Greeting!

Whereas We have deemed it expedient that a Commission should forthwith issue to examine, having regard both to the interests of the community in bringing offenders to justice and to the rights and liberties of persons suspected or accused of crime, and taking into account also the need for the efficient and economical use of resources, whether changes are needed in England and Wales in

- (i) the powers and duties of the police in respect of the investigation of criminal offences and the rights and duties of suspect and accused persons, including the means by which these are secured;
- (ii) the process of and responsibility for the prosecution of criminal offences; and
- (iii) such other features of criminal procedure and evidence as relate to the above;

and to make recommendations:

Now know ye that We, reposing great trust and confidence in your knowledge and ability, have authorised and appointed, and do by these Presents authorise and appoint you the said Sir Cyril Henry Philips (Chairman); Sir Edward Walter Eveleigh; James Larkin Jones; Sir Arthur William Peterson; Sir Douglas Osmond; Daphne Irvine Prideaux Gask; Cecil Thomas Latham; Richard Henry Pamplin; Michael Parker Banton; William Alfred Beaumont Forbes; Paul Leonard Fox; Dianne Hayter; John Charles Kenneth Mercer; Walter Hugh Merricks; Joan Robina Straker and Canon Wilfred Denniston Wood to be Our Commissioners for the purpose of the said inquiry:

And for the better effecting the purposes of this Order Commission We do by these Presents give and grant unto you, or any five or more of you, full power to call before you such persons as you shall judge likely to afford you any information upon the subject of this Our Commission; to call for information in writing; and also to call for, have access to and examine all such books, documents, registers and records as may afford you the fullest information on the subject and to inquire of and concerning the premises by all other lawful ways and means whatsoever:

And We do by these Present authorise and empower you, or any of you, to visit and personally inspect such places as you may deem it expedient so to inspect for the more effectual carrying out of the purposes aforesaid:

And we do by these Presents will and ordain that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you, Our said Commissioners, or any five or more of you may from time to time proceed in the execution thereof, and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment:

And We do further ordain that you, or any five or more of you, have liberty to report your proceedings under this Our Commission from time to time if you shall judge it expedient so to do:

And Our further will and pleasure is that you do, with as little delay as possible, report to Us your opinion upon the matters herein submitted for your consideration.

Given at Our Court at Sandringham the 3rd day of February 1978; In the Twenty-sixth Year of Our Reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,
Merlyn Rees.
