

The Plan referred to in the foregoing Order in Council

At the Court at
Buckingham Palace the 19th day of December 1979
Present,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas a Representation duly made to Her Majesty in Council by the Secretary of State for the Environment that burials should be discontinued as hereinafter directed in St. Andrew's Churchyard, Banwell, in the County of Avon, has, in pursuance of an Order in Council made the 19th day of October 1979, and duly published, been taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred on Her by section 1 of the Burial Act 1853 (1853 c. 134), and of all other powers Her enabling, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. Burials shall be discontinued forthwith in St. Andrew's

Churchyard, Banwell, in the County of Avon, shown hatched on the plan annexed hereto.

Provided that—

- (a) in any vault now existing in the said Churchyard burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault be separately enclosed by stone-work or brickwork properly cemented;
- (b) in any earthen grave now existing in the said Churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

2. This Order may be cited as the Burial Grounds (St. Andrew's Churchyard, Banwell, Avon) Order 1979.
