

Kingdom and he did not declare the said vehicle, as required by section 6 (1) of the Finance Act 1968; and (b) the said vehicle being imported goods chargeable with a duty of customs was removed from the place of importation without payment of that duty, otherwise than as provided by or under the Customs and Excise Act 1952.

Whereby and by force of section 6 (3) of the Finance Act 1968 and section 44 of the Customs and Excise Act 1952, the said goods are liable to forfeiture.

If you claim that the said goods are not liable to forfeiture you must within 1 month from the date of this notice of seizure give notice of your claim in accordance with the said Schedule to the said Act specifying the name and address of a Solicitor in England and Wales who is authorised to accept service of process and to act on your behalf. In default of such notice the said goods will be deemed to have been duly condemned as forfeited and will be liable to be disposed of in such manner as the Commissioners of Customs and Excise may direct. If you make such claim within the time aforesaid, legal proceedings will be taken for the condemnation thereof.
