Notice is hereby given that the Cardiff City Council, in pursuance of its powers under Section 277 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, has extended the Boundary of the St. Fagans Conservation Area.

The Boundary of the Conservation Areas is extended to include the Folk Museum of the National Museum of Wales and the land surrounding the Village including the defined "visually sensitive area" to the South.

The Area is now bounded to the North by the line of the St. Brides Road and Pentrebane Road from the disused railway to the Boundary of the Bishop Hannon School and to the East by the built-up areas of Pentrebane and Fairwater including Plymouth Woods.

If the vehicle displays a valid permit combined with a valid season ticket no such charge is payable;

(f) provides that calendars and season tickets combined with permits will be issued by the City Council an application being made by any person residing in the streets or parts of streets listed in Schedules 3 and 4 to this Notice or in any other street or part of a street within controlled parking zone "F" who is the owner of a passenger vehicle (12 seats or less), a goods carrying vehicle not more than eight feet in height, a motor cycle or an invalid carriage;

(c) an additional cycle parking area is designated in Cavendish Square.

5 The restrictions imposed by the City of Westminster (Waiting and Loading Restriction) Order 1976 will apply to any areas previously designated as parking places and not redesignated as such, as they apply in the immediate vicinity.

6 The Parking Places Order will come into operation for the purposes of the application for permits and for the installation of parking meters, etc., on 1st August 1977 and for all other purposes in relation to the parking places in the highways specified in Schedules 2 and 3 to this Notice on the dates specified in relation thereto in column 2 thereof.
