

exposed, or advertised to be sold or otherwise disposed of in the United Kingdom and that the said goods should be exported from the United Kingdom on the departure from the United Kingdom of the person who imported them.

Whereby and by force of Article 17(2) of the Customs Duty (Personal Reliefs) Order 1970, the said goods are liable to forfeiture.

If you claim that the said goods are not liable to forfeiture you must within one month from the date of this notice of seizure give notice of your claim in accordance with the said Schedule to the said Act specifying the name and address of a Solicitor in the United Kingdom who is authorised to accept service of process and to act on your behalf. In default of such notice the said goods will be deemed to have been duly condemned as forfeited and will be liable to be disposed of in such manner as the Commissioners of Customs and Excise may direct. If you make such claim within the time aforesaid, legal proceedings will be taken for the condemnation thereof.

D. G. Westray, Officer of Customs and Excise, Queen's Warehouse, St. John's Road, Dover, CT17 9SH, Kent.
