St. James's, February 25.

THIS Evening Cavalier Giraldi, Envoy-Extraordinary from the Grand Duke of Tuscany, had a private Audience of Her Majesty, to notify the Death of Prince Francis de Medicis; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Dartmouth, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and Conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Master of the Ceremonies.

Coire, February 3. N. S. About the beginning of the last Month the Congress of the three Leagues of the Grisons took into Consideration the Treaty made in the Year 1707, for the Passage of the Troops of the Allies through their Territories, and finding, that after their repeated Complaints, they have not obtain'd the Satisfaction they expected from the House of Austria, in relation to several Articles of that Treaty, and that they lie under many Grievances which they take to be contrary to their Hereditary Treaty with the Imperial Family, as well as the Treaty aforementioned, they came to a Resolution to acquaint the several Communities of this State with the whole Matter, and desire them to send their Votes and Opinions to the next Congress, which was then adjourn'd to the beginning of this Month, and is to resume their meeting here to Morrow; with Intention, if in the mean time they had no redress from the Court of Vienna, to shut up the Passages of these Mountains, and allow none of the Troops or Recruits of the Allies to go through this Country to Italy. This Resolution was Communicated to Mr. Manning, the British Minister here; as likewise to the other Ministers concern'd, in order to move their respective Sovereigns to procure a due execution of the Treaties. Mr. Manning has since signified to this State, that her Britannick Majesty has been pleas'd to reiterate her Orders to her Envoy-Extraordinary at Vienna, to endeavour to obtain Satisfaction on their just Complaints. The French Envoys in this Country have been very industrious in dispersing Libels to blacken Monsieur Masner, and to vilify those who have used any endeavours to Countenance and Protect him. The Secretaries of the French Ambassador at Soleure have lately had recourse to their old Artifices of spreading false News, and representing the Affairs of the Allies in a very bad Condition, in order to influence this People in favour of France. Monsieur Merveilleux, the first Author of this Affair of Monsieur Masner, came lately to Sargans, a Place belonging to some of the Catholick Cantons, about six hours from this Town, where he is at hand to do all the mischief he is capable of, and leaves no Stone unturned to raise Disturbances in this Country on account of that Business. Mr. Manning has been oblig'd to present a Memorial to the Council here, complaining of one of these late Libels, which reflects very much on the Character her Majesty has honour'd him with to this Republick. The Count du Luc, the French Ambassador to the Swiss Cantons, has writ a Letter to the Grisons upon the Affair of Monsieur Masner; wherein, besides several Insinuations in prejudice of the Allies, he particularly reflects on the Memorials given in by the Baron de Greuth, the Imperial Minister, and Mr. Manning, and accuses Monsieur Masner of several Robberies; but it is expected that those false Suggestions will not be long unanswer'd, and that Monsieur Masner will continue to have the same Support he has hitherto found in so just a Cause.

Milan, February 4. N. S. Signior Brentani having on all Occasions shown himself zealous for the Interests of the House of Austria, the Prince of Savoy, our Governor, has been pleas'd to make him Treasurer of the Milanese. They write from Rome, that the French do all they can to obstruct the Count de Boffu, Agent to the Cardinal de Bouillon at that Court, and to render his Negotiations ineffectual, notwithstanding which it is said the Pope shows him much Respect, and has declared himself ready to espouse the Cardinal's Interest, so far as is consistent with the Honour and Dignity of the Holy See. These Letters add, that the 31st of the last Month being the Anniversary of the Death of Pope Alexander VIII. the same was celebrated in St. Peter's Church, where the Body of that Pope is deposited. The whole College of Cardinals assist'd at that Solemnity, to which they were invited by Cardinal Ottoboni, Nephew to the Deceased.

Colagne, February 20. N. S. The Deputies of the Circle of Westphalia continue their Conferences, and it is thought that before they separate they will come to a Resolution of augmenting the Troops belonging to the Circle considerably against the next Campaign. Great numbers of People having died lately in the Neighbourhood of this Place, of a Distemper supposed to be Contagious, all possible Precautions have been taken to prevent the spreading of it; and it is hop'd the Weather, which is now grown very Cold, will put a stop to it. They write from Coblents, that the new Elector of Treves has receiv'd his Bulls from Rome, and taken the custom'd Oaths with the usual Ceremonies. Letters from Frankfort of the 11th Instant advise, that the Earl of Peterborough was arriv'd there in his way to Vienna; and that the Rhine

Rhine being frozen up, the Troops that are already posted along that River, are to be reinforced by those of Hesse-Darmstadt, that they may be in a condition to oppose the French, in case they make any Attempts during the Frost. Prince Lewis of Wolfenbittel continues indisposed at Brunfwick; from whence Prince Galeczin, the Muscovite Ambassador Extraordinary, is set out, having first settled all the Articles relating to the Match between the Hereditary Prince of Muscovy and the Princess of Wolfembittel.

Falmouth, February 22. Just now sailed the Queen Packet-Boat, Capt. Culverden Commander, with three Mails for Lisbon, and Recruits for Spain.

Dartmouth, February 23. On the 21st came in here two Dutch Doggers from Cork, laden with Butter and Hides, for Zealand.

Yarmouth, February 23. This Day failed out of our Road divers Coasters to the Southward with their Convoy.

Deale, February 25. Here are Her Majesty's Ships the Ruby and Sapphire, with the Outward-bound Merchant-ships and Coasters. Yesterday in the Afternoon came down the Marlborough, Union, Martha, Mary and Francis, and the Mary and Elizabeth Transports; also the Pelican, bound for the Isle of May.

There are three Mails due from Holland.

This is to give Notice, That the Evelyn Packet-Boat, now at Biddisford, will be ready to proceed, Wind and Weather permitting, for the West-Indies, with the Letters and Packets that shall be ready on Tuesday the 27th of this Month.

The Commissioners for Victualling Her Majesty's Navy give Notice, that on Wednesday the 7th of March next, in the Forenoon, they will be ready at their Office to treat with all such Persons as are inclinable to furnish Oxen and Hogs for Sea-Store; as also Oxen for fresh Meat at Portsmouth, and likewise Oxen for fresh Meat for her Majesty's Service at Charham.
