The Order also contains transitional provisions.

The Order will come into operation on 2nd August 1977 and has been published as Statutory Instrument No. 1074.

Copies may be purchased at 25p net direct from Her Majesty's Stationery Office, at the addresses shown on the last page of this Gazette, or from any bookseller.

The Forestry Commissioners hereby give notice that they have made an Order under the Plant Health Act 1967 entitled The Dutch Elm Disease (Restriction on Movement of Elms) Order 1977.

This Order revokes and re-enacts the provisions of the Dutch Elm Disease (Restriction on Movement of Elms) Order 1975, as amended by the Dutch Elm Disease (Restriction on Movement of Elms) (Amendment) Order 1976, with the addition of the counties of Mid Glamorgan and South Glamorgan and part of the county of Clwyd to, and the ommission of part of the area of the non-metropolitan county of West Sussex from, the areas listed in the Schedule to that Order and the substitution of references to the Dutch Elm Disease (Local Authorities) Order 1977 for references to the 1974 Order of the same title which it replaces.

The Order restricts the movement of elms in Great Britan by providing that, except as provided by Article 3 (2) and (3), no elm shall be moved:

(a) out of the areas listed in the Schedule to this Order, or

(b) from any place within any area not listed in that Schedule to any other place by a highway, by rail or water, unless the bark of the elm has been removed.

The Order empowers the Forestry Commissioners or an inspector, if satisfied that any elm is or has been moved in contravention of this Order, to serve a notice on the owner or person in charge of it requiring the removal of bark from the elm or the destruction of the elm. If the requirements of such a notice are not fulfilled, the necessary work may be carried out by an inspector and the expenses incurred recovered from the person in default. An inspector entering any premises in connection with the execution of this Order may be accompanied by persons acting under his instructions and by equipment, and those persons, upon production of their authority if so required, may remain on the premises and may also re-enter for the purpose of carrying out the work as directed by the inspector.

The Order gives certain other powers of entry and examination to inspectors, prescribes penalties for its contravention, and provides for the furnishing of information and the production of records relating to diseased elms or elms in respect of which a contravention of the Order has taken place.

The Order will come into operation on 2nd August 1977 and has been published as Statutory Instrument No. 1075.

Copies may be purchased at 25p net direct from Her Majesty's Stationery Office, at the addresses shown on the last page of this Gazette, or from booksellers.
