

The Plan referred to in the foregoing Order in Council

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 26th day of July 1977

Present,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas a Representation duly made to Her Majesty in Council by the Secretary of State for the Environment that burials should be discontinued as hereinafter directed in a further part of the old section of St. Nicholas' Church Cemetery, Shepperton, in the County of Surrey, has, in pursuance of an Order in Council made the 9th day of March 1977, and duly published, been taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred on Her by section 1 of the Burial Act 1853 (1853 c. 134) and of all other powers Her enabling, is pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. Burials shall be discontinued forthwith in the further part of the old section of St. Nicholas' Church Cemetery, Shepperton, in the County of Surrey, shown hatched on the plan annexed hereto.

Provided that in any earthen grave now existing in the said part of the said Cemetery, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

2. This Order may be cited as the Burial Grounds (St. Nicholas' Church Cemetery, Shepperton, Surrey) Order 1977.
