

if the call is transmitted by wireless telegraphy over the first part of its course to a station for wireless telegraphy established on land within the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man;

(c) from any other telephone;

provided, in cases (b) and (c), that appropriate arrangements have been made by the Post Office permitting credit card calls of the description concerned to be made under the authority of credit card numbers allocated by the Post Office.

(14) If a person requests the telephone exchange operator (or other person to whom disclosure of the credit card number for the purpose of obtaining a credit card call is authorised by the Post Office) to establish a call which involves the use of the Post Office telephone system as a credit card call and quotes a credit card number allocated by the Post Office the operator (or other person aforesaid) may comply with that request, in which case the charges in respect of the call and for any services or facilities in relation to the call will be payable on demand, in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraphs (15) and (16) and subject to the exceptions referred to in the proviso to sub-paragraph (15), by the person on whose application credit card service was originally provided (referred to in the following provisions of this paragraph as "the original subscriber"), even if when the call was made credit card service in respect of which the relevant credit card had been issued had previously been terminated or was terminated after the call had been made (in either case with or without telephone service to which credit card service was ancillary having also been terminated). In a case where either of the exceptions referred to in the proviso to sub-paragraph (15) applies, the charges which the original subscriber would have been otherwise liable to pay shall be payable on demand by the person who made the call.

(15) The charges in respect of a credit card call which are payable in accordance with sub-paragraph (14) shall be:

(a) where the call is made from a telephone in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, the Channel Islands or a ship or aircraft to another telephone so situated or to a telephone in the Republic of Ireland, such charges in respect of the call as would have been payable if the call had been made otherwise than as a credit card call and, in addition the service charge for the credit card call specified in item 4 of Part 1 of Schedule 27;

(b) where the call is made otherwise than as in (a), such call charge and such service charge as the Post Office may fix;

Provided that the following exceptions shall apply to calls made as in (a) or (b):

(i) in a case where notification has been received by the Post Office from the original subscriber in accordance with sub-paragraph (4) that a credit card has been lost or stolen or that a credit card number has been irregularly disclosed and, thereafter, a credit card call is made without the knowledge or consent of the original subscriber or the holder of the credit card, no charge for the call shall be payable by the original subscriber if the Post Office is satisfied that all reasonable precautions were taken to safeguard the credit card from being lost or stolen and the credit card number from being disclosed;

(ii) in a case where a credit card has ceased to be valid and the original subscriber (not being the holder) is able to satisfy the Post Office that he informed the holder of the credit card that the credit card had ceased to be valid and that the holder was no longer authorised to make credit card calls by quoting its number and, after being so informed, the holder, nevertheless, did make such a call, no charge for the call shall be payable by the original subscriber.

(16) The charges payable in accordance with sub-paragraphs (14) and (15) shall be payable by the original subscriber or the person who made the call (as the case may be) in a case where the call is irregularly obtained by quoting the number of a credit card which has ceased to be valid as well as in a case where the call is obtained by quoting the number of a valid credit card.

(17) Where there is an arrangement between the Post Office and an Authority providing telephone service under licence from the Post Office or an Authority providing telephone service anywhere outside the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man whereby the holders of credit cards issued by that Authority to its subscribers may make calls from telephones on the Post Office system on terms that the call charges will be paid by those subscribers the following provision shall apply:

A person who satisfies the Post Office that he is the holder of a current credit card issued by such Authority, and that the telephone to which he wishes to make a call is one to which he may make credit card calls under the arrangement, may make the call as a credit card call from any telephone on the Post Office system and in that case no call charge, service charge or other charge shall be payable under this Scheme by the caller or by the person who is the subscriber in respect of the telephone from which the call is made.

(18) This paragraph shall apply to services and facilities related to telephone calls and to the charges in respect of such services and facilities, as it applies to credit card calls and to the charges in respect thereof."
