- (c) "accommodation" means living accommodation without any service or benefit not ordinarily provided by the landlord to the tenant of an unfurnished dwelling house, but may include accommodation reasonably required for the storage of furniture.

In determining whether an award shall be made, account will be taken of the extent to which the member was supporting his parents at the time of his death, and the extent to which, if he had not died, he would have been likely, in the opinion of the Defence Council, to support them.
