

At the Court at
Buckingham Palace the 26th day of June 1979

Present,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas the Secretary of State for the Environment, after giving to the Incumbent and Churchwardens of the Parish of St. Barnabas, Mayland, in the County of Essex, ten days' previous notice of his intention in that behalf, has, under the provisions of the Burial Act 1853 as amended by subsequent enactments, made a Representation to Her Majesty in Council that burials should be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the Old Churchyard, Mayland,

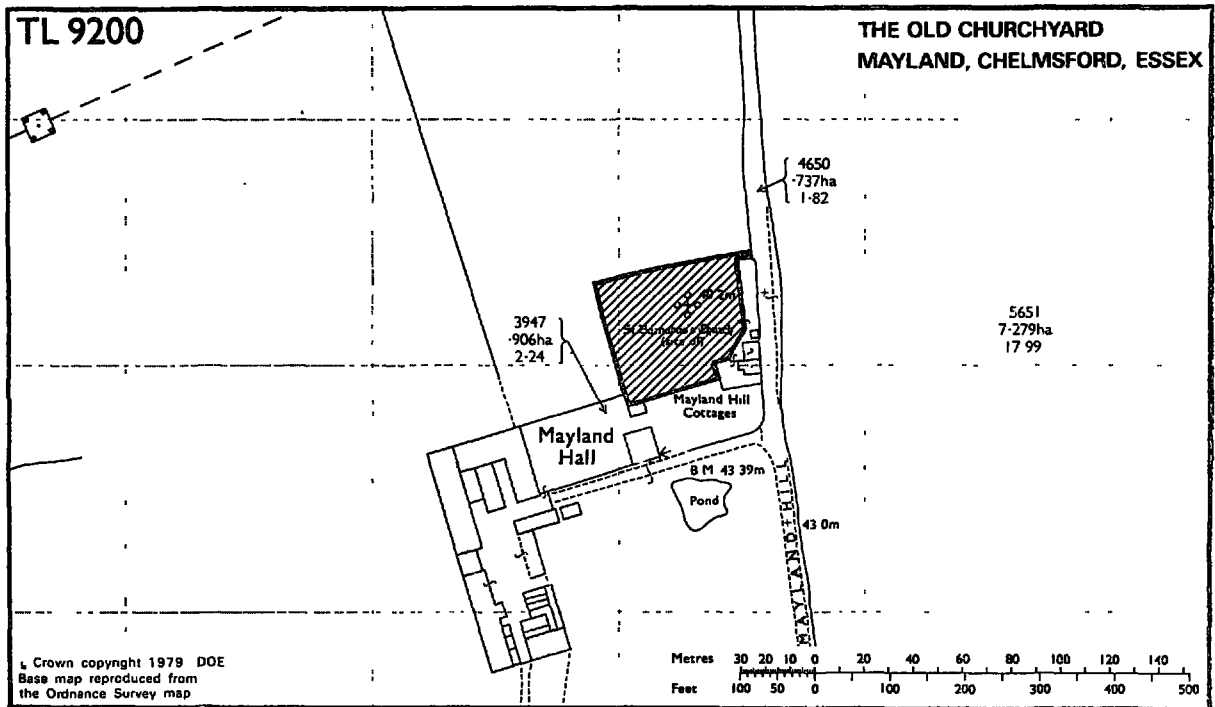

Chelmsford, in the said Parish, shown hatched on the plan annexed hereto.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give Notice of such Representation and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 12th day of August next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the Churches or Chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within the Parish affected by such Representation one month before the said 12th day of August.

The Plan referred to in the foregoing Order in Council

At the Court at
Buckingham Palace the 26th day of June 1979

Present,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas the Secretary of State for the Environment, after giving to the Incumbent and Churchwardens of the Parish of St. Mary's, Kingskerswell, in the County of Devon, ten days' previous notice of his intention in that behalf, has, under the provisions of the Burial Act 1853 as amended by subsequent enactments, made a Representation to Her Majesty in Council that burials should be discontinued forthwith in the old part of St. Mary's Churchyard, in the said Parish, shown hatched on the plan annexed hereto.

Provided that—

(a) in any walled grave now existing in the said part of the said Churchyard, burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such grave be separately enclosed by stone-work or brickwork properly cemented;

A 2

(b) in any earthen grave now existing in the said part of the said Churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give Notice of such Representation and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 12th day of August next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the Churches or Chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the Parish affected by such Representation one month before the said 12th day of August.
