A Discourse concerning the Use of Incense in Divine Offices. Wherein it is proved, That that Practice, taken up in the Middle Ages, both by the Eastern and Western Churches, is, notwithstanding, an Innovation from the Doctrine of the said and parent Churches, and the Traditions deriv'd from the Apostles. Serving also to evince, That even the Consent of those Churches of the Middle Ages is no certain Argument, that even the Particulars, wherein they are supposed to Consent, were faithfully deriv'd from the Apostles, against the Modern Allegers of the Infallibility of Oral Tradition. In a Letter to a Friend. By Henry Dodwell, M. A. Printed for James Holland at the Bible and Ball in St. Paul's Church-yard.
